Stories of Interest

Colonel Werner Moelders (German Air Force)

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

It's not very likely that anyone closely associated with the Third Reich would be elevated to sainthood. If, however, one were pressed to suggest someone from that setting who exemplified a high degree of Catholicity it might be Colonel Werner Moelders.

He was born in 1913 and grew up in an atmosphere of post-World War I defeatism. By the 1930s, Germany began to re-emerge as a world power; and she needed a military that would command respect. From a patriotic family, Moelders rose to the challenge and applied for flight training.

They accepted him, but "earning his wings" was not easy. Moelders was subject to "air-sickness". For a pilot this was cause for a "wash-out". By a conscious effort of application and practice, he overcame this malady. He rose to become the world's highest scoring ace up until his untimely death on November 11, 1941. But his demise is a mystery and conspiracy theories abound to this day.

Moelders was a staunch Roman Catholic and attended mass almost daily. His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, had condemned the "racial superiority" philosophy of the Nazis in his encyclical "Mit Brennendem Borgeu". He foresaw how right and justice would be trampled on for the sake of expediency under such arrogance. Moelders was not silent about his objections to some of the orders coming out of Berlin. These remarks would not have gone unnoticed in a police state.

At the peak of his combat career (117 confirmed victories), Hitler ordered his "top gun" to be assigned to the air transport division. It was supposed to protect him so he could serve as a mentor to younger flyers. As a passenger in a transport aircraft, Moelders met his death in a bizarre accident.

Ernst Udet, one of German's highest scoring aces in World War I, returned to civilian life as a stunt flyer and barn-stormer. He travelled abroad to perform, and particularly enjoyed America and Americans. Later, he returned to Germany and accepted a high rank in the Luftwaffe. But, when he saw the direction things were taking and the ultimate consequence, he shot himself. It was in returning from Udet's state funeral that the transport carrying Moelders crashed killing him and the other passengers. He had only been married 2 weeks.

Suppose Moelders had survived, would he remain silent in the face of the atrocities the Nazis were about to perpetrate? What might have been his effect on the war? Who knows...

A LITTLE HUMOR

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

An upstate doctor visited his uncle in the city. Eventually, the conversation came around to the uncle's health.

The uncle said he had hypertension and his own doctor had prescribed a medication, but he could not remember its name.

Trying to recall the drug's name, the uncle asked "What flower comes in white, red, and pink?"

His nephew replied, "Roses."

"That's it," said the uncle. Then he yelled into the kitchen to his wife, "Hey, Rose, what does the doctor give me for my hypertension?"

Lenten Regulations submitted by Jack McGee

In his Lenten Message for 2008, our Holy Father draws special attention to the practice of almsgiving as a sign of Christian love. Love draws us to the heart of the mystery of God, who is love. Our "attachment to Christ" opens us to celebrate more profoundly the mystery of God's love, shown to us, especially in the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus.

It is a season of repentance, of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. It is a time of new life and new hope. We joyfully walk with those who are preparing to be initiated and received into full communion, and look forward to affirming the baptismal life we have already received. May this holy season give us the grace to share with others more completely the love we ourselves have received. May Mary, "Mother and faithful Servant of the Lord," show us the way to authentic conversion.

In order to help us take part more fully in the season of Lent, the Church has established the following as minimal requirements for us:

ABSTINENCE—All the faithful who have reached 14 years of age are required to abstain totally from meat on Ash Wednesday and the Fridays of Lent.

FASTING—All the faithful between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This practice involves limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Light sustenance may also be taken on two other occasions during the day.

EASTER DUTY—After they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, all the faithful are bound by the obligation of receiving Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept must be fulfilled during the Easter season, unless for a good reason it is fulfilled at another time of the year. By special indult, in the United States, the time period for fulfilling this precept has been extended to include the period beginning the First Sunday of Lent (Feb. 10) to Trinity Sunday (May 18).

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS DURING LENT 2008 From the Cardinal

SOLEMNITY OF ST JOSEPH—Pope Benedict XVI has determined for the Universal Church that this year only, the Solemnity of Saint Joseph is to be celebrated on Saturday, March 15, 2008.

MEMORIAL OF ST. PATRICK—The Memorial of St. Patrick is to be celebrated on Friday, March 14, 2008. As this is a Friday during Lent, a dispensation from abstinence from meat to those members of the faithful who celebrate this day has been granted. Those who avail themselves of this dispensation should substitute a different day during the season of Lent to observe these penitential disciplines.

