Letter to Members from President, Bob Hemsing

I am so pleased and grateful to see how our membership has grown in 2012. Thanks to all our members for introducing your friends and neighbors to Kolping. On Mother's Day we initiated 17 new Members and on Father's Day 30 more! This is the best way to insure the future of Kolping in New York.

At this time I want to remind our members that when your children turn 18 years old they are not considered part of your family membership and we encourage them to start their own membership. The time this will really affect them is when they want to enter the pool. They may be asked to pay the non-membership fee of $9 per day. The sooner they become a member, the faster they get to that 50 year mark—then no more dues!

A great way to start this would be with a gift for their 18th birthday. Give them a membership to Kolping. The cost is only $45 for students. Contact Muriel Fullam at 914-582-8379 or MurielFullam@msn.com and she will get you all set up. The membership package will include their own membership card, a Kolping T-Shirt and Pen and special recognition in our monthly bulletin.

I wish you all a safe and happy summer.

FAMILY FUN DAY—AUGUST 19, 2012

A cruise on America's Flagship—The Clearwater—is planned for Family Fun Day. It is a 3-hour cruise on the Hudson River (from 10AM–1PM). Adults $20, Children $10 (No children under 5). Please call Muriel Fullam at 914-582-8379 to sign up. First come, first served.

How many times have you come to Kolping and gazed at the beautiful Hudson River, but have you ever taken a sail on an authentic Hudson River Sloop? Now our members and guests can have just such a chance!

The Clearwater has an awesome history as a direct replica of the working boats especially designed for the river hundreds of years ago. This special ship was constructed as a teaching vessel and it is also closely associated with the environmental movement. As a matter of fact most experts agree that the entire cleanup of our atmosphere started with the effort to bring the Hudson to its original pristine condition.

One of our most beloved members, Larry Dengler, who passed away only a few years ago was devoted to the Hudson. He and his wife Allegra would often bring their canoe to Kolping to enjoy the river. We would like to dedicate our association with the Clearwater on this occasion to Larry's memory. So come and sail with us on Aug. 19th! Help to raise the sails, lower the nets and sing a few familiar river songs. I guarantee you a real Kolping Family Fun Day.

NEWS FROM BROOKLYN Submitted by Jack McGee

On Sunday, February 26 eleven dedicated Kolping members attended our Annual Meeting. Several of our 'regulars' were either sick or not able to attend—let's say it was a very cozy gathering! Our President of the last 19 years, Evelyn Blatz, began the meeting with a discussion of where we are right now and how we can continue to operate. The truth is we do not have enough manpower to keep the Society running the way we traditionally have. And we wonder what the point is because so few participate and show interest. A very large percentage of our members are 75 years or older. Recently a handful of our most active members have been slowed down or stopped all together by medical issues. This is to be expected, and the officers present stated their desire to work to do what we can to keep things running as best we can. We will consider what we can handle and schedule those events accordingly. Next we started the real business portion of the meeting. Our Recording Secretary of the past 58 years, Hermann Rueb, read the minutes from the last annual meeting. Financial Secretary John Jellen gave us a report on the 2012 dues. We have 45 members paid up so far. Happily no members passed away in the past year. We are currently at 54 national members.

Evelyn presented the financial statement, and the bottom line was that we enjoyed at a small surplus in 2011. No election was held since there was no need for one. We agreed to do what we can as a group to run things as best we can with the members we have who are willing to participate. We ended on an upbeat note, having coffee, cake and conversation.

GERMAN MASS St. Joseph's in Yorkville, 404 E. 87th St.

Father's Day submitted by Muriel Fullam, photos by Helmi Pinner

Sunday, June 17th was Father's Day at KOH. Our annual dinner and Mass brought about 250 people to Kolping On Hudson. Some came for dinner, some for Mass and some for both.

We thank chef, Jennifer Ahrens and chef, Doris Petsche for the wonderful meal. They were assisted by Michael Scheuermann, Beverly Ahrens Cantu, Evelyn Ahrens Ryzerski and Al Ahrens. The food was scrumptious. Fresh Ham and gravy were the best ever. Thank you too to all the girls who served and cleaned up after us.

Of that 250 that were at KOH, quite a few of them were new members. After a beautiful Mass said by Fr. Richard Bretone (who was wearing his green vestment that was donated by Mercia Kenna in loving memory of Thomas Kenna and Thomas & Kathleen O'Riordan) with the help of new member Deacon Tim Slominski we welcomed 24 families and 6 singles into our Kolping family.

