Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please contact Muriel Fullam (914-562-8379) or email MurielFullam@msn.com when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

Please keep Norbert Dengler and Walter Gross in your prayers. Jack McGee has just gotten home from the hospital (again) after having treatment on his feet. We wish him the best this summer as he continues with his weekly doctor's visits.

Long time member Fritz Scheuermann passed away on Thursday, June 16, 2011. Fritz and his wife Christel have been members of The Kolping Society since 1966. Fritz loved Kolping and especially Kolping-on-Hudson. He was always there, all summer and on sunny days in fall & winter. He knew everyone and greeted us all with a smile. He will be greatly missed!

The Scheuermann Family sends heartfelt thanks for all of the love, support and beautiful flowers that we have received in remembrance of Fritz Scheuermann from the Ridgewood Eagles, Kolping Family and all of his treasured friends. He is forever in our hearts and missed terribly.

KOLPING RAFFLE!

This year our raffle was held for the benefit of the Joe Sartorius Scholarship fund. Many of you gave above and beyond the $15 worth of raffles that we sent you. The raffles winners were picked at our Memorial Day BBQ. The winners are:

1st Prize: 4 Yankee Tickets...Anita Buchholz

2nd Prize: 2 Mets Tickets...Artie Kessler

3rd Prize: $100...Frances Schulte

4th Prize: Basket of Cheer...Bill Murray

THANK YOU!

A big Thank You to Diane Gilhooley and family. Diane ordered and paid for a delivery of fresh sand for the kids playground area. The sand arrived just in time for the Memorial Day weekend.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S JULY 2011 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

Those Suffering with AIDS: That Christians may ease the physical and spiritual sufferings of those who are sick with AIDS, especially in the poorest countries..

Religious Missionary Women: That religious women in mission territories may be witnesses of the joy of the Gospel and living signs of the love of Christ..

Flea Market and craft fair will be free to Kolping members, but we will charge for others to have tables. We will have a Kolping cake table, pumpkin and apple sales, face painting for children and much more. If you have ideas or want to be involved, please call Muriel Fullam at 914-582-8379.

FATHER'S DAY submitted by Muriel Fullam

Father's Day, Sunday, June 19th was a wonderful day at KOH. The sun was shining, the food was delicious, the pool was cool and the fishing was good.

Doris Petsche and Edward & Cecilia Kohn deserve our thanks for preparing such a delicious fresh ham dinner. Thank you too to all the girls who served and cleaned up after us.

Fr. Bretone said a beautiful Mass that was attended by many members—Father offered the Mass for Fritz Scheuermann. After Mass, Fr. Bretone helped us welcome 13 new families and 4 new singles into our membership. They are Joseph & Janice Barsuch & family, Thomas & Dina Breitschwerd, Kathleen Burke & family, Elizabeth Cretara, Mary Crowley & family, Michael & Elizabeth Doyle & family, Donal & Janet Finnegan & family, Stevan & Hillary Fontana & family, Lisa Giaquinto, Peter & Kristine Grossmann & family, Lajos & Heidi Janny & family, John & Lynn Keller & family, Thomas & Karen Kid & family, Michael & Elizabeth Lenihan & family, Robert & Peggy Lockwood, Susan Peckells, Patricia Korn.

Bob Hemsing awarded the Joe Sartorius $1000 Award to Andrew Reitter for his excellent essay which was in our June Bulletin. The money will help with Andrew's college education.

The Joe Sartorius $250 award was given to Jenna Richardson. See her mother's beautiful letter about Jenna and her good works in this issue of the bulletin.

Father Axel's Resignation

submitted by Katrina Dengler

KOLPING INTERNATIONAL Postfach 10 08 41, 50448 Köln/Germany

To the members of the Kolping Society worldwide

Dear Kolping Sisters and Kolping Brothers,

Taken by common accord with the Archbishop of Cologne, the Protector of the Kolping Society, Joachim Cardinal Meisner, I shall be leaving the International Kolping Society on April 30, 2011, in order to take on another responsible task as a priest in the Archbishopric of Cologne.

Therefore I would like to inform you that I will resign from my duties as General Praeses of the International Kolping Society with effect from May 1, 2011.

I am grateful for having been able to perform my duties with the support of many of you for a period of nine years. May people continue to find faith, hope, and love through the ideas of Blessed Adolph Kolping, and experience the solidarity of a lively community in the Kolping Society.

