Catholic Kolping Society
Attn: Robert Hemsing, President
165 E 88th St
New York, NY 10128-2241

Dear Robert,

On behalf of the students, families, teachers, principals and staff, I would like to thank you for your $1,500.00 gift to New York Nativity for the scholarships of Henry Romero, Jose Hernandez, Chris Pimental, Carlos Hernandez, Eduardo Gomez, and Ivan Paulino received on 10/18/2012.

Your support affords many opportunities to over 200 young men and women living in some of New York City's most underserved neighborhoods. It enables us to provide an exemplary Jesuit-inspired middle school education rooted in the values of excellence and service. Our intensive educational experience, built around the Nativity model of success, prepares students for rates of achievement well above their peers in high school, college and beyond.

At New York Nativity, we inspire students to become "men and women for others" while they are on the road to intellectual, emotional, spiritual and physical growth. Your generosity makes it possible for us to fulfill our mission of transforming lives.

In gratitude,

Dr. Michael V. Yazurlo
President

Thank you for your support of our children. Mike

SPECIAL ADVANCE NOTICE OF OUR LENTEN PROJECT

Because of the great need we are letting you know early about our Lenten Project. We will be collecting money for the victims of Hurricane Sandy. We will be sending $50 gift cards to the Pastors of three New York parishes that were hard hit by the Hurricane. The gift cards will say "from the Catholic Kolping Society". The Pastors will decide which parishioners need the most help and give them gift card(s). Fr. Bretone and Kolping Board Members are talking and will let us know the names of these Parishes. In the meantime, we want to start collecting money. Our goal is $1,500. If we reach that goal, the Catholic Kolping Society of NY will match the amount and we will have a total of $3,000 to send to aid our fellow New Yorkers. You can make your check out to Catholic Kolping Society and mail it to Muriel Fullam at Kolping-On-Hudson, 95 Montrose Point Road, Montrose, NY 10548. We will be sending out emails as the money comes in to let you know how close we are to reaching our goal.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S JANUARY 2013 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

The Faith of Christians. That in this Year of Faith Christians may deepen their knowledge of the mystery of Christ and witness joyfully to the gift of faith in him.

Middle Eastern Christians. That the Christian communities of the Middle East, often discriminated against, may receive from the Holy Spirit the strength of fidelity and perseverance.

Kolping Christmas/St. Nikolaus Party submitted by Muriel Fullam

Thanks to our photographers: Muriel Fullam, John Noonan, and Al Sartorius, Jr.

December 2th, the first Sunday in Advent was a wonderful day at Kolping House on 88th St. First we had a beautiful Mass celebrated by Fr. Bretone. In his homily Father reminded us that Advent is the time for us to get ready for the coming of the Lord. Thank you to Fr. Bretone (photo 1) and to Don Simons (photo 2) and his accordion for this nice start to the day. Father wore a purple vestment that was donated by Nancy & Mike Bryne in loving memory of the deceased members of the Byrne & Rodenberger Families. He read from a new Mass Missal that was donated by Jean St. Germain in loving memory of her parents, Herbert & Mary St. Germain. After the Mass we welcomed three new families to our membership (photo 3).

Our 25 year member and wonderful chef Wolfgang Hahn (photo 4) prepared the best meal—Pork, as well as chicken, red cabbage, a melody of carrots and celery, spaetzle, and salad. It was delicious. Of course, Ernst Endrich and his staff, Ray, Ken, Giovanni, Chris, Gilbert & Miguel all helped to decorate and setup the tables. The room looked so festive. And when it was over—they cleaned up. Thanks to all of you. Thank you also to Kelly, & Emily Weinborg, Jenna Richardson and Emily Dengler for serving the food. Wilma Endrich is our Christmas elf. You don't see her, but she does all the behind the scenes preparation for the meal. She remembers everything and writes notes to remind everyone. She ordered the stolen, cookies, and candies that were sold at the party. Thank you to Joan Dengler & Jerry Fullam for working at the "goodies" table.

Sister Flora Marinelli (photo 5) spoke to us while we ate about this year's Advent Project. Sister has been a Director of Religious Education as well as a Pastoral Associate at Saint Patrick's in Long Island City. They could really use our support with their religious education program. They have very limited resources—they need books and other supplies. Please send in your donation—make your check out to the Catholic Kolping Society and mail to Muriel Fullam at Kolping on Hudson, 95 Montrose Point Rd, Montrose, NY 10548.

