Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please call Ann Horan (914-737-2026) when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

Marie Heinz wrote to tell us of the death of her husband, George, in May this year. George lived in Salem, Massachusetts. He and Marie would come to visit as often as they could. We send our prayers to Marie and her family. We also thank Marie for her generous check to Kolping in memory of George.

Our thoughts and prayers go to Elfie Woschitz and Wilma Endrich who are on the sick list but getting much better.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THOSE BORN IN JULY:

Robert Attinelly, Lauren Attinelly, Joseph Baumgarten, Irene Benvenuto, Claire Anne Berg, Theresa Bernert, Ada Brauweiler, Christopher Breining, Richard Brunhuber, Peter Buchholz, Beverly Cantu, Chris Coletti, Kristen Grace Curley, Bonnie Dengler, Ralph Dengler, Christopher Diz, Catherine Ferrero, Donna Gorzelany, Kenneth Gross, Robert Maurice Hemsing, Carissa Hillsley, Ann Joyce, William Kiec, Matthew Kurcz, Marc Losonsky, Roger R. Lounsbury, Kirsten Maas, Janey Manne, George Mayerhauser, Jack McGee, Frank Melita, Lillian Melita, Elizabeth Moore, Kelly Noll, Susan O'Reilly, Sixto Portillo, Sabour Raouf, Antonia Rehrl, Bob Reinisch, Andrew Joseph Reitter, John Reitter, Jr., John Reitter, Sr., Anthony Restivo, Donna Richardson, Nicholas John Rotondo, Charles Ruppmann, Katarina Elise Sartorius-Grunwald, Carina Schmitt, Gerhard Schmitt, Stefan Schmitt, Richard Seidl, Lisa Severin, Dagmar Simons, Lisa Smith, Sydney Sokol, Jozsef Szoldatits, Kristen Szoldatits, Steven Szoldatits, Hank Van Asselt, Kenneth Vanzo, Stephanie Weber, Frank Weigand, Arthur Werner, Fiona White, Thomas Williams, Klaus Wolters, and Christopher Zale.

SPECIAL MILESTONE BIRTHDAYS:

A very happy birthday to Valentine Sartorius, who will turn a youthful 75 years on July 9!

If you know someone celebrating a milestone birthday or anniversary, please let us know so we can include it in the Bulletin. Please email either me at editor@kolpingny.org or Ann Horan at annh@optonline.net.

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU:

To those who put extra in their chances—C.T. Industrial Supply, Super Fuel, Margaret and Thomas Weickert, Barbara Mallon, Gerhard Resmaier, Margarete Kiec, Rita Berge, John Reitter, Dengler & Dengler, Wolfgang Hahn, and Marilyn Dengler.

To Wolfgang Hahn and the Hiking Club for continuing to support KOH with their generous check. We were delighted to see them again and share a meal at Kolping. We look forward to many more times together.

To Stephen Lovasz, Wendell Yee, Walter Weigand and his cousin, Albert Buchholz, and Bob Hemsing for lifting and carrying the concrete blocks to mark the parking lot at KOH.

To Walter Weigand for donating and planting (and deer proofing) two fig trees at Kolping-on-Hudson. How nice to have a real variety of trees on the property.

We received a thank you letter from St. Joseph's School in Yorkville for our donation to their Fifth Annual Street Fair.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S JULY 2009 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

Christians in the Middle East. That Christians in the Middle East may live their faith in complete freedom and become instruments of reconciliation and peace.

Humanity Reconciled. Through the witness of the faithful, may the Church be the seed and soil of a humanity reconciled to be God's one true family on earth.

2009 DUES

Please send in your 2009 dues:

Family: $105

READY FOR TROPICAL NIGHT! submitted by Anita Buchholz
It looks like little Vinny Cervello is getting ready for Tropical Night. Oma and Opa Buchholz helped him celebrate his first birthday on May 30th (how time flies!).

NEWS FROM THE BRANCHES submitted by Jack McGee
CINCINNATI: The Kolping Sangerchor presented its 20th Anniversary Gala Concert on April 26 at the Kolping Center. Guest performances included the children of the Fairview German Language School, Regional German Choirs and the Sangerchor's own accompanists from the University of Cincinnati's College Conservatory of Music featuring several piano solos. The gala continued after the show, with dancing featuring the celebrated sounds of traditional German music.

