54th Annual Steuben Day Parade

Saturday, September 17, 2011

Join us in marching down 5th Avenue with the Kolping Society! Our Metropolitan Division will assemble on 68th Street between Park and Lexington at 11:45 a.m. The Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral will begin at 9:00 a.m. (arrive in front of the church at 8:30 a.m.). We'd like to encourage the marchers to follow a "dress code"—trocken, or orange and black, for the Kolping colors, or blue bottoms and white tops (the Ladies Auxiliary dress code), or suits for men.

Please join us for our annual "Steuben Parade Celebration" after-party at Kolping 88th Street. Eat, drink, and have a great time after the parade! The doors will open at 1:00 p.m., and the festivities will begin at 3:00 p.m. Great food, plenty of beer, and lots of fun! German music by Don Simons and Family. The cost is $20 per adult, and $8 per child under 14. For reservations, please call Muriel at 914-582-8379.

RESCHEDULED OKTOBERFEST

at Kolping-On-Hudson

95 Montrose Point Road || Montrose, NY || 914-736-0117

Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please contact Muriel Fullam (914-582-8379) or email MurielFullam@msn.com when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

Our deepest sympathy to member Kathleen Williams and family. Her husband, Thomas Williams passed away on August 17, 2011. Mr. Williams was a safety supervisor at Ground Zero had a long battle with mesothelioma.

Please keep Walter Gross in your prayers.

WORDS WORTH NOTING submitted by Jack McGee

The Bible tells us to love our neighbors and also to love our enemies; probably because they are generally the same people. —G.K. Chesterton

If people look only to their own interests, our world will certainly fall apart. —Pope Benedict XVI

You have freedom when you are easy in your harness. —Robert Frost

A man can no more diminish God's glory by refusing to worship Him than a lunatic can put out the sun by scribbling the word, 'darkness' on the walls of his cell. —C.S. Lewis

Blessed is he who expects no gratitude, for he shall not be disappointed. —William Bennett

The most exhausting thing in life, I have discovered, is being insincere. —Anne Morrow Lindbergh

Conscience warns us as a friend before it punishes us as a judge. —King Stanislas I of Poland

One can go a long way after one is tired. —French proverb

There is always a moment in childhood when the door opens and lets the future in. —Graham Greene

OUR HOLY FATHER'S SEPTEMBER 2011 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

Teachers: That all teachers may know how to communicate the love of truth and instill authentic moral and spiritual values.

Church in Asia: That the Christian communities of Asia may proclaim the Gospel with fervor, witnessing to its beauty with the joy of faith.

News & Notes

SEE THE NY JETS VS. THE BUFFALO BILLS

The NY Jets Promotion Dept. is offering a special program to religious organizations. They have contacted us and said that they will give a special group rate to go to a Jet's game. On 11/27/11 at 1:00 pm the Jets are playing the Buffalo Bills at the new Meadowlands Stadium. The cost of a seat in the upper sideline would be $110. Would you be interested in buying a ticket? Kolping would have to buy the tickets and then sell them to you. So since Kolping would have to initially lay out the money, we want to know in advance if you would buy them. This is open to Kolping members and their friends. If we get a group of more than 50 people, the cost will go down. Please reply as soon as possible to Muriel Fullam 914-582-8379 or email MurielFullam@msn.com.

GOLF OUTING

Last Call for the Kolping Golf Outing on Saturday, September 10th, at the Doral Arrowwood Resort and Golf Club!!! Cost: $79 per golfer (Kolping members), $99 non-members. 1:00PM Shotgun start to play 18 holes. Barbeque Dinner and Awards Reception to follow. If you haven't made your reservation yet, please call Bob Hemsing at 347-386-9311 or bob42@optonline.net.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

It rained buckets on August 15th, the Feast of the Assumption. But Tony at KOC carried on and provided a wonderful dinner for the few people that were able to get to the Bronx. After Mass, Tony served Short Ribs of Beef, baked potatoes and Asparagus. Many thanks to Tony and the staff at KOC.

GERMAN-AMERICAN SOCIAL CLUB OF PEEKSKILL

The German-American Social Club of Peekskill is having their annual Oktoberfest on Sept 10th from 3PM to 10PM and again on Sunday from 12 noon to 8PM. The admission fee is $10 per adult. Children under 14 are free when accompanied by an adult. The band is Die Sandler & Bud & Linda Gramer. There will be performances by Bavarian Club Edelweiss Schuhplatter Dancers and the Irish Step Dancers from the Kelly-Oster School of Irish Dance. And best of all, potato pancakes made by the Ahrens family. For more information call 845-528-5800.