Our Person of the Year awards went to Joan Dengler (photo 6, with Heidi Umland) and Jozef Soldatits. Thanks to both of you for all that you do.

A check for $250 was awarded to Michael Cudahy, our eighth grade student who was the winner of the Joe Sartorius Scholarship (photo 7).

This year we had a special award—The Distinguished Service Award. This is the highest honor that can be given to Kolping Members in the U.S. The first recipient was John Noonan. John, a Kolping member for 63 years has served on the Board of Directors for many years. He served as Comptroller, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Chairman of the Communion Breakfast Committee, and Chairman of the General Meeting Committee. He has attended National Conventions and worked on the National Convention that was held in New York. He is presently our Corresponding Secretary and the roving photographer for Kolping NY events. The second recipient is our editor, Ingrid Reslmaier. Ingrid has served on the Board of Directors, she has attended National Conventions and she helped greatly with the preparations for the NY National Convention. For the past 7 years she has been the Editor-In-Chief of this bulletin. It would be hard to find two more deserving people (photo 8).

Our 50+ year members welcomed a new person into their exclusive group—Jack McGee! Congratulations to Jack, who is also a contributor to our monthly bulletin (photo 9).

Gudrun Brunhuber, Richard Brunhuber, Wolfgang Hahn, Rudolf Koeller, Carol Noll, Dennis Noll, Renate Oelerking and Barbara Weber received their 25 year certificate and pins this year (photo 10). Renate, Rudolf and Barbara could not make the party. Congratulations to all!

We also had the pleasure of awarding a plaque to Jorge Paris, the former manager of Kolping-On-Concourse, for his 33 years of service to Kolping (photo 11). Jorge is enjoying his retirement by traveling and doing the things he never had time for in the past. Good Luck and Best Wishes to Jorge.

Anna Dengler and her friends plus Don Simons did a great job of getting us up off our seats with the Christmas carols (photo 12). We all especially liked the "Twelve Days Of Christmas". This entertainment was especially loved by the little ones who were growing impatient while waiting for St. Nick.

This year, because Nick Colletti was ill, Gerry Ladenhauf donned the Santa suit and did an excellent job. He was assisted by elves, Kelly & Emily Weinborg and Jenna Richardson (photo 13). St. Nikolaus thanks Donna and Jenna Richardson for doing all the shopping. They try to pick the right gift for each child and then they do all the wrapping. There were a lot of happy little faces opening up gifts so I think they did an excellent job.

Thanks go to Katrina Dengler, Ann Hemsing, Bob Hemsing, John Noonan and Donna Richardson for all that they did to make this a fun day.

Joseph Sartorius Scholarship Application

2013 Theme: In European countries such as France and Germany, which are only nominally Christian, there is a religion which is vibrantly expanding—Islam. This rapid growth of Islam has caused a good deal of xenophobia and religious discrimination in Europe. There is a great fear that Europe will loose its religious and cultural heritage. In the New York City area there has been a significant rise in the Muslim population. What is your opinion with regard to the increased Muslim presence in the United States. Will it damage or destroy our religious and cultural heritage? Will it enrich our country's future as was the case when Catholics first arrived in the United States in great numbers in the nineteenth century? Let us not forget how the first German and Irish Catholics were persecuted, even killed, when they first arrived in the United States.

Scholarship Applicants must:

5. Accept the decision of the judges as final.

Stories of Interest

Sister Marianne Cope submitted by Martin A. Kelly

On October 21, 2012, German-American Catholics have cause to stand taller and prouder. One of "their own" was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI.

Was she the founder of a religious order; a miracle worker; or a martyr to Atheistic brutes? No! She was a simple nursing sister (Krankenschwester) of the order of St. Joseph who sought to serve the Lord by caring for his sheep. Mother Marianne, formerly Barbara Koob (variants: Kob, Kopp, and now officially Cope) was born January 23, 1838 and baptized the following day in what is now Hessen, West Germany. She was the daughter of farmer, Peter Koob and Barbara Witzenbacher Koob, his second wife. Peter Koob's first wife had nine children before she died, only two of whom reached adulthood. Peter and Barbara Koob had five children born in Germany, and five born in the United States. In 1839, the year following Barbara's birth, the family emigrated to the United States to seek a new start in the land of opportunity. Peter Koob became a naturalized citizen in the 1850s as did his children, including Barbara, who were minors at the time. The Koob family became members of St. Joseph's Parish in Utica, N.Y., where the children, including Barbara, attended the parish school.