ABOUT KOLPING SANGERCHOR

The Kolping Sangerchor (www.gacl.org/Kolpsang) was formed in June 1989 by Carolann and Jim Slouffman with a group of 20 dedicated singers. Currently, the 65-voice choir represents all age groups with many members being native-speaking German-Americans. Performances have ranged from German Day and Oktoberfest celebrations to the Ohio State Fair. The choir also performs at retirement centers, nursing homes, other functions by request, as well as our own Schlachtfest (pig roast), Spring and Christmas Concerts. Mark your calendars for the next Kolping Convention in Cincinnati on Labor Day Weekend 2010.

BROOKLYN: Fiesta Time! A great time was had by all. Brooklyn Kolping's annual Dinner Dance was held on May 17 in the Kolping Center. This was their big social event of the year! Alice, Inge and Rose planned for a Mexican theme. These ladies worked very hard to come up with some skits and songs to take you 'down Mexico way!' They served pork dinner, along with beer, wine and soda. There was a sing-along, a deluxe raffle table, and dancing to the music of Eddie & Gus. The donation for all this was $30 per person—not too much for a great afternoon out.

Memorial Day BBQ at KOH submitted by Jennifer Ahrens

Bethany Project submitted by Edward Specht

I would like to personally thank each Kolping member named below for donating their time at the Bethany Spiritual House in Highland Mills. After delivering three "refurbished benches" that were power washed and stained by my 12 year old, Julia Specht, we all worked hard, had a terrific lunch, had some fun and made a terrific contribution to a wonderful cause. I believe Julia summed it up upon leaving Bethany. She stated that "she was exhausted but it felt so good inside to help out Sister Teresita". She really enjoyed the day and wants to go back to "finish the job" and then wants to see how the garden turns out in the coming months. (Please see Sister Teresita's thank you email below.)

The Kolping members were:

Peggy & Dave Dougall, Chuck, Lisa, Amanda, CJ and Timmy Smith, Gerhard Schmitt, Ted Dengler, Dan Dengler & his friend, and Lisa, Julia & Emily Specht

Thanks Bob Hemsing for his time in finding a local carpenter to make the chairs which Kolping is donating to Bethany.

From Sister Teresita

Dear Edward,

How could we ever thank you for the incredible help you and the Kolping Society Board gave us on Saturday. You all worked so hard, so long and so skillfully. Everyone here is talking about what a wonderful gift you have given us! We are praying in gratitude for all of you. I hope everyone enjoyed also.

Love, Teresita

Father's Day at KOH submitted by Ann Horan

Neither rain, rain, and more rain could keep our members away for Father's Day this year. We were even rewarded with some peeks at the sun and the children got to enjoy the playground!

Our delicious meal was prepared by Jennifer and Mike Scheuermann, Al Ahrens, and Evelyn Ahrens. Kathy Weinborg was in charge of the wait staff and those kids did a great job.

Father Bretone introduced us to his new dog, Buddy. He is a great pet for Father and he only barked his "amen" a few times during Mass. Katrina Dengler thanked Father so much for giving us his time and talents for these ten years and presented him with a check from all of us. John Reitter had two special surprises for Father. He brought him a Kolping stole from International Kolping and he painted a portrait of Father which truly captured Father's smile and all the happiness that exudes from him.

Katrina presented a scholarship check to Erin van der Have for her entry in the National Kolping essay contest. Erin had the best essay from New York Kolping. Erin is the granddaughter of Catherine and Steve Hickey. It was great to see Catherine and she assured us that Steve was watching from above.

Julia Specht was awarded the Joe Sartorius Award for her volunteer work around the grounds in Montrose and also at the Bethany House project. Of course having a father like Edward, his daughter has been shown the meaning of the word volunteerism (you too Lisa)!

Danny Perez spoke for Nativity Mission School where we continued to award four scholarships and also four to St. Ignatius School.

We welcomed a great group of new members who we hope to see often at all our Kolping houses. They are Nicholas and Lou Colletti, Charles Fuller (who lived for a time in the Kolping House), George and Jane Gonda, Norine and Denis Keating, Christina Lovasz, Elizabeth and James Moore, Susan and Brian O'Reilly, Ruth Page, Jima and Cathy Reilly, Michael and Kathleen Reynolds, and Glenn and Nancy Whalen.

