Spring has sprung at Kolping-On-Hudson and we have much work to do to get it cleaned up and ready for the season. Please come out and help even if it is just for an hour or two. The more people we have the faster we get done. Doris and Heidi serve a delicious lunch to all who work. See detailed schedule on page 3.

A big THANK YOU to members, Albert & Anita Buchholz. Years ago they had donated their 1962 Ford truck to KOH. It had been used at KOH for many years to haul furniture, rocks, and you name it from one point to another. It finally broke down completely and we were able to sell it this month to a junk dealer or $500. So thanks again, Albert & Anita!

NAME THE EAGLES CONTEST

There is still time to enter our Name the Eagles Contest. The Eagles have been seen at the nest at KOH. Send in a name for both Mom & Dad to Kolping On Hudson, Att: Muriel Fullam, 95 Montrose Point Road, Montrose, NY 10548 or email Muriel-Fullam@msn.com. Did you know:

The adult Bald Eagle is mainly brown with a white head and tail. The sexes are identical in plumage, but females are larger than males. The beak is large and hooked. The plumage of the immature eagle is brown. Bald Eagles are not actually bald, the name derives from the older meaning of the word, "white headed".

A NEW WAY OF MAILING THE BULLETIN

As you all probably have noticed by now, the last three issues of the Kolping Bulletin have been mailed a bit differently than in the past. Thanks to the efforts of Muriel Fullam and the Board of Directors, we now have non-profit status for mailings. This will result in a big savings for Kolping. But the downside is that the mail is not delivered as timely as first-class mail. Therefore, we have an earlier due-date for materials, and we are attempting to mail the Bulletin a week earlier than in the past so that everyone receives their issue near to the first of the month. We have found that some members are receiving their Bulletins quickly, and other times it takes a while—it's a bit of hit or miss. As a reminder, you can download your Bulletin from www.kolpingny.org.

2012 KOLPING SKI TRIP

March 16-18 marked yet another successful Kolping ski weekend at Mount Snow. Although Gerhard Schmitt could not join us due to family obligations, he was with us in spirit! And we thank him and Muriel for all the prep work they put in that allowed us all to have a such a fantastic experience at the Mountaineer once again. We had many returnees, plus some new faces, and we hope to see everyone again next year...including those that couldn't make it (you were all sorely missed!). More to come in the next issue, including many beautiful photos from the top of the mountain, which was above the cloud line!

Archbishop Timothy M. Dolan
1011 First Ave
New York, NY 10022

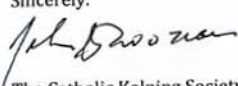

Your Excellency:

The Catholic Kolping Society of New York rejoices in the great honor you bring to the New York Archdiocese with your elevation to the Sacred College of Cardinals.

Blessed Adolph Kolping began his work in 1847 with the journeymen's association that came to be known as the Catholic Kolping Society. Its mission was to foster the religious and social betterment of journeymen workers in the waning days of the guild system. The Catholic Kolping Society has continued in this mission today providing housing in a safe religious environment at Kolping Houses around the world. At the United Nations Kolping gives practical witness to Catholic beliefs and aspirations for the betterment of mankind as an accredited Non-Governmental Organization (NGO).

We take great pride and happiness reflecting on your visit to our Kolping House on East 88th Street here in New York.

It is our desire to wish you ad multos annos in your ministry with us.

Sincerely,

The Catholic Kolping Society of New York

Dear John,

Thank you for your thoughtful expression of congratulations on the occasion of my nomination to the College of Cardinals.

While I am immensely grateful to the Holy Father for this honor, I realize as well that it's a tribute, not to me, but to the Archdiocese of New York and this great community.

It's also for me an opportunity to praise God not only for His grace and mercy, but also for the family, friends, and wonderful folks -- like you -- without whom I'd be nothing.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

General Meeting & Elections submitted by Muriel Fullam, photos by John Noonan

First of all, many thanks to Wolfgang Hahn for preparing a delicious meal. Thanks also to our wonderful 88th Street staff—Giovanni, Ray, Ken and Roger for all their preparations and cleanup.

The day started off with Mass at St. Joseph's. A coffee hour was supposed to follow Mass at St. Joseph's but due to a miscommunication, the coffee and cake hour was moved to Kolping House. This turned out very well—some of St. Joseph's parishioners also came, it was their first time at Kolping. We will do this again next year!

As for the elections, several of our current board members were reelected for the new term. They are as follows, Dennis Noll, John Reitter, Gerhard Schmitt, Al Sartorius Jr. and Donna Richardson. We have two new board members: Ann Horan Hemsing, our former secretary and Hans Lechner, a member since 2005. Ann knows everything about Kolping and since she is married to Kolping's President, won't have any problems getting to the meetings. Hans is a former president of the Bavarian Club Edelweiss, and a member of the Peekskill German American Social Club. He has a Master Rigger's license, a pilot's license and he knows everybody. We feel that these two new board members will be a huge asset to Kolping's Board.

After being brought up to date on all Kolping matters, our meeting was closed with a prayer and a few words from Fr. Bretone. Father said he learns so much from attending our meetings and is impressed by our board members' professionalism. We thank all of our board members for their dedication to Kolping and for the time they spend at meetings and doing other work to promote Kolping. Thank you Father Bretone for attending all of our meetings as well. We know you have a very busy schedule.

Minutes from this meeting will be published in a future bulletin.

