Tropical Night submitted by Muriel Fullam, photos by Alex Schmitt/Bob Jaki/Muriel Fullam

Just about everything went right for Tropical Night—the weather was spectacular, sunny and cool. The food prepared by our renowned chefs, Doris Petsche, Mike & Jennifer Scheuermann and Kathy Weinborg with help from Al Ahrens was so good. I had the roast loin of pork with rice and vegetables, others had the sweet and sour chicken—there were no complaints (only people asking for seconds!). The desserts were great too as were all the appetizers that were served later on in the evening. Thanks to these wonderful chefs for all their hard work and to all the girls that helped serve and clean up after us.

The music was also fabulous. It was provided by DJ Frankie (FP Entertainment). Member Matt Kern assisted Frankie in selecting a fun and varied mix of music that had everyone dancing till 1AM. KOH looked great too, because Bobby Jaki was back with all his lighting and tropical decorations. Thank you Bobby! Jerry Fullam, Bobby Jaki and Christine Kern also produced some great tropical drinks for us. The Hawaiian Leis were provided by member Joan McNamara—thanks so much Joan! Thank you too, as always, to KOH Manager Heidi Umland who choreographed the whole evening for us. All in all a wonderful evening was had by all.

Fourth of July at KOH submitted by Muriel Fullam

As you can see from the photos the 4th was a real family day at KOH (Gallagher family, Gilhooley family, Geoghagan family, Cunningham family, LaRocque family, the Specht family, the Szoldatits family, the Ahren's family, the Fullam family—to name a few). Everyone came with their own food (BBQ or picnic) and enjoyed the day. The pool was very busy. We had some fireworks in the evening contributed by members and a donation from KOH.

July Brunch at KOH submitted by Muriel Fullam, photos by Ines Wallach Gross

Thanks to so many members and their families and friends who came out to enjoy the afternoon with us. Doris Petsche, Jennifer Scheuermann, Mike Scheuermann, Kathy Weinborg, and Al Ahrens worked hard in the hot kitchen to make this delicious brunch. The waffles, the omelettes, the turkey, the roast beef—everything was so good. Thank you too to the servers, Kayla Noll, Jenna Richardson and Andrea Janny who cleaned up after us. We also must thank Jerry Fullam, Christine Kern and Heidi Umland for the Mimosas and other tasty libations that they served.

Stories of Interest

HEINZ 57 VARIETIES submitted by Martin A. Kelly

"Trifles make perfection, but perfection itself is no trifle." This adage epitomizes the success of the Heinz food products corporation.

The founder, Henry J. Heinz, was born October 11, 1844 in Kallstadt, Germany. His father moved his large family to America, in 1848, and started a brick making factory near Philadelphia, PA.

Henry was quick to show his talents as a farmer and businessman. By age eight, he was selling home-grown vegetables to neighbors, carrying two baskets under his arms. By the time he was nine, he was selling home-made horse radish; and by twelve, he was making three weekly deliveries to nearby grocery stores in a horse and cart. At seventeen, he grossed $2,100/year, which was considered substantial for that time.

While helping in his father's brick factory, he still carried on his farm grown products trade. His attempt to start a business was doomed by the national financial crises of 1875.

After paying off all his debts of his bankrupted business, he started anew with a brother and cousin as partners. One of their first products, which would also become synonymous with their name, was tomato ketchup. These bottles are in the kitchens of 47 million households throughout the U.S. (Neilsen Scanden, 1988). Of course, relish, pickles and preserved foods also comprise a large part of Heinz output in their 22 plants. Cultivation of the seeds and plants are the essential ingredient in their formula.

Their logo "57 Varieties" is an under-reporting of their line of products. "57 Varieties" was selected for its euphonic ring and it has served its purpose.

A personal policy of meeting with workers and negotiating with them avoided any labor strife in their history. He also awarded recognition to employees who increased the size of their families.

A revered man of fundamentalist Christian faith, he died in 1919 as he prepared to attend a convention in New York. He left a legacy of uprightness in business and philanthropy which extends to the fourth generation. Not one of the least of his feats was to urge Federal pure food standards.

"Uben makt den Meister" (Practice makes perfect).

REMEMBERING STEAMSHIP TRAGEDY 6/15/12 submitted by Martin A. Kelly

A pious group gathered at All Faith's (Lutheran) Cemetery in Middle Village, Queens. The occasion was the 108th Anniversary of the S.S. General Slocum tragedy in which the number of deaths, over 1,000 (and German-Americans, too) was only exceeded by the World Trade Center disaster.

The Sunday school excursion left the East River pier for a picnic at Locust Grove, Long Island. About 20 minutes into the journey, a fire broke out below deck. Everything that could go wrong did. Topping the list was the maneuver of the Captain who steered toward North Brother Island which was in the path of the strong wind.

Aside from the sorrow, there was valor shown that day by what later became known as "first-responders." Crewmen from passing vessels, policemen in commandeered row boats, nurses on nearby Welfare Island; and, even, prisoners on Rikers Island (city jail) pitched in to snatch the helpless from the grasp of a watery death.

The event will be an annual honoring of the deceased and the life savers (300 survivors). It will also be used to honor more recent emergency-service heroes. Present on the stage were descendants of the original passengers, President of the All Faiths Restoration and Beautification Program (Mr. Dan Austin) and German Consul General Busso Von Alvensleben. (Daily News 6/12/12)

Promises of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Made to St. Margaret Mary submitted by Jack McGee

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
2. I will give peace in their families.
3. I will console them in all their troubles.
4. I will be their refuge in life and especially in death.
5. I will abundantly bless all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in my Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall rise speedily to great perfection.
9. I will bless those places wherein the image of My Sacred Heart shall be exposed and venerated.
10. I will give to priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts.

11. Persons who propagate this devotion shall have their names eternally written in my Heart.
12. In the excess of the mercy of my Heart, I promise you that my all-powerful love will grant to all those who will receive Communion on the First Fridays, for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance: they will not die in my displeasure, nor without receiving the sacraments; and my Heart will be their secure refuge in that last hour.
