52nd Annual Steuben Day Parade

Saturday, September 19, 2009

Join us in marching down 5th Avenue with the Kolping Society! Our Metropolitan Division will assemble on 70th Street between Madison and 5th at 12:15 p.m. The Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral will begin at 9:00 a.m. (arrive in front of the church at 8:30 a.m.)

We'd like to encourage the marchers to follow a "dress code"—trocken, or orange and black, for the Kolping colors, or blue bottoms and white tops (the Ladies Auxillary dress code), or suits for men, or Kolping/Parade t-shirts.

See flyer in this issue with details on the after-party at Kolping 88th Street.

Kolping member Theobald Dengler IX, will be honored as one of the Grand Marshals of the Steuben Parade this year. Theobald Dengler is the only surviving founding member of the Steuben Parade. Together with his father and other German-Americans and with the support of then-Mayor Robert F. Wagner, he helped stage the very first parade on Myrtle Avenue in Ridgewood, Queens. The event was a huge success and moved to Fifth Avenue in 1957. "Ted" Dengler will be celebrating his 81th birthday on September 19, 2009—the day of the 52nd German-American Steuben Parade, which he will be leading as one of the Grand Marshals. We are proud of his service to the parade, and to Kolping.

CALLING ALL MEMBERS!

Are you looking to volunteer or help out a little more at Kolping-on-Hudson next season? Volunteering is not a long-term commitment. Volunteering at KOH is fun! We typically need volunteers for short-term projects that last only a few hours. And of course the more people that help, the quicker the work will go. Stay tuned for further information on how to help and who to contact in upcoming editions of the Bulletin.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S

SEPTEMBER 2009 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

Knowledge of God's Word. That the Word of God may be better known, accepted, and lived as the source of freedom and joy.

Christians in Laos, Cambodia, and Myanmar. That by trusting the Holy Spirit, Christians in Laos, Cambodia, and Myanmar may amid great difficulties, courageously proclaim the Gospel to their brothers and sisters.

All members are invited to submit advertisements for items that they want to sell, give away or own. The ads will expire after one month unless other arrangements are made. We reserve the right to charge a fee in the future, if needed, to cover expenses. Email your classified ads (or any questions) to: classifieds@kolpingny.org or mail them to: Ingrid Resmaier, Kolping Classifieds, 6 Green Ave., Lynbrook, NY 11563. FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION AT KOLPING-ON-CONCOURSE

Thanks to Jorge Paris our KOC manager for treating us to a wonderful celebration on the Feast of the Assumption. We had a special Mass and delicious dinner. The best part is when we process to the garden and sing songs to honor Blessed Mother.

KOH OKTOBERFEST

Thanks to our members who showed up on Friday to set up for Oktoberfest. They are: Mike Weinborg, Jimmy Stang, Albert Buchholz, Ted Dengler (who was also there for the "take down"), Edward Specht, Walter McDonald, and our helper Fernando. There is so much work connected to Oktoberfest. It is our hope that many more members will donate their time next year.

And, thank you to all of the members who helped run booths, grill, serve, cook, and clean at this year's Oktoberfest. There were so many of you who jumped in to help we have tried to list everyone here but we sometimes wind up missing some names; and for that we apologize. Please let us know if we missed you.

Jennifer Scheuermann and Kathy Weinborg outdid themselves with preparing the food for Oktoberfest and they had to put up with a steaming hot kitchen. How do they do it and all with a smile on their faces? The amazing part is that they donated all their time and work to KOH for that whole day!

Thank you also to Helmi Pinner, Elfie Orlowski, Marion Povillonis for baking an assortment of delicious cakes and goodies and to Lucille Colletti who baked cupcakes and invited the children to decorate them.

Sixty pounds of thank yous to Manfred Gallwitz for helping Evelyn Ahrens and Jennifer Scheuermann bake our beloved plum cake. It is such a treat that we all look forward to!

2009 Kolping Kinder Olympics & Family Campout & Chicken Wing Contest

submitted by Jennifer Scheuermann and Kathy Weinborg

August 15th through the 16th, Kolping-on-Hudson held its 10th annual Kinder Olympics and 4th Annual Family Campout weekend – with a bonus Chicken Wing Contest on Saturday evening – and what a weekend it was! The weekend weather was phenomenal; it turned out to be one of the few rain-free weekends we had all summer but it was really hot. The pool offered some relief from the heat and allowed the kids and adults to cool down in between events. Despite the heat, this was our most successful year to date! Read on!

KOLPING KINDER OLYMPICS

The Kinder Olympics were held on Saturday with the opening ceremony presided over by Ed Specht.

Seventy children participated in 6 events: three individual events and three team events. For the individual events, participants were divided into two age groups: 7 and under and 8 and up. The children compete only against kids in their age group. For the team events, the participants were divided into two teams, where we try to evenly distribute age and size. The individual events were: Soccer Kicking Contest, Musical Chairs and Horse Shoe Toss. Team events were: Tug of War, Sack Relay and Sponge/Water Bucket relay.

Ribbons were awarded for the individual events and each child received a T-Shirt, Participation Certificate and $5 Gift Card to Walmart.

List of Participants:

....and then the evening festivities began!

With such a beautiful, sunny and very hot day it was tough to pull our campers away from the pool, however, the truly dedicated and competitive "Cook Off" participants refused to let go of their thoughts of victory.

There were 12 entries to this year's "Chicken Wing" Cook Off competition with various flavors consisting of mild, medium, hot, hotter, Thai and BBQ.

