BOARD MEETING NEWS

They replace Mike Weinborg and long-time board member Bert Bruegger. We extend our sincere thanks for all their contributions and time spent serving on the board.

NEWS FROM THE BRANCHES submitted by Jack McGee

BROOKLYN KOLPING never seems to stop its constant list of activities. They really did an all out spread to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with a festive Dinner and a Holiday Dance. For a small society, they really think big. One can't help but note the tremendous list of societies and community groups that they made donations to during the past holiday season.

DETROIT KOLPING would like us to know that on April 24th they will be celebrating their 75th King's Ball, honoring their King George II and Queen Gertrude and their Court. The next item on Detroit's agenda which will be held on July 3 and 4th and known as THE SCHUETZENFEST is one of the big affairs of the year. Preparations have been going on for months. Detroit Kolping does a lot of community work and participates in projects to let everyone know that "we are Kolping". One such endeavor is the annual clothing drive. This is combined with their food drive. These help to promote Kolping in the community and show that we care. Detroit Kolping traditionally honors our patron, St. Joseph, with a day long celebration on March 19th with a day of spiritual, as well as social activities which include devotional participation, sung Masses, recitation of the rosary, concerts, etc. And lastly, their latest good news is that they have found a new Praeses, the Reverend Lawrence Webber OFM Cap. We consider ourselves most fortunate to have Father Larry join us.

PHILADELPHIA KOLPING [written by Father Bert Michel]

The November issue of KOLPING MAGAZIN printed in German 10 months of the year had a short article on Kolping activities in Germany. In 2008 the National Kolping Office established a "Community Grant" fund that would benefit the four fields of activity encouraged by the Kolping Society of Germany: Youth; the work world; the family; and "One World" projects. The National Society promotes activities at all levels of each Kolping Family in each town, thereby hoping to give overall awareness of the good work of Kolping Families and their local projects. The first grants given out last year, were given to the "Family Fund" of the Sögel-Stavem Kolping Society which encouraged family activities; and to the Young Adult Kolping Group of Cologne-Blumenberg which developed projects for disadvantaged children. As we work to establish a larger and more active Philadelphia Kolping Family; hopefully we can develop outreach programs to these four areas, locally and nationally. We certainly have been involved in such projects, but we always have the challenge before us to get more friends involved in the Kolping Society of Philadelphia and its activities.

Kolping Ski Trip [March 12-14] submitted by Alex & Gerhard Schmitt

2010 proved to be another banner year for the Kolping ski trip in Vermont. Once again, the Wilsons outdid themselves to make us comfortable at the Mountaineer Inn. Some of us arrived Thursday evening, settled in, and enjoyed plenty of skiing. Friday night the rest of the guests arrived. We were a total of 42 adults and 23 children. The weather was a little iffy on Saturday, but a little prayer to Father Kolping cleared up the rain and even netted us about 6" of fresh snow for Sunday. After skiing a dip in the hot tub was a welcome relief to tired and sore muscles and a good place to swap "lies" about the day's skiing exploits.

This year we found out Ned, the innkeeper, can cook. I certainly enjoyed all my omelets and fish dinner on Saturday night. The bacon wrapped pork medallions and roasted chicken were very good, too.

We would like to thank everyone for joining us and hope you had a great time as we did. We are also grateful to our friends at the Mountaineer Inn for again doing a great job of accommodating us. We can't wait to go back again in 2011.

Stories of Interest

Demetrius Gallitzin—Prince and Priest (1770 – 1840)

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Pennsylvania, as we know, is called the "Quaker State" to honor its founder the Reverend William Penn; but, it was not exclusively Protestant.

Thanks to a Russian prince turned priest, the Allegheny (western) Pennsylvania area had deep Catholic roots. He was Father Demetrius Gallitzin the son of a Russian prince and a Prussian countess. His mother was a lapsed Catholic and he was brought up in his father's Orthodox faith.

A wunderkind, he was being groomed for diplomatic postings. While he was assigned as military attaché to the Austrian Imperial Army, his mother was stricken and recovered her health after much praying. She reverted to her Catholic faith; and, her example lead Demetrius to introspection.

He had an umschwung and renounced his political and military heritage to become a lowly missionary priest in newly-constituted America. He was the first priest to be completely trained and receive Holy Orders in America, March 18, 1795.

He was granted a 400 acre swath of forest in the Pennsylvania wilderness; and, through his leadership, inspiration, and financial help (he contributed his personal wealth as a noble) he forged a farm community which he called Loretto. The area, now called Cambria, still has its strong Catholic roots.

The writer of many tracts in defense of the Pope and Catholic faith, which are used as resources, he gave his last full measure of devotion in preparing for the Easter Celebration, May 6, 1840.

April 11 is Divine Mercy Sunday submitted by Jack McGee

In the February "Bulletin" we introduced the picture of Christ, which He instructed Sister Faustina, in a convent in Poland, to paint of Him.

The image shows the vision St. Faustina saw of the risen Christ with rays of light streaming from HIS heart. "The rays on the picture represent the water and the blood which gushed forth from the depths of My Mercy when my agonizing Heart was opened on the cross." These were the words spoken to her, followed by the instructions "Paint a picture according to the vision you see and with the inscription "Jesus I Trust In You." I desire that this picture be venerated in your chapel and then throughout the whole world".

Jesus asked that a nine day novena be started on Good Friday and continued until Mercy Sunday, saying, "I desire that the Feast be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, especially for poor sinners. I will pour out a sea of graces upon those souls that will approach a font of My Mercy. The souls that will go to confession and communion on that day will obtain a complete remission of sin and punishment. Let no soul fear to come to Me, even if his sins be as scarlet".

The nine day novena prayers will be said on our ordinary rosary beads as indicated under the picture, the longer prayer on the Hail Mary beads.

Sister Faustina was canonized in Rome by the late Pope John Paul II, after a very thorough study of the validity of her diary, as well as the miracles attributed to her intercession.

During the canonization ceremony, the Pope officially declared the Sunday after Easter to be known throughout the Church as "Divine Mercy Sunday. Sister Faustina was elevated to sainthood on April 30, 2000.

Christ defined her vocation. "You are the secretary of My Mercy. I have chosen you for this office in this and the next life, to make known to souls the great mercy that I have for them, and to exhort them to trust in the bottomless depth of my mercy". Sister's diary of her seven years of visions and communications with Christ is available in Catholic book stores around town, as well as by mail order. Lengthly, yet very interesting reading. A Diary with Jesus Christ.

THE CHAPLET OF THE DIVINE MERCY (to be recited on ordinary rosary beads)

Begin with: Our Father...Hail Mary... The Apostles' Creed.

Then, on the Our Father Beads you will say the following words: Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On the Hail Mary Beads you will say the following words: For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

In conclusion, THREE TIMES you will recite these words: Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

How Green is Your Neighborhood?

NY4P's newest advocacy tool, the Open Space Index, is a series of parks and open space targets that can be used to "green" every NYC neighborhood. Communities can fine-tune their advocacy work and more effectively engage in local planning by comparing neighborhood data on existing open space against the Index's targets. Following a briefing on the Index, panelists will discuss community planning, greening efforts in NYC and how to best leverage community-based efforts for results.

New Strategies for Revenue Generation

Funding park and recreation services presents a constant challenge. In strained economic times with shrinking public funding, park advocates must revisit and reimagine how to fund their local parks. NY4P will lead a discussion on the latest research into alternative funding strategies. Examples of successful national, state, and local strategies will be explored through a lively discussion with panelists, focusing on the broader political implications of employing them on a citywide scale.
