Mother's Day • May 8

Mother's Day marks the official opening of the 2011 Summer Season at Kolping-on-Hudson. We extend a heartfelt invitation to all our members and friends to celebrate this special day with us.

The cost for dinner is $18 and $9 for children, for a non-member it's $20. The Mass at 3:30PM is being said for Augusta Portilla, Hilda Doyle and Ann Joyce

We have new members joining us for dinner and Mass on Mother's Day. Please introduce yourself to them and make them feel at home. For reservations, or for more information, please call Heidi Umland, KOH Manager, at 718-805-0552 (weekdays) and 914-736-0117 (weekends).

Antique Car Show • May 21

We are getting ready for our Third Annual Auto Show and we want to make it bigger and better than last year. We need YOUR help to do this.

1. If you have an antique, custom or special interest car, please fill out the registration form and mail it to us. Or if you know someone who has a car to show, tell them about us.
2. We also need baked goods, please call us and let us know what you can bring.
3. We need volunteers to help with the grill and food distribution.
4. You can put up flyers about the event in places where you shop, worship etc. We would be happy to mail flyers to you to give out.
5. You can volunteer to help out with whatever we need on that day.
6. You can pray for good weather on May 21, 2011!!!

We appreciate your help and we are looking forward to a great day. Please contact Linda Ahrens at 845-528-2588 or Muriel Fullam at 914-736-2340 (email: muriel.fullam@msn.com) if you can help.

MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of the Catholic Kolping Society of America, extend the vision of our founder, Blessed Adolph Kolping, by promoting the development of the individual and family; we foster a sense of belonging and friendship through our program of spiritual, educational, charitable and social activities.

Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please contact Muriel Fullam (914-582-8379) or email MurielFullam@msn.com when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

Our deepest sympathy to Robert Doyle and his family on the loss of his wife, Hilda Doyle on April 15, 2011. Robert and Hilda have been Kolping members since 1966.

Please keep Fritz Scheuermann, Norbert Dengler, Jack McGee and Walter Gross in your prayers. Also, member Jeff Bernert asks that we include his friend John Keane, who is in a nursing home, in our prayers.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THOSE BORN IN MAY:

If you know someone celebrating a milestone birthday or anniversary, please let us know so we can include it in the Bulletin. Please email either me at editor@kolpingny.org or Muriel Fullam at MurielFullam@msn.com.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Katherine and Walter Weigand are once again proud grandparents! We are happy to report the birth of Sara Johanna to parents Ingrid and Keith Franz. We wish them all the best!

THANK YOU!

Thank you to Bert & Heidi Bruegger, Frances Schulte, Mary McKeon and William Grimm for their generous donations to our Lenten Project.

Thanks you to all of you who are sending in your raffles tickets. The drawing will be held at the Memorial Day BBQ. Great prizes! You need not be present to win.

A special thank you to those of you who are sending in a little extra with your raffle tickets and those of you who are just sending in donations for the Joe Sartorius Scholarship Fund. Our children or grandchildren will benefit greatly when the scholarships are given.

SCHÖNEN DANK submitted by Muriel Fullam

Kolping-On-Hudson is pretty well polished and looking spectacular. The trees branches have been trimmed, cut up and stacked (thank you to Joe Szoldatits and his son Joe), the grass has been raked (thank you Katrina), the plants have been potted, pruned and fed (thank you Marlene and Annemarie) the riverfront has been cleaned up, wood has been moved, tables have been moved (thank you to Beth Hyde who organized some of Boy Scout Troop #36 to come help us out. The boys names are Geoffrey Quist, Andrew Quist, Jason Gershgor, Tyler Treadwell and Assistant Scout Master Nate Treadwell—we thank them all so much). Sorry to say the photo taken of them did not turn out. Donna Richardson's three kids were there to help too. Thank you Steven, Alexa and Jenna for all your hard work.

Rita and Karl Fister, Peggy Dougall, Gerda Steinke, Thomas and Kathleen Williams, Joan Dengler and Mercia Kenna all did a great job with their tasks.

Thanks too, to all the men who worked outside—Albert Buchholz, Nick Colletti, Bob Hemsing, Jerry Fullam, Gerhard Schmitt, Richie Povilonis, James Rohrbacker, Ed Stinson, Ed Geoghegan, Bob Kelleher, and Frank Weigand are some of the men that I remember being there. The grounds look great. Fritz Scheuermann also made appearances during cleanup—he sat working on his tan and made sure that the rest of us kept busy.

The kitchen too is sparkling thanks to Linda Ahrens, Lou Colletti, Muriel Fullam, Beth Heyd, Ann Horan, Donna Richardson and Kathy Weinborg. Of course we had the best help—Gerry Ladenhauf was there doing a lot of the bending and lifting of the heavy pots and pans.