The winners were:

1st place: Mike Weinborg,

2nd place: Gerhardt Schmitt

Tie for 3rd place: Miriam Herman & Barbara Weber

Overall, we were all winners with the amount of wings we ate.... but by morning time, maybe losers, if you ate too many!

Soon after dinner, the tents were set up and campsites were prepared. When dusk fell, we headed out into the woods for our hike, led by Gerhard Schmitt, Chuck Smith and Greg Fuchek. It is not supposed to be a scary walk, however, when you get detoured two times because of fallen trees and the last of which had a very mean and unforgiving bees nest, scary is not quite the word! So sorry to all those who were stung.. ouch! That hurt!

Upon their glowing return, Ernst opened the pool for all to cool off from the heat, then it was time for ghost stories led by Joe Iuzzolino & Kelly Knoll began with total suspense to all our young listeners. To bring everyone back to a happy place we had fabulous campfire music by Mr. Don Simons and his accordion and later Roy Sokol joined in with his guitar. There were many sing-a-longs and karaoke to add to the fun.

Most campers began to call it a night by midnight and some (obviously the younger crowd...yes our future) did not sleep at all!

In the morning, coffee arrived quickly with a hot breakfast to follow (thanks Doris for your help!) and slowly the campers woke up, packed up and proceeded to get on with another day not with much energy but with fond memories of another fabulous Kolping Family Weekend!

A HUGE THANK YOU goes out to all of the members, families and friends that participated in Kinder Olympics and Family Campout! Thank you to all of you who donated money and various culinary delights, and for helping whenever and wherever help was needed during this two-day affair! A special thank you to the Kolping Society, Ann, Heidi and Doris for helping make this all possible!

This weekend continues to be a success because of you—the members and friends of the Kolping Society! THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR HELP AND SUPPORT!!!

Stories of Interest

FATHER HENRY BEHRENS, S.J. submitted by Martin A. Kelly

You've heard the expression "What is one man's loss is another man's gain." It might be applied to the life of Fr. Henry Behrens, S.J. considering the expulsion of his order from Europe so we might reap the benefits of their labors.

He was born on December 10, 1815 in Munstadt, Hanover, and was ordained in 1832 at Staffis, Switzerland. After undergoing 10 years of rigorous training, which his order required, his superiors assigned him as an educator in the College of Freiburg.

The political upheaval of 1847 and its fanatical anti-clericalism, forced his community to seek safety in Antwerp. He, alone, however, remained behind, and, in disguise. By his courage and presence of mind, he prevented the destruction of the College and saved much of its property.

With revolutionists closing in, he made several daring escapes worthy of the "Scarlet Pimpernel."

Finally, he rejoined his order and they embarked on a hazardous 42 day sail for a new home. But all was not roses in "Schones Amerika." The bishop, who had invited them, had, subsequently, died; and, no one assumed responsibility for his offer.

Father and his group sailed for Germany on the eve of the Franco-Prussian War (1870-2).

Fr. Behrens and his co-religionists served as chaplains and medics, and they won the respect of the people and leaders. In spite of their zeal, the unappreciative government banished them.

Finally arriving in Buffalo, N.Y. in 1872, they found the welcome they were denied 20 years earlier. After mastering the English language, he motivated his followers to be earnest workers, inspired by the noblest aims in their various callings. In 1886, he established Saint Ignattus College and founded several missions among American Indians in South Dakota. They served in every facet of the charity and welfare life of Buffalo, N.Y. In recognition of his benevolence, the city of Buffalo celebrated the 50th Anniversary of his ordination as a civic holiday. He died in 1895.

FATHER KOLPING Submitted by Jack McGee

We need a bit of praying for the canonization of Father Kolping. More things are wrought by prayer than this world believes can happen.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Adolph Kolping

Almighty, everlasting God. You gave us Blessed Adolph Kolping as an intercessor and example. His life was filled with caring for youth in religious and social needs. For many he was an untiring pastor, a source of fatherly advice. He was a patient teacher and a true friend.

He set us an example in his love of your Son and in his loyalty to the Church. He viewed work, family and society in the light of our faith. He regarded helping others in our society as the fulfillment of the Christian love to one's neighbor.

He drew strength from the sacraments, Holy Scripture, and prayer, and he created a way which serves You and humanity.

At all times you called us to help build your kingdom. For this reason we ask You, help us work together today to overcome poverty, injustice and hopelessness. Help us through the intercession of Blessed Adolph Kolping to find courage for our efforts to support human life and protect marriage and the family. As members of the International Kolping Society, in the community of your Church, let us be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

Fulfill our hope of being able to honor Adolph Kolping as a Saint in all languages, all nations, and together with the whole Church. Let us, through faith, hope, and love, work towards realizing your kingdom in this world, just as Adolph Kolping did.

This we ask of You, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

What's Cooking?

August seems to have zoomed right by and here we are in September already. Even though we still have about a month and half left of the KOH season, it seems like it rapidly coming to close so its time to start planning next season, right?

August 8th: Thank you to the Harry S. Truman Lodge for hosting their annual picnic at KOH. What a great day and an even better assortment of food! The deep fried turkeys were back along with Cajun and blackened catfish, shrimp and steak. Delicious!

August 16th & August 23rd: Many thanks to Steve Fontana, who was our "Guest" chef, and prepared two fantastic meals. Steve is a caterer and if you are interested in his services you can contact him at Fontana's Catering 914-629-7432 or fontanascatering@aol.com

August 22nd: Thank you to all of the members who helped set up, run booths, grill, serve, cook, cleanup and donated baked goods at this year's Oktoberfest. We could not have done it without you. Thank you!
