Richard and Gudrun Brunhuber are proud and happy to announce the arrival of their grandchild, Keira Mai Hemmer. Keira was born on December 12, 2006. Her parents are Martina Brunhuber and Charles Hemmer.

Our Sincere Thanks

Thanks to Paul Rederer for his generous donation to KOH. Paul has remembered us each year and also lends his support during our KOH clean up days. He is very handy with a rake!

A very big thanks to Jerry Fullam for all his time and care he give to our Kolping ducks during these cold days of winter. Without being asked, Jerry has seen to it that the ducks are fed and watered. They are the envy of all the other wild life that prowl the grounds of KOH! Thanks so much Jerry—the ducks owe their survival to you.

[from Ann Horan] Happy Birthday and continued thanks to Ingrid, our Bulletin editor as she starts her third year on the job. Ingrid is a pleasure to work with and you should feel free to send her your news so we can all keep in touch. (from Ingrid...thank you!)

Faithful February

By Jack McGee

February is a short month on our calendar, yet full of many items of interest that would normally pass us by...a few historical, a few liturgical.

We begin the month with February 2nd, The Feast of the presentation of Christ in the Temple. The Blessed Virgin Mary, being Jewish, was bound by the Mosaic Law in her religious practices. The law of Moses dictated that male children must be brought to the temple 40 days after birth where they would be dedicated to a life of service to God. This service would also "purify the woman, whose body had been tainted by childbirth."

While at the temple, Mary encountered a prophet who announced great things from her son, but that "a sword of sorrow would pierce her heart."

Years ago, there was a custom that Catholics would purchase a religious, blessed candle on this day. It is also called Candlemass Day since all of the candles to be used in the church liturgy are blessed on this day.

February 3rd is the Feast Day of St. Blaise. It has been the custom for hundreds of years for Catholics to visit the church to have their throats blessed.

During the years of 300 A.D., St. Blaise was a medical doctor in Armenia. Being dissatisfied with the ways that people were wasting their lives, he became a priest and later a bishop. The Governor of Turkey at that time began a persecution of all Christians. Due to the popularity of the Saint and the many miracles attributed to him, he had him seized, to be imprisoned, tortured and beheaded. As the soldiers led him away, a woman on the roadside begged him to cure her son who was dying from a throat ailment. After a moment of prayer, he touched the child's throat and the child was cured.

February 14 also has a liturgical Christian foundation. St. Valentine was also a member of the clergy, in Rome. During an anti-Christian edict from the Emperor, he was seized and imprisoned. Tradition has passed on to us, that the jailer's daughter felt sorry for him since she knew his fate, and she, during this imprisonment, he introduced her to his Christ crucified.

Before being led off to be beheaded, he left her a note of gratitude and concluded it..."from your Valentine". Today during February we rarely see the letters "St." before any mention of Valentine in the public advertising of events, but it was on February 14th in the year 270 A.D. that he left his final remembrance, just before being led away.

Historically we used to have Lincoln's Birthday on February 12 and Washington's Birthday on the 22nd, celebrated with many festivities...parades, concerts, radio programs, TV films and, of course, two extra school holidays. American history was the theme on the agenda.

Times change over the years and so it was decided to combine the two under the title of "Presidents' Day" and move it to a Monday. Critics claim that the inspiration of these two men has been lost, especially to our children in their study of American History. It is now said that "Presidents' Day" has become a commercial holiday and lost its historical, true holiday significance. You, fellow readers, will have to decide the gain or the loss for this change in our February calendar of events.

This year February 21 has been added, as our month's liturgical celebration. It is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the 40 days of Lent for members of the Christian faith. It is the custom to visit one's church where burnt palm ashes will be touched to one forehead to remind him/her that "Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return".

Ash Wednesday, (the beginning of Lent, as is Good Friday, the termination of Lent), is a day of strict Fast and Abstinence. No meat in the menu, no eating between meals, and all meals should be modified in content. All Fridays of Lent are strict days of Abstinence, or as they used to be called "Fish Fridays".

...MOTORISTS BE AWARE... The following is good news for New York City motorists. The New York City parking rules (also known as alternate side of the street parking) will be suspended on the following dates: Monday, February 12 (Lincoln's birthday), Sunday, February 18 (Asian New Year), Monday, February 19 (President's Day), Wednesday, February 21 (Ash Wednesday), and Sunday, March 4 (Purim).

Andrea Jaeger submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Andrea Jaeger...then and now

At the Anglican Cathedral of Cincinnati, Ohio, August 12, 2006, the congregation was transfixed at the profession of a nun about to take place. The bishop, resplendent in his vestments, nodded to the postulant who rose and approached him; and, then knelt.

After intoning the rituals, the bishop laid his hands on her shoulders and bade her to rise. Coming to full stature, the 41 year old flaxen hair beauty stood still, her eyes glistened as her mind reviewed her earlier life.

She was born Andrea Jaeger to German immigrant parents in Chicago, June 4, 1965. At an early age, she had shown athletic skill, and her father, Roland, encouraged her pursuit of tennis. By 14, she was a professional and won enthusiastic applause at the U.S. Opens, Wimbledon and French Opens, where she bettered such tennis divas as Chris Evert, Jean King, and Maria Navratilova.

But the exhilaration of winning matches paled with the joy she experienced working with seriously ill children in hospital wards. Then, she suddenly became a patient; and while convalescing had an "umschwung".

In the French Open of 1985, she "popped" her right shoulder. After 7 surgeries, the shoulder that had swung the racket would not heal properly, and her career ended. But, she had time to contemplate her role in this life from a Biblical point of view. She decided to give up the rat-race of professional sports and personify charity. She divested her $1.4 millions garnered from purses and used it to establish recreation centers for juvenile cancer patients.

With the support of celebrities, her "Silver Lining Foundation" has prospered and offers a variety of benefits for these unfortunate.

Then, in 2006, 21 years after the end of her sports career, she took the ultimate step—and, now awakening from her short life history reverie, she took a deep breathe and stepped forward not as Andrea Jaeger, tennis pro and philanthropist, but Sister Andrea of the Anglican Dominican Order.

"Snow Man" submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Everyone is talking about the unusual weather we have been experiencing. But it wasn't always that way.

A few years ago a certain mid-western town was blanketed with several heavy downpours of that glittering white material. One feisty housewife ventured out for some necessary groceries.

As she trudged down the street, she saw a police man up to his shoulders in snow.

"I feel sorry for you standing in such snow," she explained.

"Don't worry about me," he replied, "think of the horse who is under me."

There is a Heaven for Volunteers

Submitted by Jack McGee

Many will be shocked to find when the day of judgement nears that there's a special place in Heaven set aside for Volunteers...

Furnished with big recliners, satin couches and footstools, that there's no committee chairman, no group leaders, no car pools... no eager team that needs a coach, no bazaar and no bake sale, there will be nothing to staple, not one thing to fold and mail...

But a finger snap will bring cool drinks and gourmet meals and rare treats fit for a king.

You ask, "Who'll serve those privileged few and work for all they're worth?"

Why—All those who reaped the benefits and not once VOLUNTEERED on Earth!
