John Noonan, George Kummer, and James Mallon.

A special Birthday Greeting and thanks to Father Bretone for all he does for us!

If you know someone celebrating a milestone birthday or anniversary, please let us know so we can include it in the Bulletin. Please email either me at editor@kolpingny.org or Ann Horan at annth@optonline.net.

Congratulations!

We are happy to announce Barbara & Dan DeFranco welcomed their daughter, Elyssa Renate into the world on September 7. Elyssa's proud grandparents are Renee & Reinhard Oelerking.

Best Wishes!

Kirsten & Roland Schmitt renewed their wedding vows on September 8, 2007 at Kolping-on-Hudson. Among the many guests on hand to celebrate were Roland's parents, Inge and Horst Schmitt, as well as brother Gerhard Schmitt and his family. The ceremony was held in Assmuth Hall, and the reception at the main house. The day was warm and sunny, and a wonderful time was had by all!

NEWS FROM THE BRANCHES

Submitted by Jack McGee

BROOKLYN KOLPING volunteers have already begun getting ready for another season of Sunday Monthly Dinners. Volunteers donate their time, energy and enthusiasm to bring our members together for a $10.00 dinner, with refreshments and dessert included.

On October 28th at 2pm, they will celebrate "An International Day of Prayer," combined with an All Souls Day observance in their Center. On this Sunday they will join together to pray for deceased members, as well as to learn about Kolping in other parts of the world.

DETROIT KOLPING members are excited over the success of their past "September Fashion Show"something newsomething different....something up to date for the ladies.

Schuetzenfest brought large crowds to vote for Kolping King and Queen for 2007/2008 year. Everyone wished Ed and Pat Wagner a very happy reign.

PHILADELPHIA KOLPING is hosting a new activity entitled, "The Sweethearts Golf Outing." The male member of the team drives to the green and the female putts. A luncheon for participants and engaging observers finishes off the day.

As announced, Philadelphia is hosting the 2008 Kolping Convention over the September, Labor Day Weekend.

News & Notes

Kolping-On-Concourse Mass & Lunch • Sunday, November 4

Please join us for this very special yearly event. Fr. Breton will celebrate Mass in our Chapel at 11:30. This year we will remember deceased members Josef Feuerbach, Marjorie Melita, Bernard Voegelé, Anton Gindert, and Reverend Charles McTague. We hope many of you will attend this long standing tradition, and it will give you a chance to visit our beautiful house on the Concourse.

After Mass, lunch will follow in the dining room. On the menu is soup, choice of baked, smoked ham or roasted chicken, fresh sweet potatoes, Italian vegetables, coffee, cake and wine. The price for this meal is $10 per adult and $5 per child. Please make an effort to join us at the Concourse. Call Ann Horan to make your reservations (914-737-2026).

World Day of Prayer Submitted by Patricia Farkas

October 27 [the anniversary of the beatification of Fr. Adolph Kolping] is designated as the World Day of Prayer. This year's World Day of Prayer was prepared by the Kolping Society of Switzerland, and will be observed by Kolping members throughout the world. Each family is asked to make an effort to observe this day of celebration as one of your yearly activities.

REMINDER: Please keep Sunday, December 2, 2007 open to join in our Christmas party. We will honor our new 50-year members—Rita Berg, Catherine Ferrero, Bob Reinisch, Valentine Sartorius, and Jerry Reslmaier. We will also honor our new 25-year members—Karen Byrnes, Marg Cirincione, Bonnie Dengler, Barbara Henry, Helmi Pinner, and Marjorie Ritzer. Stay tuned for the details in the November Bulletin.

Steuben Day Parade

Thanks to Ann Horan and Frank Weigand for providing these photos

This year we enjoyed the best party after the parade that most of us can remember. We had a fully packed house!

The day started out cloudy and rainy, but all that passed in time for the march to begin. We have many people to thank for making this such a successful event. Thanks to all our members who turned out to walk. Thanks to Bernie Dengler who purchased shirts in our Kolping colors so that we looked like a real "team" on Fifth Avenue. Thanks to our flag holders and banner carriers. Thanks to Heidi Umland and Doris Petsche for preparing the food. Thanks to Gerhard Schmitt and Edward Specht for passing out the fliers which brought in so many people to the Kolping House. Thanks to Maria and Jimmy Stang for collecting the entrance fees and helping with the crowd control! Thanks to Wilma and Ernst Endrich and their staff who worked so hard all day in the Kolping House.

The real highlight for all of us was having a Kolping band from Baden Baden to accompany us on Fifth Avenue and then to play for us back at the Kolping House. They were such a great group of people. At the end of the day, we traded our Kolping shirts for their green band shirts, so now we have truly bonded by giving each other the shirts off our backs!

Stories of Interest

AN INFLUENTIAL FAMILY submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Certain families have contributed to the progress of New York City. Among them are the Rockefellers, the Astors, the Guggenheims and others. There are many others on a lesser scale, like the Boltes of The Bronx.

