Mother's Day

May 13, 2012

Mother's Day marks the official opening of the 2012 Summer Season at Kolping-on-Hudson. We extend a heartfelt invitation to all our members and friends to celebrate this special day with us.

The cost for dinner is $18 and $9 for children, for a non-member it's $20. The Mass at 4:00pm is being said for Heidi Janny and Mary Minarik.

We have new members joining us for dinner and Mass on Mother's Day. Please introduce yourself to them and make them feel at home. For reservations, or for more information, please call Heidi Umland, KOH Manager, at 718-805-0552 (weekdays) and 914-736-0117 (weekends).

ATTENTION KIDS (AGES 4 THROUGH 12)

Help us with our Mother's Day decorating and win a Mother's Day Plant for your Mom. Just draw and color/paint a picture of your Mom or Grandma. Use a piece of 8 ½ x 11 paper—any color. Print your first and last name, your Mom or Grandmother's name and your age on the front of the picture. You can mail the picture to me or bring it to Kolping on Hudson on one of the cleanup days. Your pictures will be put on display for Mother's Day in the dining room and in Assmuth Hall for the Mass.

Plants will be given out on Mother's Day to all the children who have submitted pictures. Mail pictures to Kolping On Hudson, Att: Muriel Fullam, 95 Montrose Point Road, Montrose, NY 10548.

MISSION STATEMENT: We, the members of the Catholic Kolping Society of America, extend the vision of our founder, Blessed Adolph Kolping, by promoting the development of the individual and family; we foster a sense of belonging and friendship through our program of spiritual, educational, charitable and social activities.

THANK YOU!

Lenten Project: Thank you to Barbara & Emerich Janny, John & Elizabeth Reitter, Bob & Ann Hemsing, Nick & Lou Colletti, Mary Mckee and Barbara Grimm for their generous donations to our Lenten Project. The money ($700) will go to the Food Bank for Westchester for the Montrose VA food Pantry account.

Thanks to Mathilde Seidl, Peter & Lisa Severin and the whole Seidl family for their donation of an Alb in memory in her husband and their father Richard Seidl. We thank them too for all of the money that was donated to The Catholic Kolping Society in Memory of Richard Seidl by their friends. Some of that money will be used for a bench with a plaque with the inscription "In loving Memory of Richard Seidl". That bench will be placed near the fishing pond. This was a favorite place for Richard to spend with his grandchildren.

A big thank you to Al & Joan Sartorius for their gift of an Alb (the garment that Father wears under his vestment) in memory of their dear friend and former Kolping Member Patricia Gandolfo. Patricia passed away in March of 2012.

We will now have an Alb for Father to keep at 88th Street and one for him to keep at KOH. The Albs will each have a label sewn into the collar—one will say "In loving memory of Richard Seidl" and the other "In loving memory of Patricia Gandolfo".

Thank you, too, to Al and Joycelyn Preisser for their gift that will buy pew cards and other supplies that are needed for our Masses. Their gift was given in memory of Al's parents, Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Preisser.

We give this award in memory of Joe Sartorius who was dedicated to working with children and always made sure they had fun things to do when they came to Kolping. Please send your letter to Muriel Fullam, 2 Cherry Court, Peekskill, NY 10566.

General Meeting Minutes submitted by Katrina Dengler

GENERAL MEETING: KOLPING 88TH ST., MARCH 4, 2012

Chairman of the Board, James Rohrbacher opened the meeting.

Acceptance of Minutes: The minutes of the last General Meeting were published in the June bulletin. Motion to accept: G. Schmitt. Seconded by D. Noll.

President's Report: Bob Hemsing: The Society is doing well and moving forward in its mission in providing temporary housing for travelers and interns. Thanks to the managers of the houses: Ernst Endrich (88th Street and Kolping on the Course) and Heidi Umland (Kolping on Hudson). Jerry Fullam will be the new assistant manager at KOH. Thanks for your support in donating to the raffles which support KOH and also today's raffle, which supports the Joseph Sartorius Scholarship fund.

Elections: There are 3 spots for the Senior Board and 3 people running. They each said a few things about themselves.

Dennis Noll: has been a Kolping member for about 24 years and is a current member of the board and would consider it an honor and a privilege to continue serving.