Bobby and Elizabeth Jaki and Jerry Fullam did the most important work—they got the bar area all cleaned up and setup. All it needs now is for us to visit and place an order.

None of this cleanup would have been possible though without the supervision and guidance of our wonderful Doris Petsche and Heidi Umland. And besides their supervision, they feed us delicious lunches. Thank you Heidi and Doris.

I am sure some people were left out of this listing of names and for that I am sorry—but KOH looks great—a good job done by all.

OUTDOOR MOVIE NIGHT AT KOH

Bring a blanket or bring a chair and join us for Outdoor Movie Night at KOH on Saturday, June 4th. We will be showing Despicable Me, rated PG, on our giant outdoor movie screen with the beautiful Hudson River as our backdrop. A wonderful BBQ dinner will be available for purchase starting at 6:30pm, and the pool will be open until 8:00pm. Cartoons will be shown starting at 8:00pm and the movie will begin at 8:30pm. The cost is $5 per person for the movie and admission to the pool. Let's kick off the summer season right with a beautiful evening under the stars. See you then!

Father Bretone's Barn Dance

submitted by John Reitter

The Square Dance fund raiser for Fr. Bretone's Eternal Flame of Hope ministry held on March 26th at Our Lady of Grace in Howard Beach Queens was a huge success! There was a large crowd in attendance and Kolping was represented by most of the Weigand family, Walter and Kathy, sons John and Frank with their spouses, as well as Bob Hemsing, Ann Horan, and John and Betty Reitter. We were treated to some wonderful foot stomping country and western music and even got lessons in square dancing and line dancing...Unfortunately, some of us seem to have two left feet at times, but nonetheless, a fun time was had by all. Raffles of artwork, baskets of goodies and of course, the ever present 50/50 raffle brought the evening to a close. Fr. Bretone and his Eternal Flame of Hope ministry thanked everybody and looked forward to an even more successful event next year. Tell your friends about it!

Bayerisches Brauchtum am Hudson River

Grabenstätter Trachtler spendierten dem nach New York ausgewanderten Bayern Hans Lechner einen Heimaturlaub

Grabenstädt. Mit einem Bayerischen Abend wie aus dem Bilderbuch ließen die Grabenstätter Trachtler den „amerikanischen Bayern“ Hans Lechner aus New York an seinem 70. Geburtstag kräftig hochleben. Den GTEV „Chiemgauer“ verbindet eine langjährige Freundschaft mit Lechner und dem „Bavarian Club Edelweiss“ aus Westchester, New York. Zu seinem Jubiläum spendierten sie dem Urbayern nun einen Heimaturlaub, bei dem die bayerische Kultur nicht zu kurz kam.

Stolz ist Lechner auf „seinen Bavarian Club Edelweiss“, dem er von 1997 bis 2003 vorstand. Der Verein hat 145 Mitglieder, davon sieben aus Grabenstädt. Viele Trachtenkinder sorgen für den Erhalt des bayerischen Brauchtums am Hudson River.

Bereits 1933 gründete der nach Amerika ausgewanderte Grabenstätter Franz Stein den „Bavarian Club Edelweiss“. Zwar wurde der Kontakt gepflegt doch intensiviert wurde er erst richtig, als sich eine Abordnung des GTEV „Chiemgauer“ 1983 erstmals auf die Reise machte um mit dem Bruderverein dessen 50. Gründungsfest zu feiern. Zehn Jahre später packten schon 27 Trachtler ihre Koffer um die Glückwünsche zum 60. Jubiläum persönlich in New York abzuliefern. Dort lernten sie auch Hans Lechner kennen. Geboren in München, wanderte der Paradebayer 1963 nach Kanada aus. Zwei Jahre später verschlug es das „gestandene Mannsbild“ in die Weltmetropole New York. Dort gründete er nicht nur eine Firma für Aufzüge und Kräne sondern auch gleich eine Familie. Bei all dem ist er mit Leib und Seele ein Bayer geblieben. So pflegt er mit seiner Frau Doris und den Töchtern Heidi und Amanda, fern vom Weißwurstäquator, die bayerische Gemütlichkeit. Fast immer spielt bayerische Musik, in der Wohnung hängt die bayerische Fahne und ein Bierfass gibt es auch. Und da ein deutscher Metzger mit immer frischen Weißwürsten gleich ums Eck ist und Mama Doris als gebürtige New Yorkerin den Schweinsbraten mit Knödeln längst so gekonnt auf den Tisch bringt wie eine echte bayerische Hausfrau, fehlt sich auch in punkto „bavarian kitchen“ nichts.

Mittlerweile hat der „Paradebayer“ seine Firma aufgegeben und genießt den Ruhestand.

