"Dues" in the left-hand corner.

NEWS FROM THE BRANCHES

Submitted by Jack McGee

CINCINNATI KOLPING combined its celebration of Father's Day with "Anniversary Day." Members who had Wedding Anniversaries to celebrate, were asked to submit their names and the number of years. One couple was celebrating their 65th Wedding Anniversary, seven couples their 50th, four couples their 40th, two couples their 25th. Cincinnati members were surprised to learn that Father Bruno Kremp, our National Praeses, was celebrating his 50th year of his ordination to the priesthood.

DETROIT KOLPING will be celebrating their 73rd Schuetzenfest on July 4th. They will have the coronation of their King and Queen. The affair has proved to be such a success that they have enlarged it into a two-day celebration, adding July 3rd onto the agenda.

PHILADELPHIA KOLPING has formed committees to cover all areas for its 2008 Labor Day weekend Kolping convention. They also have a research program going on to enhance the efficiency of their branch. Each member was mailed a "Membership Questionnaire" to fill out and return. Typical questions include: "Which events do you attend?" "Which events do you dislike/never attend?" "What do you like about the monthly newsletter?" ... and the like. We'll keep you informed on replies.

Kolping News

TROPICAL NIGHT AT KOH

July 28, 2007

Come join the party at Kolping-on-Hudson. Dinner will be served at 7pm, and dancing begins at 8:30pm. The cost is $25 per person.

PLAN A WEEKEND AT KOH FOR THE 8TH ANNUAL KOLPING KINDER OLYMPICS AND 2ND ANNUAL "OUR FAMILY CAMPOUT"

August 18 & 19, 2007

We are in the midst of preparations and are looking forward to having a rain-free weekend to enjoy the Kinder Olympics and Family Campout. Last year, we introduced 'Our Family Campout' to a wet reception but that did not stop many of you from still pitching a tent and enjoying a lovely evening on the Hudson. We are hoping that this year will be much drier—with all of the events and delicious food planned, it is sure to be a great time for children of ALL ages!

Please see the full page flyer in this bulletin for detailed information on these two events, including how to sign up and volunteer.

We hope that you will make this weekend a part of your family plans and come spend the weekend at Kolping-on-Hudson!

KOLPING-ON-HUDSON

Rooms still available!

KOH has some open rooms which can be rented for the season—by the week or the month. Keep KOH in your vacation plans and spend a week in our summer home. Call Heidi Umland if you would like a room.

Kolping-on-Hudson Reminder. We are the perfect spot for your parties—First Communion, Graduation, Birthday, and even Weddings! Call Heidi Umland to book your date at 718-805-0552. Our house on 88th Street is also available for rentals. Call Ernst Endrich at 212-369-6647 for those dates.

WORLD YOUTH CONGRESS

Coming July 15 to 20, 2008

World Youth Day was an initiative of Pope John Paul II, inspired by massive gatherings of young people in Rome celebrating the Youth Jubilee in 1984, and the United Nations International Year of Youth in 1985. He wanted to bring together young Catholics from around the world to celebrate and learn about their faith on a regular basis. At that time Pope John Paul entrusted to the world's youth, a symbol of Christ's love for humanity "to be carried throughout the world" the colossal crucifix, now known as the World Youth Day Cross.

The first World Youth Day was held in Rome in 1986 on Palm Sunday and since then each year. World Youth Day is celebrated in each world diocese on Palm Sunday. Every two to three years a massive international gathering celebrates in a different "host city." Buenos Aires, Paris, Toronto, Manila, and Cologne have all been hosts.

The International World Youth Days are marked by a week-long series of events attended by the Pope and hundreds of thousands of youth from all over the world. This current World Youth Day will mark the inaugural visit of Pope Benedict to Sidney, Australia. The goal is to draw more than 600,000 pilgrims and visitors to show their commitment to their Christ, their church and their Catholic faith.

Father's Day at Kolping-On-Hudson

Submitted by Ann Horan

We had a beautiful—but hot—celebration on Father's Day. 165 dinners were served to our members and their families. Our chefs—Mike & Jennifer Scheuermann, Evelyn Ahrens, Al & Linda Ahrens, Kathy Weinborg and Doris Petsche put up with the heat in the kitchen and did their usual great job. It was especially nice to see so many beautiful and handsome babies who are third generation Kolping.

We presented eight scholarships to the Nativity Mission School. Sebastian Schmitt was presented with $1,000 for his winning essay in the National Father Krewitt Scholarship contest. Sebastian was first from among the New York entries.

New members initiated are Theresa Tretter, Kevin Hickman, Don & Dagmar Simons, Robert Herman, Charles & Lisa Smith, Thomas & Debra Lewis and Sixto Portilla. We are happy to welcome these new members and we hope to see them often.

Thanks to Father Bretone who made the trip to Montrose and offered Mass for us. Thanks to our new member, Don Simons, for once again supplying us with music for Mass. We also had a very nice "Art Show" in Assmuth Hall. It is great to see such talent among our members. Thanks to those who brought their art and here's hoping more members will join our "studio" next year.