John Reitter: has been instrumental on the board, serving as financial advisor, Treasurer, and also on the board of International Kolping and National Kolping, as well as being the representative to the United Nations.

Gerhard Schmitt: has been a member for about 30 years and has been on the board for about half that time. He is active at K88 and KOH.

All were accepted by acclamation.

There are four spots open for the Junior Board and 4 people running:

Albert Sartorius, Jr: has appreciated serving on the board in accordance with Kolping's values. He hopes to continue serving and to become more active.

Ann Horan Hemsing: would like to return to serving on the board, after her temporary "retirement."

Hans Lechner: was born in Munich and Kolping was his sponsor when he came to America in '63, where he eventually started his own business as a subcontractor. He is a Master Rigger for cranes. He was president of the Bavarian Edelweiss and belongs to the Peekskill German-American club. Hans joined Kolping in 1990. As he is now partially retired, he will have some time to participate and would like to contribute his talents to the board.

Donna Richardson: has served on the board for the last two years and has been a member for 25 years. She hopes to pass the Kolping values and dedication that her parents, the Koerner's, showed to Kolping to her children by volunteering her time helping out at many Kolping events, including KOH clean-up, the Christmas party, the Golf Outing and joining John Reitter as U.N. representative.

All were accepted by acclamation.

Controller's Report: Ted Dengler: New York Kolping for the year of 2011 had a positive income of $55,000. While it is good we are in positive territory, it is less than last year's result. Kolping on Hudson needed extra funds from the Preservation Fund and from K88 House in order to keep running. Basically, KOH is being subsidized by almost 1/2 of its expenses. So, when you go to KOH, appreciate the discount you are getting. Kolping on the Concourse operated at a loss this year due to personnel changes. Motion made and accepted to accept the financials: G. Schmitt/B. Hemsing

Endowment Fund Report: Bernard Dengler: The Endowment fund is managed by three trustees and Al Preisser in Texas contributed greatly to managing the portfolio and had a 4.5% return. It did as well or better than some professionally managed funds. For the fund to grow, it depends on donations from our members. Please consider the Fund in your will.

House Reports:

K88: Gerhard Schmitt for Ernst Endrich: Projects this year included upgrading the bathroom toilets and replacement of the boiler, along with checking the radiators. In accordance with Local Law 11, the façade of the building needs to be inspected and refaced. Scaffolding will need to be erected. Cost is expected to be around $45,000.

Kolping on the Concourse: Bernard Preisser: In the last year Jorge Paris the manager retired and Ernst Endrich has taken over as manager, with the assistant manager being Tony. The building is breaking even due to re-investment for maintenance. The plumbing is being upgraded to decrease water bills, at a cost of $40,000. Compliance to Local Law 11 will be more expensive than K88, as KOC is on a corner and there is more façade to check. The house is currently full.

Kolping on Hudson: Bob Hemsing: Renovation work is going on to replace the septic tank near Fr. Assmuth hall to fix drainage issues. The roof on the main house was also fixed. The clean-up will start on April weekends after Easter and go until Mother's Day. There is still one room available for the summer, please contact Heidi if you are interested.

International Board Report: B. Preisser: We have a new international Praesis: Msgr Dillenburger. Our international secretary, Hubert Tintelott will retire after 40 years. As International only has three employees, this is a major change. Also, our own John Reitter will retire from the International Board. This past fall, we celebrated the anniversary of the Beatification of Adolf Kolping.

National Board Report: B. Preisser: The National Convention will be in San Francisco this Labor Day 2012. Everyone should be receiving a mailing soon. Please consider taking a Patron Ad to support the convention and consider being part of the event.

Membership Report / Secretary Report:

Muriel Fullam: We have 174 family memberships and 111 singles, for a total of 459 members. We have 15 applications for new members and interviews will be conducted. The Advent project raised $650. The Lenten project will be for the Veteran's food pantry in Montrose. The raffle raised $1,200 for the Joe Sartorius Fund. Thanks to all who donated, especially those who sent in something extra with their raffle tickets. At Montrose, we are working to have the pool open two nights a week; the bar will be open whenever the pool is open on weekday afternoons and serve snacks and specials. We will have some new events at Montrose: the pool will be open more days and the bar will be open more nights, including Friday nights for cocktails. The bulletin is now being sent out with a non-profit postage stamp, saving us postage. Lou Colletti has accepted the position of Grant Writer.