Zu seinem 70. Geburtstag ließen sich nun seine Grabenstätter Freunde etwas Besonderes einfallen. Einige legten zusammen und spendierten ihm und seiner Frau als „Vergelt's Gott“ einen Aufenthalt inklusive Flug in der Heimat. Denn bei den vielen Stippvisiten, die die Grabenstätter mittlerweile nach New York unternommen haben wurden sie von der Familie immer mit offenen Armen empfangen.

Kein Platz war in der Wirtstube „Zur Post“ mehr zu finden, so zahlreich waren die Trachtler und die vielen Bekannten gekommen um dem Jubilär bei einem „Bayerischen Abend“ die Referenz zu erweisen. Gerührt nahm er die Handgemalte Geburtstagscheibe und eine Miniaturausgabe der Vereinsfahne des GTEV „Chiemgauer“ entgegen. Ein Fotobuch und Dias ließen Erinnerungen wach werden.

Als die Kindergruppe zeigte, was sie in den Proben gelernt hatte, strahlte der „Lechner Hans“ über das ganze Gesicht. Auch die „Altherrenriege“ gab ihr Bestes und plattelte, bis manch einem der „Schnauffer“ ausging. Aus den Reihen der Musikkapelle formierte sich speziell für Amerikareisen die Band „Sixpack“, die sehr zur Freude Lechners das „Rehragout“ wieder aufleben ließen.

So könnte es durchaus sein, dass sich der Paradebayer an dem Abend wie in seiner Wahlheimat New York fühlte, denn wie Hauptorganisator Georg Speckbacher sagte: „es ist unglaublich, mit welchem Enthusiasmus die Mitglieder des Brudervereins das Andenken an ihre bayerische Herkunft aufrechterhalten. Wenn man nicht wüsste, dass man in Amerika ist, könnte man glatt glauben, man wäre in Bayern.“

v links Franz Weshöller, Georg Speckbacher, Trachtenvorstand Sepp Heischmann, Florian Hille und Bürgermeister Georg Schützinger gratulierten dem „Bayerischen Amerikaner“ Hans Lechner (fünfter von links) im Namen der Trachtler und der vielen Bekannten zu seinem 70. Geburtstag mit einer handgemalten Geburtstagscheibe und einer Miniaturausgabe der Vereinsfahne. Die Trachtler hatten Lechner und seine Frau Doris (dritte von links) einen Heimaturlaub spendiert.

Bavarian Tradition on the Hudson River
Traditionalists from Grabenstädt donate a trip home from New York to Bavarian emigrate Hans Lechner

Grabenstädt. Traditionalists from Grabenstädt treated 'American Bavarian' Hans Lechner from New York to a Bavarian-themed evening on his 70th birthday. A friendship of many years connects the heritage club 'Chiemgauer' with Lechner and the Bavarian Club Edelweiss in Westchester, New York. They presented the typical Bavarian with a trip to his home town, packed full of Bavarian culture.

Lechner is proud of 'his Bavarian Club Edelweiss,' which he led from 1997 until 2003. The club has 145 members, seven of which come from Grabenstädt. Many children also help keep up the tradition on the Hudson River.

Way back in 1933 a man named Franz Stein who had emigrated from Grabenstädt to the United States founded the Bavarian Club Edelweiss. Contact with tradition was maintained over the years, but intensified in 1983 when a group from the heritage club 'Chiemgauer' travelled to New York to help their friends from the Bavarian Club Edelweiss celebrate the 50th anniversary of their founding. Ten years later 27 members of the Chiemgauer club packed their bags to travel to New York to personally help their friends celebrate their club's 60th anniversary. That was when they met Hans Lechner. He was born in Munich and emigrated in 1963 to Canada. Two years later this fine figure of a man moved to the world metropolis of New York. There he founded not only a company specializing in elevators and cranes, but also a family. All the while he remained a proud Bavarian through and through. Far from the Weisswurstäquator, he has managed to keep up the tradition with his wife Doris and daughters Heidi and Amanda of Bavarian 'Gemütlichkeit.' In his apartment one can hear Bavarian music. The Bavarian flag waves and there is also beer on tap. Since there is a Bavarian butcher around the corner, which always has fresh Weisswurst available, and also since native New Yorker Mama Doris has long since mastered the art of cooking Schweinsbraten with dumplings, there is plenty of Bavarian cuisine ready to be enjoyed.

In the meanwhile the proud Bavarian has sold his business and retired. To celebrate his 70th birthday his friends from Grabenstädt thought of something special. Some of them got together and presented him and his wife a trip (including airfare) to Grabenstädt. After all, each time the folks visited New York from Grabenstädt, they were greeted with open arms by Hans and family.