New members initiated on Father's Day

Eight scholarships were presented to the Nativity Mission School

STANDING IN THE NEED OF PRAYER submitted by Jack McGee

A PRAYER OR VOCATIONS

Lord, let me know clearly,
The work which you are calling me to do in life.
And grant me every grace I need,
To answer your call with courage and love,
And lasting dedication to your will.

PRAYER FOR OUR TROOPS

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands,
Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families, for the selfless acts
They perform for us in our time of need.

And give us peace.

I ask this in the name of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior.....Amen.

Stories of Interest

ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT submitted by Martin A. Kelly

The name "Humboldt Street" has appeared in the press recently. Aside from the import of the news story, the intriguing question emerges: How is it that a street in Williamsburg, Brooklyn was named after a renowned German Scientist?

The answer is that Von Humboldt accomplishments in exploration, Natural Sciences and diplomacy earned him international respect, especially here. As a matter of fact, because of the cordial relations he enjoyed with our government officials and scientists and number of places named in his honor, he described himself as "half-American."

Alexander Von Humboldt (1767 – 1835) was born in Berlin. The man who would become a prolific genius was no "wunderkind." It was not until mid life (1799) that his imagination caught fire. As superintendent of miners in Saxony, he became enthralled with botany and yearned to study plant life.

Using money from an inheritance, he financed an expedition to South and Central America surveying Cuba, Ecuador and Mexico (1799 – 1804) a trip of 6,000 miles in which he and his companions trudged through swamps, jungles and deserts, and were exposed to predators, insects and climactic perils. Nightly, Von Humboldt kept his log in which he catalogue tropical vegetation, ecology, oceanography, geomagnetism, topography and other aspects of earth science.

The expedition gave him an opportunity to visit Washington D.C. Here he was exalted as a "one-man institution" and conferred with President Thomas Jefferson and his cabinet on world affairs.

Returning to Berlin he served as a foreign attaché and diplomat plenipotentiary, visiting world capitals and acting as an agricultural and resource expert. Von Humboldt died May 6, 1859 in Berlin. He left behind his monumental work "KOSMOS" (5 vols.) which attempts to survey the earth and universe and laid basis to many of modern earth sciences.

Baked Beans

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

In the Republic of Ireland, the canners of food are prohibited from putting more than 239 baked beans in a can.

The addition of one more bean, you see, would make it "too farty" (240, pronounced with a brogue, of course!)

Words Worth Noting

submitted by Jack McGee

May you live to be a hundred years, with one extra year to repent.

Irish saying

Alexander Hamilton originated the put and take system in our national treasury; the taxpayers put it in and the politicians take it out.

Will Rodgers

Happiness is the practice of the virtues.
St. Clement

A pig bought on credit is forever grunting.
Spanish proverb

Providence sees to it that no man gets happiness out of crime.
Vittorio Altieri

Journalists do not live by words alone, although sometimes they have to eat them.
Adlai Stevenson

The improvement of understanding is for two ends; first, our own increase of knowledge; secondly, to enable us to deliver that knowledge to others.
John Locke

Start by doing what is necessary, then do what is possible, and suddenly you are doing the impossible.
St. Francis of Assisi

We come to reason, not to dominate. We do not seek to have our way, but to find a common way.
Lyndon Johnson

The inner spaces that a good story let us enter are the old apartments of religion.
Anatole Broyard

I have found the best way to give advice to your children is to find out what they want and then advise them to do it.
Harry S. Truman

The United States was Born on July 4th

From the birth of the United States we have had a president and a Congress to lead and guide us. Some of the times were good and some were not so good. We even had a civil war, which threatened to divide us, but we managed to survive. Americans remember many of our presidents' names very quickly. The names of others have quickly passed us by.

Below is a short quiz on "presidential secrets." Can you name...?

1. The only President born on the 4th of July.
2. The President buried with his head resting on a copy of the Constitution.
3. The first President to call his Washington, D.C. residence the "White House."
4. The President who is distantly related to Presidents Pierce, Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, and Ford as well as Winston Churchill.
5. The President whose wife started the tradition of playing "Hail to the Chief" whenever a President appeared at a state function.
6. The first President to visit all 50 states.
7. The first President whose voice was heard over the radio.
8. The President who grew up speaking a language other than English.
9. The only President to be married in the White House.
10. The President who is credited with saying, "I may be President of the United States but my private life is nobody's damn business."

1. Calvin Coolidge
2. Andrew Johnson
3. Theodore Roosevelt
- (prior to his term, it was known as the Executive Mansion or the President's House)
4. George H. W. Bush
5. John Tyler
6. Richard Nixon
7. Warren G. Harding
8. Martin Van Buren (he grew up speaking Dutch)
9. Grover Cleveland
10. Chester A. Arthur