Stories of Interest

ANNA SCHAEFFER submitted by Martin A. Kelly

The pomp and pageantry of the recent elevation of two American bishops to the office of Cardinal nearly obscured a note of epic praise. Pope Benedict XVI announced that he would name seven new saints on October 21st. Among them are three women, of whom one was a German lay mystic.

Anna Schaeffer was born near Regensburg in Bavaria, Feb. 18, 1882; and, her life was anything but a “bed of roses.” One of the eldest of a large family, the responsibility of helping to bring up her younger siblings became hers when her father died prematurely. She had wanted to be a missionary; now, at the age of 19, she had to be one of the “bread winners.”

One afternoon in 1896, in a laundry at Stammham, a tragic accident occurred which would handicap her for life. She fell into a tub of boiling detergent and sustained 3rd degree burns over much of her body.

After a year in a hospital, she was discharged with “no hope.” Skin grafts had not been heard of; there was no way to heal her burns. She was bed ridden for the rest of her life in a state of racking discomfort.

She resolved to make the best of it. Fervently, she prayed and received the Blessed Sacrament daily. It would seem some gifts of the Holy Spirit expressed themselves through her. Writers from Austria, Switzerland, America, and her home land wrote her seeking her advice and intercession. She had many visions and apparitions and was credited with working miracles, carrying on an apostolate from her bedside. In addition, she crocheted altar cloths of the Sacred Heart of Jesus which she distributed freely. She was called home on October 5, 1925 and her grave site became a popular pilgrimage mission. In spite of her grievous pain, she never lost sight of her responsibility to help others through her counsel and insight.

TEN GIFTS THAT DO NOT COST A CENT..... submitted by Jack McGee

1. The Gift of Listening...but you must really listen. No interrupting, no day dreaming, and no planning your response. Just listen.
2. The Gift of Affection....The small actions of appropriate pats on the back, hugs, and handholds help demonstrate the love you have for family and friends.
3. The Gift of Laughter...Clip cartoons, Share articles and funny stories. Help people laugh; it's good for their health.
4. The Gift of a written note... It can be as simple as a “Thanks for the help” note or a little poem. A brief handwritten note may be remembered for a lifetime, and it may even change a life.
5. The Gift of a Compliment...A simple and sincere, “You look good in that outfit, “You did a super job,” or “That was a great meal” can make someone's day.
6. The Gift of a Favor...Every day go out of your way to do something kind.
7. The Gift of Solitude...There are times where we want nothing better than to be left alone. Be sensitive to those times and give solitude to others.
8. The Gift of a Cheerful Disposition...The easiest way to feel good is to extend a kind word to someone. It's not that hard to say “Hello”, or “Thank you”.
9. The Gift of Saying Thanks ...Consciously express gratitude to everyone who does something for you, no matter what focus on expressing gratitude to those around you.
10. The Gift of Prayer...Pray for loved ones, and let them know you are praying for them. Leave a prayer on their answering machine, or drop them a prayer note.

Special Poem for Senior Citizens

submitted by Jack McGee

A row of bottles on my shelf
Caused me to analyze myself.
One yellow pill I have to pop
Goes to my heart so it won't stop.
A little white one that I take
Goes to my hands so they won't shake.
The blue ones that I use a lot
Tell me I'm happy when I'm not.
The purple pill goes to my brain
And tells me that I have no pain.

The capsules tell me not to wheeze
Or cough or choke or even sneeze.
The red ones, smallest of them all
Go to my blood so I won't fall.
The orange ones, very big and bright
Prevent my leg cramps in the night.
Such an array of brilliant pills
Helping to cure all kinds of ills.
But what I'd really like to know...
Is what tells each one where to go!

NEWS FROM THE BRANCHES

Cincinnati

The Board of Directors decided that after Plan 2000 was written, it seemed that there were two lingering or unresolved issues that needed to be addressed. Firstly, the budget should be balanced. They are looking for both ways to save and ways to increase their income. They will focus on new revenue ideas rather than look forward to a future of rigorous cost control. Secondly, they will work to increase their ability to quickly and often keep the membership informed. E-mail blasts are sent to promote events which has resulted in increased attendance. Also, prompt updates and a new look are promised for their website.

Philadelphia

It's been a year of ups and downs for us and the Kolping Society has experienced a lot of changes this past year, the most significant being our move to Cannstatter's. Although a hard decision, from a financial standpoint, this was a good move for us in the long run.

Upcoming events include a trip to see the Trenton Titans (a minor league ice hockey team). Also in the spring there will be the Easter egg hunt and the Communion breakfast.

Our Gettysburg trip has gotten a lot of buzz and many members have asked if we'll run another one. So, back by popular demand, another weekend Gettysburg trip is being scheduled for the first weekend in May. Rooms will be limited, so be sure to sign up if interested.

Brooklyn

Have you wondered why you hear from us less and less in recent years? It is because a handful of hard working people can only wear so many hats and plan so many activities. We are all doing what used to be two or three jobs for the Society in addition to our family, home and job responsibilities. We need more of you to join our Board of Directors. We were lucky to pick up one new, younger member, Valerie Meyer, who is serving on our Board. We need more young members to join her on the Board and invigorate us with new energy. Let's get together to share our ideas in the brotherhood of Blessed Adolph Kolping!

GERMAN MASS St. Joseph's in Yorkville, 404 E. 87th St.