All the seats in the local pub 'Zur Post' were taken by the many club members and friends who had come along to celebrate Hans' 70th birthday with a traditional Bavarian evening. Hans was particularly touched when he accepted a hand-painted birthday plaque and a miniature version of the Chiemgauer club flag. A photo album and slide show also brought back some fond memories.

As the children's group performed what they had practiced in the dress rehearsal, one could see that Hans was smiling from ear to ear. The older generation also gave it all they had and performed a traditional dance, causing some snuffles to be heard. The musical group 'Sixpack' formed especially for the club's trips to America got together to play their old hit 'Venison Ragout' for Hans, which pleased him to no end.

It would have been very possible on this evening that the proud Bavarian felt as at home as he feels in his adopted city New York. As the event's organizer Georg Speckbacher said, "It's unbelievable how much enthusiasm for the Bavarian traditions the members of this club show. If you didn't know you were in New York, you'd think you were in Bavaria."

Story of Interest

General William S. Rosecrans

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Born in Ohio, in 1819, William Starke Rosecrans was of the sixth generation, stalwart American stock; however, his family name reveals its German origin. In German, Rosecrans means the "rosary."

William Rosecrans was not, however, a "cradle-Catholic"; he converted to the faith while a freshman-cadet at West Point. Through his inspiration his brother, Sylvester, not only became a Catholic, but, was ordained a priest.

Upon graduation from the Academy, William married Anna Eliza Hegeman; and, he taught philosophy and engineering there (1843-47). After being posted at various bases in New England, Rosecrans left the service in 1854 to enter the private sector as a mining engineer.

The "firing on Fort Sumter" (1861) ushered in the Civil War and Rosecrans joined the side of the anti-slavery Union forces. In the early days of the war, Rosecrans had his soldiers in the thick of the fighting. His plans and decisions proved extremely effective in the West Virginia Campaign. His victories at Rich Mountain and Corrick's Ford in July 1861 were among the very first Union victories of the war, but his superior, Maj. Gen. McClellan, received the credit. Rosecrans then prevented, by "much maneuvering but little fighting," Confederate Brig. Gen. John B. Floyd and his superior, Gen. Robert E. Lee, from recapturing the area that became the state of West Virginia.

Rosecrans was affectionately known by his troops as "Old Rosy"; and, it is perhaps, with concern for their safety, that he failed to follow an illogical order to pursue retreating Confederates at Chickamauga. The high command relieved him, but the wisdom of his choice seemed to be borne out by his being recognized as "the greatest strategist of the war."

After the armistice at Appomattox, Rosecrans served his country as Minister to strife-torn Mexico (1868-69). He went to California for some mining interest, but his reputation preceded him and he was elected representative to Congress (1881-85). Subsequently, he was appointed register of the United States Treasury from 1885 until 1893.

He died in 1898, and his remains are entombed at Arlington National Cemetery. Notwithstanding the secular honors he had amassed, his stature as a "Catholic of great piety" shone brilliantly.

What's Cooking?

IN THE KOH KITCHEN

A hearty 'welcome back' to the 2011 season of "What's Cooking?" in the KOH Kitchen! Safe to say all remnants of snow are gone although the cold seems to be lingering but we hope the worst is truly past us now! We still can't help but feel like the weatherman is going to announce another Nor'Easter heading our way... but the burners are lit on the ovens and we are primed for another season of culinary delights!

The "What's Cooking" page will be featured in the Bulletin for the duration of the Kolping-on-Hudson season which runs from May to October every year. We use this section to let you know what the menu is for the coming month, along with reservation information and information on special dining events, etc.

This information will also be posted on a bulletin board at Kolping-on-Hudson as well as on the KolpingNY.org web site: <http://www.kolpingny.org>

We look forward to sharing another fun-filled and tasty season at KOH!

The KOH Kitchen,

Doris, Kathy and Jen

Notes:

Wait staff and Dishwashers are always in need: We will train! We are always looking for help serving dinner and washing dishes. You do not need to commit for the whole season. Just offering to help even one time helps us serve you better! You pick the day - Saturday or Sunday! This is a paid position open to members, friends and kids over 14 years of age. Please call Heidi at 914-736-0117 for details.

Be a "Guest Chef" at Kolping-on-Hudson: Calling all members and friends! Contact Heidi at 914-736-0117 to arrange the day you would prepare either a Saturday or Sunday meal. You do not need to commit for the whole season. You pick the day and the menu! Kolping will supply you with all the tools - you just need to bring the creativity! This is a paid position.

Calling all Bakers: If you've got the time, we've got the "knead"! We heartily welcome any baked goods (cakes, cookies, desserts, etc.) you would like to donate for either the Antique Car Show on Saturday, May 21st or for the Memorial Day BBQ on Monday, May 30th. The array of delicious desserts that have been donated over the few years or so have drawn a lot of attention as nothing beats "homemade"!