KOVA (Kolping Occupation Vocational Apostolate): Gerhard Schmitt: This initiative is to help fund internships in trades. An application was received from Grohe, a high end plumbing fixture company, who is looking for an assistant. KOVA would help sponsor the position. If a young member is interested, please contact Gerhard.

Praeses Report: Fr. Bretone: The scripture today was the Transfiguration. Jesus is giving a glimpse to us of what He really is. Kolping gives a window to what the family is. Through Kolping 88 Street and Kolping on the Concourse, Kolping provides room and community to travelers. KOH provides vacation time to the family. March 24 is a Barn Dance in Howard Beach which funds Fr. Bretone's Eternal Flame of Hope Ministries. The purpose is to bring people closer to God through art, nature and spirituality. The centerpiece is a 46 acre spiritual retreat property called Heaven's Embrace in Barryville, NY which includes 3 waterfalls, a studio chapel and hiking/walking trails.

The meeting closed with a prayer and the Kolping song.

2nd Annual Easter Egg Hunt submitted by Cecilia Dengler Portilla

Kolping on Hudson's first clean up weekend of 2012 hosted the 2nd Annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday April 14th. Dedicated volunteers took a break from their work to watch thirteen children ranging in age from 20 months to 10 years old hunt for over 100 treat-filled eggs.

Teddy Dengler, Johan Severin, and Gretchen Stromber found the Kolping eggs for a prize, and Erik Severin, a guest of one of our Kolping members, found the golden egg! Everyone had an enjoyable time at the hunt, which segued into gourmet cupcake decorating for the children and lunch for the clean-up volunteers.

At the end of a productive day of clean-up activities, 14 teens and adults gathered for an egg toss. Jenna Richardson and Emily Weinborg won a jar of Nutella each for keeping a raw egg unbroken as they tossed it back and forth at distances of over 20 feet!

Special thanks to Lou Colletti for her spectacular cupcakes and decorating table, Doris Lechner for lending her photographic talents, Muriel Fullum, Alexa and Jenna Richardson, Emily Weinborg, and the Portilla Family for their help with the egg hunt. All of our thanks and gratitude go to those who volunteered their time, talent, and energy to clean and keep KOH a welcoming place for the entire Kolping Family!

CAPT. FREDERICK SCHWATKA, U.S.A. submitted by Martin A. Kelly

The name of Amelia Earhart has appeared in the news, lately. As an aviatrix, she won fame in the 1930's with her record-breaking flights including being the first woman to fly the Atlantic, solo (1932).

During an attempt to fly around the world, her plane was lost in the Pacific, and numerous attempts to determine her fate have failed. Now, a new effort, using state-of-the-art detection equipment, will try to solve this 75 year old mystery.

Another search mission involving explorers took place in 1879 when an American officer, of German descent, Capt. Fredrick Schwatka (1849-1892) lead a team to discover the whereabouts of Sir John Franklin, H.M.S. and his crew of 105 men.

A distinguished naval commander and explorer, Sir John sailed up the Hudson to find the fabulous "North-West Passage," in 1850. If this waterway existed, it would unite the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Whether it was navigable was another question because most of the area layed within the Arctic Zone.

After a long waiting period and no signal returned (air search and radio had not been invented), both the British and American governments sent out search-and-rescue parties.

Thirty years of fruitless searching, however, produced no positive results about Franklin or his crew.

Capt. Schwatka took up the challenge and left from New York, up the Hudson, in 1879. The same hazards of ice, snow and changeable weather patterns that obviously claimed the Franklin party still faced Schwatka and his men.

After an arduous journey in which 3,251 miles were covered by boat and sled, Schwatka found the remains of the English crew and their leader, plus his log. Franklin did cover the then unexplored terrain that proved, a water route between the Atlantic- and-Pacific was possible. It was not practical however, because of the variables of the Arctic.

Schwatka returned home a national hero. He retired from the army and devoted his time to lecturing and writing about his exploits. Unfortunately, his remaining years were few. He had contracted stomach disorders, no doubt, attributable to the harsh environment he had to endure. On a maintenance dosage of laudanum (morphine), he accidently took too much, and died at only 43 years of age.

Good luck to the Earhart searchers!