Our last order of business was to pick the winners of the Raffle we held to benefit KOH. The winners are: Diane Gilhooly (4 Yankee Tickets); Anita Buchholz (2 Mets Tickets); Barbara Roche (Barbeque Utensils); Rita Berge ($100).

Stories of Interest

Louis Moreau Gottschalk (1829-1869) submitted by Martin A. Kelly

The news is that Hollywood will make a film on the life of Frank Sinatra. Those of us old enough, remember how high school girls swarmed to get a glimpse of their matinee idol. But "Ol' Blue Eyes" was not the first American musical idol.

In the 1850s and 60s, Victorian young ladies stormed the stages where the piano virtuoso, Louis Gottschalk was to perform. One of his ploys was to discard his dress gloves on the floor, as he approached the piano, to trigger an up-roar among his enthusiastic devotees.

Louis Moreau Gottschalk was born May 8, 1829 in New Orleans: the family had deep roots in the Rheinland. He demonstrated a remarkable musical aptitude; and at age 13 his parents sent him to Paris to study under the masters. After winning European acclaim and honors, he returned to America, in 1853, to enthrall audiences with his marvelous renditions. His style and charm made him the rage of music lovers from Canada to Brazil and earned him the title of "America's Best Pianist." In addition, he was a prolific composer, preferring to use the French language for the lyrics.

At only 40, he died while on tour in Brazil. After a state funeral, his remains were returned to America where they were interred in Greenwood Cemetery in Brooklyn. A majestic monument consisting of a symbolic "Angel of Music" mounted on a storied pedestal bestrides his grave. In the ensuing years, the memorial has fallen into disrepair, and the custodians are striving to restore it to its former grandeur. (Lot 19581, Sec M)

SOME 400 YEARS AGO

Submitted by Jack McGee

What do we know about Henry Hudson? We come up to Kolping-on-Hudson. Sometimes the kids ask, "Who discovered the Hudson River?" Well kids, here's the answer, it happened some 400 years ago.

It is hard for us to imagine that our New York State, our New York City and our Hudson River were discovered by the wanderings of an Englishman who was paid by the Dutch to solve the dream for a shorter route to the Orient.

Henry Hudson was restless. In his meandering around Norway, (a restless sailor.) he encountered some stormy weather on his ship the Half Moon. He set out for China, as did many explorers at this time in history, but never got there.

Let's join in the celebration of his great discovery of this present place that we call "The Hudson Valley."

Let's take a trip to the library and do a little encyclopedia research on another of the worlds' greats. It is difficult to conceive the minds of these giants of their times but here's the proof of the pudding.

A ravishing fast-paced fantasy set amid verdant forests and majestic temples, Sir Frederick Ashton's mythological love story unites the huntress Sylvia and a lovelorn shepherd with the divine intervention of the deity Eros. The splendid score by Léo Delibes was so admired by Tchaikovsky that he purportedly declared: had he known the music existed at the time, he would never have composed Swan Lake!

ROMEO AND JULIET

7/6 (Evening - 7:30 PM), 7/7 (Evening - 7:30 PM),
7/8 (Matinee - 2:00 PM), 7/8 (Evening - 7:30 PM),
7/9 (Evening - 7:30 PM), 7/10 (Evening - 8:00 PM),
7/11 (Matinee - 2:00 PM), 7/11 (Evening - 8:00 PM)

Sir Kenneth MacMillan's masterful interpretation of Shakespeare's enduring romantic tragedy has become one of ABT's signature productions. Against a sumptuous setting in Renaissance Italy, MacMillan weaves a dance tapestry rich in character nuance and sensuality, and Sergei Prokofiev's stirring music underscores the lyric beauty and passion of this beloved ballet's star-crossed lovers.

A LITTLE HUMOR—STORE SIGNS submitted by Jack McGee

In a London department store: "Bargain Basement Upstairs"; Notice in health food shop window: "Closed due to illness"

In an office: "Would the person who took the step ladder yesterday please bring it back or further steps will be taken"

In an office: "After tea break staff should empty the teapot and stand upside down on the draining board"

Outside a second-hand shop: "We exchange anything—bicycles, washing machines, ets. Why not bring your wife along and get a wonderful bargain?"; Spotted in a safari park: "Elephants please stay in your car"

Seen during a conference: "For anyone who has children and doesn't know it, there is a day care on the first floor"
