THANK YOU FROM "FRIENDS OF MARIA"

May 2013

We wish to extend our greatest thanks and appreciation to the Kolping Society on behalf of Friends of Maria. Kolping on Hudson generously opened their doors to us so that we could hold a benefit in order to raise funds for our dear friend in need. Mr. Fullam was empathetic to our cause and worked with our group patiently to plan a great event at your beautiful grounds. He and his family at Kolping were consistently flexible and treated us as if we were also part of the family. The personal attention and anticipation of our needs throughout both the planing stages and the night of our event were outstanding.

Everyone that we met a Kolping on Hudson was a true example of the mission of the Kolping Society; "by promoting the development of the individual and family; we foster a sense of belonging and friendship through our program of spiritual, educational, charitable and social activities." We all truly left there feeling that sense of belonging and friendship that was put forth by all that you do.

Words alone cannot express how good Kolping was to Friends of Maria and how special you all made us feel. We are so lucky to have found you. Please accept our donation as a special thank you for your time, generosity and friendship.

Thank you so much and good luck to you as you continue your mission,

Friends of Maria

Yorkville was once an internationally famous section in New York City, known as German Town. Filled with a population of Middle and Eastern European countries, its largest ethnic group was German speaking. In keeping with tradition, an effort was started in 1990 to preserve some of Yorkville's life. We are a 24 year-old co-operative of students and teachers who wish to pursue the study of German language and culture in an informal environment. We are non-profit making, run and supported by its members. We engage in social and cultural events.

There are 2 levels of learning for the adults: Intermediate class for those who have some proficiency in German, and the Advanced class for those who have some fluency in German. Grammar topics are addressed too.

There are several levels of German offered for kids. The cost of the 15 week, 30 hour semester for adults is $475.00, and for kids it is $375. (Books are extra).

Father's Day at Kolping-on-Hudson submitted by Muriel Fullam

Sunday, June 16th was Father's Day at KOH. Our annual dinner and Mass brought over 200 people to Kolping-On-Hudson. Some came for dinner, some for Mass and some for both.

Our chef Jennifer Ahrens Scheuermann, with the help of her Dad, Al Ahrens, her husband, Mike Scheuermann, and her sister Evelyn Ahrens Ryzerski produced a delicious meal. Fresh Ham, gravy, sauerkraut, mashed potatoes and applesauce were the best ever. Some plates looked like they were licked clean. Thank you too to all the girls who served and cleaned up after us.

Of that 200 that were at KOH, quite a few of them were new members. After a beautiful Mass said by Fr. Richard Bretone we welcomed 18 families and 4 singles into our Kolping New York family. The Mass was offered in memory of our wonderful member Bert Bruegger. Thank you to Don Simons, his granddaughter Trinity and Kolping members Joe Szoldatits, Peter Mersits, Frank Kurz and Ed Specht for the music and singing at the Mass.

The new members are Michael & Julie Barnes and their son Peter; Carol Guarino Bongiovanni and her son Michael, as well as her father Mario Guarino; Norma Curtin; Jim & Marcela DeSharnais and their children Geoffrey & Amanda; Vito & Lourdes Donato and their sons Christopher & Michael; Douglas Ferony; Steven & Laurie Fonseca and their children Alex and Ryan; Robert & Heather Gioia and their children Robert and Anthony; Ruairi & Marianne Gribbon and their son Cillian; Anthony & Gail Imbimbo and their children Rebecca & Matthew; Brad & Anita Kelley and their daughter Anya; Jim & Nancy Kenny and their children Shannon, Matt, Katy and Jacklyn; Guerrino & Leslie Lupetin and their children Thomas and Alex; Mary McGuire; Kevin & Claudia McNama; Erica & Chad Mills and their children Anthony and Mariella; Rick and Lori Nania and their children Amy and Eric; Christian & Heather Rauch and their daughter Téa; Hector & Nicole Rauch-Rios; Frank & Carmina Schiavi and their daughters Alessandra & Giulia; Ekaterina Sokol; Stephen & Stacey Swiecicki and their children Stephen & Sydney; and Michael & Patricia Tompkins and their sons Michael and Brian. We are delighted to add you to our membership and we look forward to seeing you at all of our Kolping Events.

Joe Sartorius Scholarship submitted by Muriel Fullam

On Father's Day, Katrina Dengler awarded a Joe Sartorius $250 Award to Emily Weinborg. Each year we offer this award to the Grade School son or daughter (or grandchild) of a member. Letters are written by the child's family about the child and sent in for consideration. This year Kathy Weinborg wrote in about her Emily.