Member Business of the Month

SADIE LONGOBARDI

Submitted by Muriel Fullam

Sadie Longobardi has been a member of Kolping since 2005. She is the owner of Amberlands Travel which is located at 1 Baltic Place in Croton On Hudson, New York. Her travel agency is a full service agency—she works with individual clients, groups and corporate clients. She has been in the travel business for 31 years and handles travels to everywhere. Call her at when you are planning your next trip. She will do everything she can to get you the best price. Sadie is offering three cruises to Kolping members. The details will be in October's bulletin. Two cruises will be to the Caribbean and one cruise to Canada. Plan a cruise with your friends at Kolping. My husband Jerry and I are planning to go on the Canadian trip out of New York. If you'd like to come too, call or email Sadie! Look for Sadie's flyers in the October Kolping bulletin. email: ambertrvl@aol.com || phone: 914-271-6663

Do you have a business or do a service that would benefit other Kolping members? We will set up a time for an interview, call you and find out what you do—then feature you and your service or business in the Kolping Bulletin. Most of us would rather have someone we know, rather than a stranger, do our plumbing, electrical work, painting, dog grooming, taxes, insurance, sewing, etc.

If interested, please call or email Muriel Fullam at 914-582-8379 or MurielFullam@msn.com.

While we're on the topic of Travel...if you like to travel, why not take out your Bible?

A Spiritual Pilgrimage to the Holy Land Submitted by Jack McGee

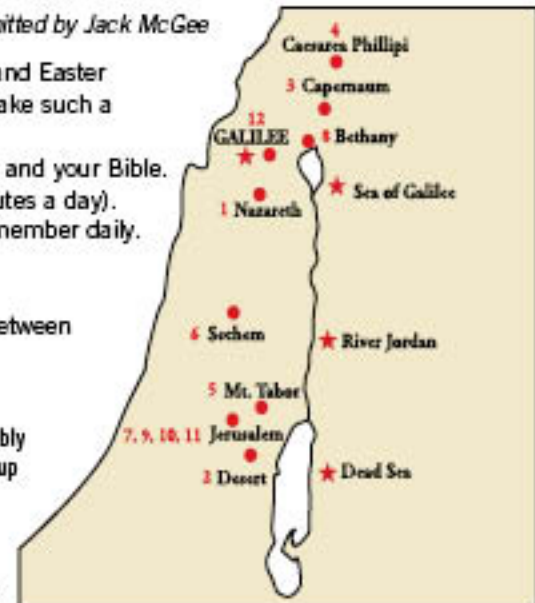

What's that? You can't hop a plane to the Holy Land for that once-in-a-lifetime Lent and Easter Pilgrimage this year? Look again! With the Church as your guide, you can indeed make such a holy pilgrimage, even from home. Just follow these steps:

- Pick up your itinerary (this article); it comes, courtesy of the Holy Season's Liturgy, and your Bible.
- Make a commitment of time and place for your Pilgrimage (even for 10 or 15 minutes a day).
- Be generous. Let prayer bring along those special people whose intentions you remember daily. That act of charity will enrich the journey for all.
- Then, lavish your time and love on the Lord—Who is Love itself.

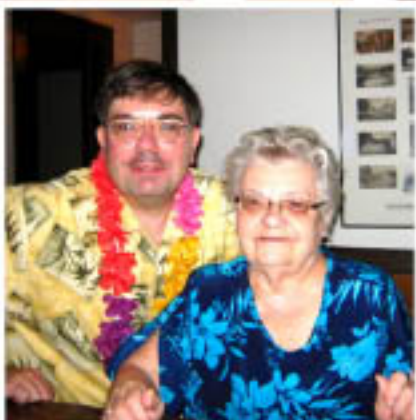

The rough map of the Holy Land can get you started (feel free to connect the dots between pilgrimage sites as you "visit" each one).

AND SO, BEGIN. GO TO...