Yours,

Axel Werner

Msgr. Axel Werner
General Praeses

Adolph Kolping

Dear friends of NY Kolping,

I really appreciate your lovely greetings, but our Cardinal wants to have me back.

I hope NY Kolping Family will develop in a very dynamic and spiritual manner. I hope to see you in Rome!

*Treu Kolping,
Axel*

Dear Monsignor Axel:

It is with great sadness that New York Kolping has learned of your imminent departure from the position of General Praeses of the International Kolping Society.

We thank you however for your nine years of dedicated service and for your inspirational leadership. We especially remember with gratitude the times when you came in person to visit us here in the New York Branch.

The prayers and good wishes of the entire New York Kolping Board of Directors as well as the general membership go with you in whatever endeavors you seek to undertake in your continued outstanding service of the Lord.

God bless you.

Sincerely,

Katrina Dengler

Scholarship News & Notes

Congratulations to Jenna Richardson on winning the $250 Joe Sartorius Scholarship. The following is the letter her mother had written to Kolping:

May 5, 2011

Dear Kolping:

This letter is to ask you to consider a special young lady for the scholarship award of the JOE SARTORIUS SCHOLARSHIP FUND. Doing good deeds and helping others should be something that a person does without effort, but naturally and without reservation. One of these people blessed with this special trait is Jenna Richardson. Jenna is now 13 years old and is in 7th grade. Since she could walk and talk, she has always been a helper, as well as a leader with all the other children following her good example.

In pre-school and at day care, she would walk around and help the children that were not catching on to the lesson or activity as quickly as she did. On the school bus, even though Jenna always has had a large group of close friends, if there was a shy child sitting alone, she would go sit with them, hold their hand and talk to them.

Of course, she was involved with the Girl Scouts of America starting as a Daisy, then a Brownie and then a Girl Scout. She was part of all the good things the Girl Scouts do for our community and even sold the most cookies each year for her troop!

Jenna is part of the St. Patrick's/St. Christopher's Parish and does her good deeds as needed and has been a volunteer for the Salvation Army "soup kitchens" (actually it was beef stew) community service for the past two years when she was old enough to do it. Even before that, she helped her older sister and brother cut up vegetables and prepare food with the Church the night before.

She has volunteered at the Cortlandt Town Fair working the game booths for the past two years and enjoys making it a fun day for all the children of the community.

One of the most memorable stories about Jenna doing good deeds is when she participated in the "Partners" program with Blue Mountain Middle School. The children who volunteered on this worked with Senior Citizens at Springvale Senior Living. Each student was partnered up with a particular Senior. It was not surprising that Jenna would be partner to someone very smart and famous! His name is Tom Westring, a Harvard graduate, and although you might not recognize his name, you might recognize what he invented... "Bubble Yum" bubble gum! The students spent time with their "partners" coordinating activities, playing board games; joined them in a "chair aerobics" class, and took them to an entertaining night at the Westchester Broadway Dinner Theatre. Then it was a proud moment to see Jenna get all dressed up (this doesn't happen a lot) and walk in to meet her "partner" with the other students and partners for their end of the year "dinner date".

It is important that good deeds start at home and with family. Jenna has always been a "take charge" type of person and gets the job done. She helps out with the many chores needed to get done at home, which is so much appreciated when we all lead very busy lives these days.

Family would also include our friends and fellow members at Kolping. Jenna has helped out at clean-up at Kolping-on-Hudson, activities such as the recent Easter Egg Hunt, and tagged along behind older sister and brother to be backup, and clean-up and assist them as they served dinners, cleared tableware and even plating food. She proved to be "Santa's Helper" this past Christmas when it came time for getting the gifts for the young children of Kolping for the Christmas Party. She "hand-picked" each gift in advance by researching options online before even going to the toy store to ensure that each child had the perfect gift for them.

In summary, although Jenna certainly is not perfect and everyone has their faults that as they grow, they can work on and make themselves even a better person, we are all very proud of our Jenna. She not only resembles in her late grandfather and Kolping member, George Koerner, in looks, she resembles him in being a good, hard-working person and what she does with "laughter" and "song". She is a truly beautiful person inside and out and surely will have many wonderful rewards ahead of her.

Treu Kolping,
Donna Richardson,
a.k.a. Jenna's Mother

Stories of Interest

Arthur (Dutch Schultz) Flegenheimer submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Every national group produces its own collection of sinners as well as saints. In the German-American category, "Dutch Schultz" stands out as the most notorious example of the former group.