Herman Frederick Bolte was born in Bremen, Germany in 1855 and arrived in New York City in 1872 to seek his fortune. Obtaining work in a grocery store in Yorkville, he served and saved so that he bought his own business in 1881. Boltes first store was located at First Avenue and 86th Street. As things improved, he opened a second one on Park Avenue and 86th Street.

"Morgenstunde hat Geld in Munde" [morning hours proved profitable] for Bolte, and he eventually centralized his operations to an emporium on Melrose Avenue and 162nd Street. In his personal life, his interest in music drew him to the popular Morrisania Sanger Park where he made the acquaintance of Sophia Arras whose father owned the park.

In 1882, they married and had two sons: Herman Frederick Bolte, Jr. and John Bolte. The sons operated the Bolte Brothers Awning and Shade business on White Plains Road, founded in 1913.

Herman, Jr., died in 1923, but John continued his entrepreneurial enthusiasm opening motion picture theaters when movies became popularly accepted as an entertainment form. The last of which was the Wakefield at 234th Street and White Plains Road which was still serving the public in the 1970's.

John served in the first World War and was an active member of the Bronx County V.F.W.'s post as well as being involved with several business, social and German-American organizations.

Thus, the Bolte family contributed much to Bronx life.

A LITTLE HUMOR

"Out of the Mouths of Babes"

submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Opa sits with his youngest grand daughter when she asks, "Opa, can you make a sound like a frog?"

Opa answers, somewhat dismayed, "No, I don't think so, why?"

The grand daughter explains, "Because I heard mommy and daddy talking and they said that after you croak, we can take a trip to Florida."

Secret to Staying Young

submitted by Kathy Weigand

Full of vigor, Trudy celebrated her 95th birthday. Her friends asked her to share her secret for staying so young.

"I'd be happy to tell you! My 4 boyfriends keep me very busy—every morning I get up with Will Power, then I go for a walk with Arthur Itis. I return home with Charlie Horse, and then off to bed with Ben Gay!"

WORDS WORTH NOTING submitted by Jack McGee

The laughter of a child is the light of a house.

—African proverb

The test and the use of man's education is that he finds pleasure in the exercise of his mind. —Jack Barzun

It often happens that I awake at night and begin to think about a serious problem and decide I must tell the Pope about it. Then I wake up completely and remember that I am the Pope. —Blessed John XXIII

Family faces are like mirrors. Looking at people who belong to us, we see the past, present and future.

—Gail L. Buckley

For anything worth having one must pay the price; and the price is always work, patience, love, self-sacrifice—no paper currency, no promises to pay, but the gold of real service. —John Burroughs

Home is the place where, when you have to go there, they have to take you in. —Robert Frost

There is not a tree in heaven, higher than the tree of patience. —Irish proverb

One can endure sorrow alone, but it takes two to be glad. —Elbert Hubbard

We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing; others judge us by what we have done. —Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

There is no way on earth of making a person worthy of love, except by loving them. —Thomas Merton

Justice is the insurance which we have on our lives and property. Obedience is the premium which we pay for it. —William Penn

Other men's sins are before our eyes; our own are behind our backs. —Seneca

ALL SOULS DAY

In view of the fact that Catholics believe in the state of purgatory after death, in preparation for the beatific vision, Catholics are encouraged to pray for their beloved dead to attain this final end. On All Souls Day we are encouraged to pray for the departed, have Masses offered for the repose of their souls, have them prayed for as well during the month of November, etc. The time for planning is NOW. Let us gather our thoughts, on the family deceased. Let us get organized, on how we are going to have spiritual benefits and activities planned for these souls in purgatory, to quicken their purification, shorten their stay and enhance their ascent to their Heavenly Father and the Saints forever, in paradise... World without end. Amen.

FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE

ARE YOU GRADUATING FROM THE 8TH GRADE THIS COMING JUNE 2008?

Just a few points to consider. What is your goal in life? Will your high school choice be a proper "choice" to help you accomplish your goal? If you are considering a private high school, do you have the finances for 4 years of schooling? If you are considering public high school, have you considered the best of the group to help you prepare properly for college admissions? Are you preparing to take scholarship examinations? The following may be worth looking in to:

High School Open House

REGIS HIGH SCHOOL (an all scholarship secondary Jesuit School for Catholic boys), 55 East 84th Street, NYC. 212-288-1100. For 8th graders and their parents. Monday, October 8th from 1 to 4 p.m.

XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL (a Jesuit, all boys High School, known for its pre-college excellence) invites interested parents to call for information on admission, etc. Call 1-212-924-7900 ext. 1442

If not college bound have you considered your choice of a select public high school known for its scholastic standards? Have you considered a Vocational high school which will prepare you for a skill for life-time employment excellence? The right vocational skills bring the right skill salaries.