- 1) Nazareth in Galilee. Read Matthew 2: 19-23. St. Joseph leads the Holy Family out of Egypt, probably taking the coastal route, heading far north of King Herod's treacherous court. There, Jesus grows up safely in the small, mixed—population (Jews and some Gentiles) village of Nazareth.
- 2) The Desert, outside Jerusalem, hugging the Jordan, perhaps near Qumran. Read Matthew 4: 1-11, proclaimed on the First Sunday of Lent.
- 3) Capernaum, on the north shore of the Sea of Galilee. Read Matthew 4: 12-16. With news of John the Baptizer's arrest, Jesus retreats to Galilee, leaving Nazareth permanently, for Capernaum.
- 4) Caesarea Philippi. Read Mark 8: 27-38. Moving to this region, following the second Miracle of the Multiplication of the Loaves, Jesus began teaching his Apostles about the doctrine of the Cross and the Pascal Events to come.
- 5) Mount Tabor. Read Matthew 17: 1-9. The Gospel for the Second Sunday of Lent (in all three Cycles) looks to the Lord's Transfiguration: a miracle to strengthen the Apostles for the coming events Jesus had foretold.
- 6) Shechem in Samaria. Read John 4: 5-42, the Gospel for the Third Sunday of Lent. To the Samaritan woman at the well, Jesus reveals himself as the long promised Messiah, ready to fulfill the Father's mission.
- 7) Jerusalem. (Check out the Mount of Olives, a favorite all-night prayer site for Jesus, and the Pool of Siloam). The Gospel for Lent's Fourth Sunday: John 9: 1-41 Jesus' Sabbath-day cure of the Man Born Blind makes him "a wanted man." (See John 10: 39-42, as Jesus eludes arrest by going back across the Jordan).
- 8) Bethany. Read John 11: 1-45. Gospel for Lent's Fifth Sunday (see also John 11: 46-54). When Jesus raises Lazarus from his tomb, his fate is sealed. At an extraordinary meeting of the Sanhedrin, the high priest Caiaphas would prophesy: "... it is better for you to have one man die..." (Jesus had already slipped away to Ephraim, 12 miles north of Jerusalem).
- 9) Jerusalem. (Note the Garden of Gethsemani, Golgotha, the Holy Sepulcher). Read Matthew, Chapter 26, verse 14, all the way through Chapter 27, verse 66. The Gospel for Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion.
- 10) Jerusalem. Easter Vigil Gospel: Matthew 28: 1-10. The two Mary's are greeted by Jesus as they depart the empty Tomb. "Do not be afraid," he counsels; tell the Disciples ("...my brothers") to go to Galilee "and there they will see me."
- 11) Jerusalem. Easter Sunday Morning Gospel: John 20: 1-9 (Mary of Magdala at the tomb, "while it was still dark...") And the afternoon Mass: Luke 24: 13-35 (the Road to Emmaus).
- 12) Galilee. Read Matthew 28: 16-20 (commissioning of the Apostles). And John 21 (The Risen Lord's third post-Resurrection appearance to the Apostles—who find Jesus calling from the sea shore, with a hearty breakfast awaiting them).

Stories of Interest

Police Inspector Max Schmittberger submitted by Martin A. Kelly

"Crime does not pay," Well, not as well as it used to. One reason for this drop in criminality is the use of the testimony of a "cooperative" defendant (turn coat) to strengthen the cases against his co-conspirators. In mob slang, this policy is called "ratting out" or "squealing", but serious problems demand serious remedies.

One of the first to avail himself of this "cooperative witness" tactic was Inspector Max Schmittberger, P.D.N.Y. He was born in Würzburg, Germany, in 1851; and his family immigrated to New York City when he was 4. After graduating from grade school, he worked as an apprentice for a candy maker. Later, he felt the calling to become a police officer.

In those days, there was no civil service system, and entrants were sworn-in after paying a fee. Similarly, promotions were based on fees on an escalating scale. Officers took their cut from this fee, or rather graft, system and it pervaded the department. Loan sharks, gamblers, pimps and other sleazy merchants financed this bribe system which reached City Hall.

In time, 1903 public sentiment demanded reform and the investigative Lexow Committee on police corruption within the NYPD was installed to ferret out the truth. When Inspector Schmittberger, who was not lily white, was summoned; he made a clean break of it, and implicated his higher-up in this monstrous scandal. Far-reaching reforms were enacted, but Schmittberger broke the time-honored code of silence whereby an underling would serve as a scape-goat while the organizer would go free for lack of evidence.