They are David & Karen Allen and their child Daniel; Dr. Duncan Bell; Richard & Cathy Bennet and their children Richard Jr. & Christopher; Maria Blessing, Joseph Selnekovic & their child Luke Selnekovic; Timothy & Alida Carey; Thomas & Nichole Corrigan and their children Brenna and Brendan; Kevin & Maggie Crilly and their children Brandon, Gavin & Logan; James & Monica Duffy and their children Christian, Aidan & Dahlia; Dorothy Freifeld & Mark McClure and their children Matthew & Brittany; Paula Harney; Sally Hughes; Ed Keer & Nina Johnson; Mark & Maura Koch; Jim & Lisa Leech and their children Jesse & Ryan; Linda Mallon & Kristine Mallon; Dan Malone; Michael & Eileen Marx; Gerry McGovern & his children Michaela, Patrick & Fiona; Stephen & Helen McGuire and their child Christopher; William Minnauge & Kathryn Kayler; Bill & Marlyse Minnich and their children Liam, Declan & Fallon; Gertude Mohapp; Anthony & Debbie Mongiello and their children Jack & Marisa; George & Kim Parra; Robert & Penny Phelan and their children Matthew & Melissa; Gail Prager; Kevin Shook & Jamie Pendercast; Daryl & Ursula Stiloski and their children Daryl Jr., Michael & Tyler; Ed Schmitt & Felicia McClosk and their child Delia; and Rev. Dr. Timothy & Judy Slominski. We are delighted to add you to our membership and we look forward to seeing you at Kolping Events.

Memorial Day BBQ submitted by Muriel Fullam

We celebrated Memorial Day on Monday, May 28th with a wonderful BBQ. The day was sunny and hot and the pool got lots of action. In the kitchen we had chef Jennifer Ahrens and chef Doris Petsche and boy did they produce delicious food—burgers, brats, hot dogs, chicken, salads, corn on the cob—they had it all and they also had help—Mike Scheuermann, Nick & Nicky Colletti, Gerry Ladenhauf, Steve Lovasz, and Heidi Umland. To keep cool we relied on Jerry Fullam and Bobby Jaki with their liquid concoctions. We send a special thank you to Doris Petsche for always getting up so early in the morning to cook potatoes for the potato salad. We love you Doris!!

Movie Night at KOH submitted by Muriel Fullam, photos by Jennifer Scheuermann

Rain threatened, all week and even all day on Saturday, June 2—but about 3PM the sun came out and it stayed out—what a wonderful night on the Hudson. Many local families enjoyed the showing of the movie Hugo on our huge movie screen. They also enjoyed a great Barbecue. We wish to thank Jennifer and Mike Scheuermann, Lou, Nick and Nicky Colletti, Ted & Joan Dengler, new member Magdalena Melamed, Greg Fucheck, Doris Petsche, Heidi Umland, Kathy Fucheck, Max & Bev Fucheck, Jim, Kathy & Catherine Reilly.

Stories of Interest

Gustav Brühl (1826–1903) submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Slavery has been called the darkest stain on America's soul. From 1619 to 1863, kidnapped Africans toiled in drudgery on farms and plantations mostly in the southern United States.

This terrible situation had to be resolved: and, inevitably, a civil war had to be fought. The abolitionist forces of the Union, northern states prevailed; but the efforts to wipe out this scourge of racial inequality fell short.

The night riders and lynch mobs in the South exercised an ominous influence on those who opposed their plan "To roll back the clock."

Then, there appeared on the scene an immigrant from Germany who had the key to America's dilemma. Dr. Gustav Brühl, M.D., founded the "St. Peter Claver Society for the Education of Negro Children." His theory was that if negro children could compete scholastically with their caucasian counterparts, the blacks would command respect and equal treatment.

Actually, St. Peter Claver (1581-1654) was a Spanish Jesuit priest who helped stem the tide of the slave trade in the Spanish colonies in the Americas. He labored to protect and help elevate those souls who had been enslaved. His pioneering efforts in helping solve the race problem at home was only one facet in his astonishing life.

Born to a wealthy family in Herdorf, Prussia, in 1826, he studied medicine and the classics. The year 1848 was pivotal in Germany because it marked the rise of the militaristic regimes in government. A humanitarian at heart, Brühl migrated to America and settled in Cincinnati.

He established his medical practice (E.N.T.) and became a lecturer in the University Hospital. He served on the local board of education and was a leading mover in the National election to unseat President Rutherford B. Hayes and his corrupt political machine. After one of the most controversial elections in American History, Dr. Brühl and his fellow reformers lost out to greed and corruption.

A gifted poet and story teller, he found acclaim expressing his feelings in both German and English. The product of his exploration in America's "southwest" (Arizona and New Mexico) and in Central America (Mexico and Yucatan) served as the themes for many of his literary achievements. He died in 1909 and truly a remarkable German-American.

What a Difference a Name Makes submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Much has been written about actors and actresses, in the 30's and 40's, who changed their given names for those that were more socially acceptable to their audiences. This was also true of German-American stars who adopted stage-names for the same reasons. Among them: Angie Dickinson (Edith Braun), Doris Day (Dorothea VonKappelhof), Bruce Bennet (Herman Brix), Joe Sawyer (Joe Dauer), Elsie Knox (Elsa Kornbraun), Fred Astair (Frederick Austerlitz), Clifton Webb, Irene Rich and others.