Here is a little something you should know about Emily:

Emily is the daughter of members Mike and Kathy Weinborg. She is 13 years old and is an 8th grader. She is involved in soccer and volleyball. She has also been very involved with Girl Scouts since she started as a Daisy in 2004. She was just confirmed after putting in 30 hours of community service. She has volunteered at Holy Spirit, assisted in five blood drives at her school and helped to set up holiday decorations at her parish, St. Patrick's Church in Verplanck. As a Kolping member, she has volunteered at all Kolping events and you will see her at KOH this summer again serving food for our Saturday and Sunday meals. She participates at our Christmas Party helping Santa hand out gifts and she helps with our Harvest Craft Fair and Flea Market, Family Fun Day and Oktoberfest. She is a busy girl. She is a very kind and compassionate girl who is not afraid of hard work. We are so happy to have her as a member of Kolping!

KOH Memorial Day BBQ submitted by Muriel Fullam

We celebrated Memorial Day with a great BBQ. The day was sunny and a little cool, but the temperature did not keep the kids out of the pool. In the kitchen our chefs, Kathy Weinborg, Doris Petsche and Heidi Umland made some really delicious salads and desserts. Burgers, brats, hot dogs and chicken, were on the grills manned by Nick Colletti, Gerry Ladenhauf and Steve Lovasz. Christine Kern, Jerry Fullam and Dani Kern were at the bar. Thank you to everyone who helped make this a great day and a good start to our summer season.

Friday Cocktails and Birthday Celebration submitted by Muriel Fullam

In June, Heidi Umland celebrated her birthday over Friday night Kolping-on-Hudson cocktails. No doubt a good time was had by all!

Stories of Interest

Drummer Boy John Klem, U.S.A. submitted by Martin A. Kelly

With Veterans Day, Memorial Day, and the Fourth of July coming so close, we are lead to reflect on the contributions of our service men and women throughout American History.

The Civil War (1861-5) nearly destroyed America. The issue on which the struggle was based was: "Could a nation endure with two contradictory senses of morality on slavery?"

After two years of futile carnage, the light began to appear at the end of the tunnel for the anti-slavery or north side. The Battle of Gettysburg (1863) was the turning point of the war, but at a heavy price.

Shortly after the fighting, President Abraham Lincoln paid a visit to the battlefield. With solemn praise for those who gave their "full measure of devotion," President Lincoln urged the people on both sides to settle their differences and rededicate themselves to the ideals of the founding fathers: to form a government of, by, and for the people.

An unsung hero of the fray was a 10 year-old lad: Drummer Boy John Klem of the 12th Michigan Volunteers. Drummer boys were musicians and served as mascots. In an earlier battle (Chickamauga), the lad had shot an enemy confederate soldier who was trying to kill him and seize his caisson loaded with ammunition to use against his comrades.

So on this occasion, we salute this German-American hero along with other members who served in the Army Navy, Air Force, Marines and Coast Guard

A Bit of Humor Submitted by Marge Cirincione

Groups of Americans were traveling by tour bus through Holland. As they stopped at a cheese farm, a young guide led them through the process of cheese making, explaining that goat's milk was used. She showed the group a lovely hillside where many goats were grazing. "These" she explained, "Are the older goats put out to pasture when they no longer produce." She then asked, "What do you do in America with your old goats?" A spry old gentleman answered, "They send us on bus tours!"

Bob, a 70-year-old, extremely wealthy widower, shows up at the Country Club with a breathtakingly beautiful and very sexy 25-year-old blonde-haired woman who knocks everyone's sock off with her youthful sex appeal and charm and who hangs over Bob's arm and listens intently to his every word. His buddies at the club are all aghast. At the very first chance, they corner him and ask, "Bob, how'd you get the trophy girlfriend?" Bob replies, "Girlfriend? She's my wife!" They are knocked over, but continue to ask. "So, how'd you persuade her to marry you?" "I lied about my age", Bob replies. "What, did you tell her you were only 50?" Bob smiles and says, "No, I told her I was 90."

I urgently needed a few days off work, but I know the boss would not allow me to take a leave. I thought that maybe if I acted "crazy" then he would tell me to take a few days off. So I hung upside down ont he ceiling and made funny noises. My co-worker (who's blonde) asked me what I was doing. I told her that I was pretending to be a light bulb so that the boss would think I was "crazy" and give me a few days off. A few minutes later the boss came into the office and asked "What are you doing?" I told him I was a light bulb. He said "You are clearly stressed out. Go home and recuperate for a couple of days." I jumped down and walked out of the office. When my co-worker (the blonde) followed me, the boss asked her "...and where do you think you're going?" She said, "I'm going home too. I can't work in the dark!"

We went to breakfast at a restaurant where the "senior's special" was 2 eggs, bacon, hash browns and toast for $1.99. "Sounds good," my friend said. "But I don't want the eggs." "Then I'll have to charge you $2.49 because you are ordering a la cart", the waitress warned her. "You mean I'd have to pay for not taking the eggs?" my friend asked. "Yes" stated the waitress. "I'll take the special then", my friend said. "How do you want your eggs?" asked the waitress. "Raw and in the shell", said my friend. She took the two eggs home. DON'T MESS WITH SENIORS!!!!