Schmittberger was promoted to the highest uniform rank, Chief Inspector, and he served in the department for 42 years. This tactic of "turning-around" a defendant to incriminate his fellow criminals is widely used in prosecuting Organized Crime and Terrorism.

Schmittberger died in 1917 from natural causes. The question that lingers about him "Was he an honest cop or just one who knew the right time to change sides?" At any rate, he made a change that had to be made. [NY Sunday News 7/3/11]

Where Was God in All of This? submitted by Kathy and Walter Weigand

God was in the rescue workers running into buildings as most people were running out.

God was in the flight attendant who called her husband as her plane was being hijacked to tell him she loved him.

God was in the two men who carried a wheelchair bound woman down 70 flights of stairs to safety.

God was in the people who stood bleeding, in line to give blood.

God was in the strangers in cars, picking up strangers stranded in the city and taking them home to their families.

God is in the people who are begging to volunteer, to do anything to help.

God is in the thousands, if not millions who are flooding blood banks thousands of miles away to help people they have never met.

God is in the people who are comforting someone even when they don't know what to say.

God is in the people who watched and cried for people who may remain anonymous in name, but never in their sacrifice.

God is in my neighborhood where I see flags waving from every home.

God is in the men and women, looking at 110 stories of rubble, and seeing only the opportunity to find survivors.

God is with the heroes, most of whom will never be on the news, whose stories will only be told to their closest friends and families; but saved someone's mother, father, sister, brother, daughter, son, husband, wife, grandmother, grandfather, aunt, uncle, cousin, lover, colleague, acquaintance, teacher, mentor or friend with a single act of kindness, compassion and bravery.

God was not in the hearts of the people that caused these inhumane events.

However, God was indeed there, where he was needed the most.

9-11 10th Anniversary and Memorial Dedication

The 9/11 Memorial will be dedicated on the 10th anniversary of 9/11 and open to the public on September 12, 2011. It is located at the site of the former World Trade Center complex, occupies approximately half of the 16-acre site, and will feature two enormous waterfalls and reflecting pools, each about an acre in size, set within the footprints of the original twin towers.

The Ground Zero Memorial and Museum are officially called the 9/11 Memorial and the 9/11 Memorial Museum. Visiting Ground Zero will likely be difficult for most, if not all, of us, but this incredible tribute to the thousands of heroes lost on and involved in 9/11/01 is a must-do for anyone visiting NYC.

ORGANIST NEEDED

Due to illness of our current organist we are looking for a substitute with the possibility of a permanent position. Sundays 11 a.m. to 12 noon (sometimes till 12.30 p.m.) Adequate pay will be negotiated. We would appreciate any suggestions or recommendations.

Lady Liberty

submitted by Kathy and Walter Weigand

Happy Birthday, Lovely Lady
Lovely Lady in the harbor,
You've been there a hundred years,
Lifting high your torch of freedom,
You have banished all our fears

Fear of war and desolation,
And of famine and of pain
And religious persecution,
And the holocaust's dread flame.

Fear of tyranny and bondage,
Men in prison doomed to die,
Just because they cherished freedom,
Brutal laws they did defy.

There are fears we left behind us
With the ones whose love we share,
May the good God soon release them
From all suffering and care.

Now we come here seeking justice
And a better way of life,
Hold us closely to your bosom,
No more hatred, no more strife.

So Happy Birthday, lovely Lady,
From the strangers on your shore,
We're the poor and huddled masses,
Who found refuge at your door.

Parriek Beary

HUMOR submitted by Martin A. Kelly

SOBRIETY TEST

A highway patrolman pulls over a motorist for speeding. The driver explains he is a juggler and on his way to do a charity performance in an orphanage. The cop is touched but wants to be sure the driver is a juggler so he asks for a demonstration. The driver gets out of his car and performs. Just then, an out-of-state couple comes on the scene. Seeing this, the wife remarks to her husband "You better not have any drinks here, you could never pass that kind of sobriety test."

Q&A

Q. On your recent trip to Italy, did you visit Florence?
A. I tried to, but her husband was home.

Notes:

Calling all Bakers:

If you've got the time, we've got the "knead"! We heartily welcome any baked goods (cakes, cookies, desserts, etc.) you would like to donate for the Kolping-on-Hudson Oktoberfest on Saturday, September 24th. We are also looking for desserts for Saturday or Sunday dinners. If you are interested in making a dessert for dinner, please contact Heidi at 914-736-0117 for details. We all know that nothing beats homemade!
