Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please call Ann Horan (914-737-2026) when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

Our heartfelt condolences go to Hilda and Bob Doyle on the loss of their son, Robert. Robert died in a motorcycle accident in June. The mass for Robert was a wonderful tribute to him but also to Bob and Hilda. There were many priests, deacons, and people from their parish who knew Hilda and Bob. With all those prayers, we can only hope it made this sad time a little easier.

Father's Day

submitted by Ann Horan

God and Father Kolping really showed how happy they are with our Kolping fathers by giving them a warm (you could even say hot) day on Father's Day. Thank goodness Ernst Endrich, our pool manager, had the pool in top shape so that many members and friends could cool off with a refreshing swim!

Our delicious meal was prepared by Jennifer and Mike Scheuermann, Al Ahrens, and Evelyn Ahrens. If you think it was hot outside, you should have felt the kitchen! But our happy chefs survived and didn't melt away on us. Special mention has to be paid to Al Ahrens who never left the sink filled with pots and pans...and he does it with a laugh and smile! What a way to spend his Father's Day!

Father Bretone again treated us to his "son"—Buddy the wonder dog Buddy has been attending school and showed real growth in his manners since last year. Father offered Mass for Joe Baumgarten and Ted and Larry Dengler. It was great to see so many family members of these wonderful men at dinner and at the Mass. After Mass John Reitter spoke to us about Joe, Larry, and Ted. He remembered them as being the real examples for Kolping young men and women. He expressed for all of us how thankful we are for so many years of service and legal advice Ted and Larry gave to Kolping John did a great job and we are grateful he could speak for all of us.

Bob Hernsing awarded the Joe Sartorius Award to Joseph Szolditis for his service to school, community, and Kolping. Joey comes up with his dad, all on their own, and tends to fallen trees, trimming bushes, and whatever else they see needs to be done.

Stories of Interest

AUGUST BELMONT (1816-1890) submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Most people have heard of Belmont Raceway, where the stakes are held in June to determine the winner of the coveted "three-crowns" trophy. They also know of the Belmont section of the Bronx, nestled between Fordham Road and Tremont Avenue, and bounded by the Grand Concourse and the Bronx Zoo, where Arthur Avenue and Italian cuisine are romanticized.

Who was Belmont that he should be so immortalized? August Belmont was a German immigrant who bolstered America's infantile banking industry and helped finance the expansion of the frontiers by loans to railway companies. He was also a champion of social reform and became a staunch democrat. When the civil war broke out, he helped to equip the German-American regiment with his own funds.

He was born in Rhineland-Palatinate in 1816 (some sources say 1813) to a Jewish family. At 14 years, he served as an apprentice in the Rothschild Bank at Frankfurt-on-the-Main where his administrative talents recommended him for posting in foreign capitals. His advice was sought by the Pope when he was assigned to Naples.

He arrived in New York City in the aftermath of the economic panic of 1837. Through his smart decisions and shrewd investments, he helped to make New York City an economic center. He prospered; and, between his wealth and charm, he was welcomed by the old American aristocracy. He would marry the daughter of Admiral Perry and became an icon in the American business world.

One of his outside interests was thoroughbred horse racing. He helped get it accepted in this country and opened several race tracks in the Bronx. The final one is in Elmont, in Nassau County where the stakes are to be held. Belmont died in 1890.

HUMOR

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Q. How many divorced men do you need to screw in a light bulb?

A. One – but, it makes no difference: they never are awarded the house.

THE NEW "MOVE OVER" TRAFFIC LAW FEW KNOW ABOUT 1-23-10

submitted by Katherine Weigand [from the Internet]

If a patrol car is pulled over to the side of the road, you have to change to the next lane (away from the stopped vehicle) or slow down by 20 mph.

Every state except Hawaii and Maryland and the D.C. has this law. In California, the "Move-over" law became operative on January 1, 2010.

This is a fairly new law that states if any emergency vehicle is on the side of the road, and if you are able, you are to move into the far lane (please be sure to check the lane is clear before changing lanes!).

VIETNAM MOVING WALL submitted by Katherine Reshmaier

A one-half size replica of the Vietnam moving wall was on display in Lynbrook, New York June 10th–13th. One out of every 10 Americans who served in Vietnam was a casualty. 58,262 were killed and 304,000 wounded out of 2.59 million who served.

On the wall was the name of George J. Fuerst. He was killed Nov. 19, 1969 the only son of Lena & Joe. The Fuerst family were active members of the Catholic Kolping Society.