MONDAY OF HOLY WEEK—On March 17, 2008, the celebration of Mass and of the Liturgy of the Hours must be that of Monday of Holy Week, not that of St. Patrick. (In the Archdiocese of New York, including in the Cathedral of St. Patrick, the liturgical celebrations will be those of Monday of Holy Week.) The St. Patrick's Day Parade, which is not sponsored by the Archdiocese of New York, is scheduled to take place on Monday, March 17, 2008.

WEDNESDAY OF HOLY WEEK—On March 19, 2008, the celebration of Mass and of the Liturgy of the Hours must be that of Wednesday of Holy Week, not that of St. Joseph.

THE FOLLOWING SHOULD ALSO BE NOTED:

- The obligation to observe, as a whole or substantially, the penitential days specified by the Church is a serious one. Days of penance are not merely individual exercises—they are observed by the whole Church, as the Body of Christ.
- After having reached the age of discretion, members of the faithful are bound to confess once a year grave sins which have not already been absolved.
- The faithful are encouraged to celebrate the sacraments of the Eucharist and Penance frequently during the Lenten season. Reading the Scriptures, prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, generosity toward the poor and the needy are additional means of becoming more involved in the Lenten season. Operation Rice Bowl is one example of a specific way to give alms.
- Pastors and parents are responsible to see that young persons, who are not bound to the above requirements, are educated in an authentic sense of penance.
- All other Fridays of the year remain as days of penance in prayerful remembrance of the Passion of Jesus Christ. The Bishops of the United States have recommended abstinence from meat as a penance for all Fridays of the year, although each individual may substitute for that tradition some other practice of voluntary self-denial or personal penance. This may involve acts of mortification, prayer or charity.
- In prayerful pilgrimage with the catechumens and candidates for full initiation, let us accompany our Lord on His way to the cross and to the empty tomb. May we use this time of Lent to be more closely united with Christ in his Death and Resurrection.

A New Feast Day: Sunday, March 30 submitted by Jack McGee

In the liturgy of the Church, we have a new feast day. It is known as Divine Mercy Sunday. On February 22, 1931, Christ appeared to a Polish nun, Sister Faustina Kowalska, in her convent and asked her to paint the image of the Christ standing before her and to make every effort to have the Feast of Mercy observed.

Sister Faustina was ordered by Jesus Christ to keep a journal during the last four years of her life in which she recorded events relating primarily to the encounters of her soul with her God.

"Paint an image according to the pattern (the image) you see, with the signature "Jesus, I Trust in You". I want this image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy (Divine Mercy Sunday).

By means of this image I shall be granting many graces to souls; so let every soul have access to it.

I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I am giving them the last hope of salvation. Whoever approaches the Fount of Life on this day will be granted complete remission of sins and punishment.

To profit from these great gifts, we must fulfill the conditions of the Divine Mercy devotion (trust in God's goodness and active love toward neighbor), be in a state of sanctifying grace—having gone to Holy Confession and worthily receive Holy Communion.

THE CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY printed here under the painting by Sister Faustina, was dictated by Christ Himself, on September 13-14, 1935, as a prayer of atonement and for the appeasement of God's wrath.

Souls that say the chaplet will be embraced by My Mercy during their lifetime and especially at the hour of their death.

As often as you hear the clock strike the third hour, immerse yourself completely in My Mercy. Try your best to make the Stations of the Cross at this hour. If this is not possible, immerse yourself in prayer, if only for an instant.

THE CHAPLET OF THE DIVINE MERCY (to be recited on ordinary rosary beads)

Begin with:

Our Father..., Hail Mary..., The Apostles' Creed.

Then, on the OUR FATHER BEADS you will say the following words:

Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On the HAIL MARY BEADS you will say the following words:

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

In conclusion, THREE TIMES you will recite these words:

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

(From the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina, 476) With Ecclesiastical Approval

"Through the Chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for will be compatible with My will" (Diary, 1731, see also 1541).

"By this novena [of chaplets, before the Feast of Mercy], I will grant every possible grace to souls" (Diary, 796).

"Even if a sinner were most hardened, if only once he will recite this chaplet, he will obtain grace from My infinite mercy" (Diary, 687).