She recognized her vocation early in life and was received into the order of St. Joseph. Trained as a teacher and nurse, she, initially, sought to fulfill her vows, serving the Lord, among the sizeable German-American community of Syracuse, New York. After several years of successful ministering, she still felt she had not done enough for the Lord.

She determined to suffer more for Christ, because he had suffered greatly for us; and so she volunteered to act as a nurse at the leprosarium at Molokai in the Hawaiian Islands.

Each case was the focus of infection ready to reach out and grasp some new victim. Starting as a scaly rash, the macabre progression, includes loss of function in the limbs, grotesque scarring and dropping off of appendages. Finally, death seals the victims fate.

Like a good soldier she followed her commitment to the Lord. Sister died in 1918. She serves as a model of Christian charity and an icon for emulation for youth throughout the world.

News from the Branches

submitted by Jack McGee

Philadelphia

At our Board of Directors meeting the point was made that we need a list of some activities that our members can get involved with to help promote the good of society locally, nationally, and internationally. We are interested in hearing from all our members. Are you presently or were you formerly involved in some outreach or activity to make your neighborhood more friendly and interactive? Is there a need for educational help for others, such as ESL (English as a second language); helping others to become more computer-savvy; or just some after school homework guidance that our members could be involved in? Do we want to hold a few fund-raising activities to support, for instance the Steuben Parade; or to rebuild a home in Haiti, still suffering the aftermath of an earthquake 2 years ago? Are there other charitable works we can be involved with a Kolping Family; or groups like the 4-H club we could organize; or do we enhance our togetherness by dances or festivals? We certainly want to see Kolping Philadelphia grow, especially with new young energetic families (including their teenage and young adult members). The goals of the Society, since it was founded by Father Kolping, have not changed. They remain the call for members to show their Christian faith, to reach out in aid to fellow members and to society world-wide, to promote the good of all through shared activities.

Cincinnati

Fr. David Hiller High School Scholarship: The Fr. David Hiller Fund will offer two $2500 grants to children of active Kolping parents. Grants are available for children who will be freshmen at a Greater Cincinnati Catholic High School in the school year 2012-2013. These grants will be renewable for each successive school year provided certain conditions are met. Current grant recipients are also required to reapply in order to receive their renewable grants.

Where to ice skate now

submitted by Jack McGee

The Rink at Rockefeller Center

You'll have ample room to skate at the city's most iconic rink: only 150 people are allowed on the ice at once. If you want the privilege of being among the first to relish the cold stuff in the morning, visit the rink's website to make a reservation for the first skate of the day (daily 7am, through Jan 7). 30 Rockefeller Plaza between 49th and 50th Sts (212-332-7654, therinkatrockcenter.com). Daily 7am–midnight. $15-25; skate rental $10.

Citi Pond at Bryant Park

Bryant Park's 17,000-square-foot outdoor rink is free and open late. The admission may be gratis, but you'll have to shell out $14 to rent skates (or BYO). Still, it's a veritable winter wonderland: After your skate, warm up at spacious rinkside restaurant Celsius, or browse the Holiday Shops at Bryant Park. Sixth Ave between 40th and 42nd Sts (212-661-6640, citipondatbryantpark.com). Mon–Thu, Sun 8am–10pm; Fri, Sat 8am–midnight. Free; skate rental $14.

Trump Wollman Rink

Braving the crowds is worth it for the priceless Central Park scenery. If you're a skating greenhorn yourself, take heart—Wollman Rink is home to the largest learn-to-skate program in the country. Central Park, enter at W 59th St at Sixth Ave (212-439-6900, wollmanskatingrink.com). Mon, Tue 10am–2:30pm; Wed, Thu 10am–10pm; Fri, Sat 10am–11pm; Sun 10am–9pm, $6–$17; skate rental $7.

Trump Lasker Rink

The second Donald-branded skating venue isn't quite as popular as Wollman Rink, which means more space for you to hit your stride. The rink is open until 11pm on Friday and Saturday nights. When the ice isn't available to the public, good odds are there's a hockey game or practice happening; if you're a puck fan, stop by to cheer on the adult and youth teams. Central Park, enter at W 110th St at Malcolm X Blvd (Lenox Ave) (917-492-3856, laskerrink.com). Times vary. $4-7, skate rental $6.