Born to German immigrants, in 1902, Arthur Flegenheimer grew up in the asphalt jungle of South Bronx. After a stretch for burglary at 19 years, he moved on to the more lucrative bootlegging enterprise. The XVIII Amendment prohibited dealing in alcoholic beverages throughout the nation (America was dry, technically, from 1918-1932).

Schultz owned and operated the Yonkers Brewery which, during the day bottled non-alcoholic beer and sodas; but at night the true brew flowed. It was channeled through pipes in the sewer system to distribution plants in the Bronx.

To divert suspicion from himself, Schultz sold the brewery to a dummy corporation and buried a large amount of his wealth in Phoenicia, New York near Esopus Creek. But U.S. Attorney Thomas Dewey subpoenaed him for tax evasion, anyway.

Schultz, who had ordered numerous "hits" against his competitors, thought putting a hit on Dewey would be the appropriate solution. The mafia, with whom he had "respectful" relations, disagreed and believed that the assassination of a government official would incite a crack down on all criminal operations.

The Mafia Commission decided to put a hit on Schultz. He was shot severely and removed to the hospital. His wife, a nominal Catholic (they were all atheists and the gun was their law) claimed the falling Schultz wanted to be a Catholic: his roots were (non-observant) Jewish. He was properly baptized. The secular press questioned "How could a murderous criminal, at the last minute change and be admitted through the "pearly gates?" The chancellery replied that "even those furthest down can repent and be saved." He is buried in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

His widow sued for part of the assets of the old brewery; the court denied her petition saying his invested funds were for an unlawful purpose.

Regarding his purported $7 million in cash and bonds buried in Phoenicia – it has yet to be found.

Independence Day—A Day of Prayer

submitted by Jack McGee

Yes, the Fourth of July is the great summer holiday, observed nationwide.

With most people enjoying a day off, family picnics—even "family reunions"—remains a classic way to celebrate America's Independence day. And this option looks to traditional menus and sites, ranging from the backyard barbecue, to ice-packed coolers of food and drinks hauled to seashore, mountains, or nearby state parks.

Most Catholics begin the holiday by checking off another "tradition"—going to Mass, whether they are home or on vacation. For attending Mass is a very traditional Catholic way to observe Independence Day. Witness how few are shy about joining in the popular closing hymn, "America, the Beautiful."

There are many reasons: At the Fourth of July Mass, the congregation remembers and honors ancestors who fled their own homelands, seeking religious freedom and equality in this "New World." Many also salute their relatives—men and women—who serve in the Armed Forces, defending and protecting this "land of the free and the brave."

Today, Catholics of all backgrounds and nationalities pray on the Fourth of July with special fervor and focus. For thousands of U.S. Catholics (whether of Eastern Rites or the Roman Rite) still have 'family' in places where practicing their Faith can mean risking their very lives, even on the most joyous of Holy Days (Easter and Christmas).

And as it has throughout history, our Church accommodates great secular celebrations with distinctive Liturgy for the day. For the Fourth of July, pastors may select the Readings for the day from among a wide list of options; and likewise, for the Opening Prayer and Prayer After Communion.

Among the petitions for one of the Opening Prayers:
"...Open our hearts to the truth of His Gospel, that your peace may rule in our hearts and your justice guide our lives."

All of the prayers and reading for The Fourth of July remind us to celebrate and rise to the challenge of the gifts bestowed on us by God. This year, we want to keep in mind, as well, our brothers and sisters worldwide who still suffer persecution and poverty.

Yet experience tells us that a world without God becomes a 'hell'—filled with selfishness, broken families, hatred between individuals and nations, and a great deficit of love, joy and hope.

Calling all members and friends! Contact Heidi at 914-736-0117 to arrange the day you would prepare either a Saturday or Sunday meal. You do not need to commit for the whole season. You pick the day and the menu! Kolping will supply you with all the tools - you just need to bring the creativity! This is a paid position.

Calling all Bakers:

If you've got the time, we've got the "knead"! We heartily welcome any baked goods (cakes, cookies, desserts, etc.) you would like to donate for the Fourth of July BBQ on Monday, July 4th. We are also looking for desserts for Saturday or Sunday dinners. If you are interested in making a dessert for dinner, please contact Heidi at 914-736-0117 for details.

We all know that nothing beats homemade!
