Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please call Ann Horan (914-737-2026) when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

It is with the deepest sadness that I tell you of the passing of one of our beloved members, Gerhard Resmaier, or Jerry, as he was known to us. Jerry was a member for fifty-two years and to prove how "true Kolping" he was he and his bride Katherine had their wedding reception at the Kolping house on 88th Street. Jerry served on the Board of Directors, The Kolping on Hudson Committee, and any other committee or occasion where he was needed. He was also our music man, lending his accordion playing to all our parties. Probably the thing that most of us remember, and will miss, about Jerry was his constant smile and cheerful attitude toward life. He was an inspiration to all of us of to live life as an outstanding Christian, husband, father, and grandfather. Our thoughts and prayers are with Katherine, his daughters Ingrid (our very own Bulletin editor), Theresa Ostroff and son-in-law Gary, and Christine. He will be so missed by his grandchildren Lindsay, Evan, and Sabrina Ostroff.

Note from Ingrid: On behalf of myself and my family, I want to thank all of our Kolping family for their love, support and prayers through this difficult time. Kolping was very special to my dad, and there is no surprise as to why. What a wonderful group of friends we've all made these many years, beginning with the involvement of my grandparents—Helen Resmaier and Carola & Albert Sartorius. We treasure our memories, and look forward to many good times ahead.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO THOSE BORN IN OCTOBER:

Evelyn Ahrens, Brian Bellett, Steven Berg, William Breining, Father Richard Breton, Heide Bruegger, Kevin Peter Bruegger, Monica Buckel, Anneli Nicole Cantu, Lisa Caruso, Arthur Connolly, Anna Dengler, Anton Dengler, Christina Dengler, Debra Dengler, Marilyn Dengler, Carol Dowgiallo, Alfred Froebrich, Alexander Gorzelany, Beth Heyd, Deirdre Hickey, Tom Hickey, Nancy Jackson, Martin Kelly, Art Kessler, George Kummer, Frank Kurcz, Rosemarie Lambot, Tom Lewis, Paul Lorenzen, James Mallon, Ludwig Manz, MaryAnn McCusker, Daniel James McLane, Mary Minarik, James Moore, Lothar Moore, Dennis Noll, John Noonan, Tom Noonan, Lindsay Ostroff, Chris Preisser, Sylvia Reitter, Horst Schmitt, Mark Tunkel, Kathleen Ullrich, Chris Vargo, James Vargo, John Vargo, and Gloria Zale.

SPECIAL OCTOBER BIRTHDAY:

Kathleen Ullrich

If you know someone celebrating a milestone birthday or anniversary, please let us know so we can include it in the Bulletin. Please email either me at editor@kolpingny.org or Ann Horan at annth@optonline.net.

THANKS to those who put in something special with their chances—Anna Fitzgerald, William Conte, Norbert and Marilyn Dengler, Rita Berg, Marla Reuber, and Margarete Kiec.

As the KOH season comes to a close, there are some people who deserve a big thanks for the extra time and work they did to make our summer a success. Christel Scheuermann put in many long, hot hours collecting fees at the pool. She was helped by Johanna McGreevy and we thank them both. Richie Povlonis is a member who is always around to help Heidi with so many things and this year he did a huge project of moving the dirt in the parking lot. Now we are able to accommodate more cars. Everyone knows Robert Jakl as our bartender but did you also know he is our party decorator and in house electrician? We have him to thank for the great atmosphere on Tropical Night. Also, accidentally left off the list of the many helpers at Oktoberfest at KOH was Jimmy Stang...we consider him our "all over helper"! Many members did lots of work this season behind the scenes and we thank you all for your time.

Dieter and Lillian Kammerer, Katherine and John Altavilla who donated to the society in memory of Gerhard Resmaier.

FROM BETHANY SPIRITUALITY CENTER

Dear Kolping Members,

This letter brings to you the deeply felt gratitude of the Religious of Jesus and Mary who own and operate Bethany Spirituality Center. The members of the Kolping Society, through the efforts of Edward Specht, have helped our Convent and our Center so much. A number of men and women—and a few entire families, like the Spechts—spent a full day here taking down and cutting up large dead trees, power washing our deck and gazebo, putting up an 8-foot fence around our new organic garden, weeding in our large flower garden. Edward even took some of our benches home and, with his young daughter, power washed and stained them. Your society also had 6 gorgeous and comfortable adirondack chairs made for us. The, to add gift on top of gift, you gave us a very generous monetary contribution.

We could never thank you adequately for all your help, but we are counting on the Lord Jesus to do so for us by blessing the Kolping Society with many new and dedicated members and by answering the needs of all the wonderful families who have helped us.

It has been a great inspiration to come to know first hand the great generosity of the Kolping Society, to experience the outstanding dedication of its members, and to witness their love and commitment to the mission of the Society. As I listened to Edward speak about Fr. Kolping and his values and goals, I could clearly see how Fr. Kolping's charisma is alive and strong today in those who belong to his Society. Surely your Spirit-led society is a great treasure for the Church of the 21st century.

We thank you not only for all you have given to us and done for us, but also for the inspiration and renewed hope that meeting the Kolping members has engendered in us.

Very gratefully and with much prayer for the Kolping Society,
Sr. Teresita Morse and the Religious of Jesus and Mary at Bethany

OUR HOLY FATHER'S OCTOBER 2009 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

Sunday Eucharist. That Sundays may be lived as the day on which Christians gather to celebrate the Risen Lord in the table of the Eucharist.

Spirit of Mission. That all the people of God, whom Christ has commanded to go and preach the Gospel to every creature, may diligently fulfill their missionary responsibility.

Steuben Day Parade submitted by Ann Horan

This year we had great weather, a great turn out of marchers, and a great turn out of people back at the Kolping House. You can't go wrong with three greats! Thanks to all our marchers, all forty-five of you. Gerhard Schmitt did an outstanding job as our chairman. He wore many hats on Saturday. He organized the flags, making sure they arrived at the line of march, contacted the band, and the all important job of readying the kegs of beer for the party after. Dantel Dengler pitched in at the admission table. We had Doris Petsche and Alberto as our chefs. Ernst's crew on 88th Street was so helpful in so many ways. A special thanks to Wilma and Kenny in the office. Wilma did the ordering of the food and made sure we didn't forget anything. Kenny printed the tickets and greeted the first arrivals. Thanks to Edward Specht for designing our flyer and to Stefan Schmitt for passing out the fliers as we waited our turn to march. Bernie Dengler was responsible for planning the Mass at St. Patricks on Saturday morning. This is a tremendous task and one he has been doing for many years.

Stories of Interest

HINDENBERG DISASTER submitted by Martin A. Kelly

On May 6, 1937, at about 8:20 p.m., the skies over Lakehurst, New Jersey, lit up like a volcanic eruption. The dirigible, Von Hindenberg, had burst into an inferno while tying up to its mooring mast. Soon, the glowing super structure would crash to earth and the heated air scented with the smell of death would pervade everything. Unglücklich Platz oder Tatort?

Official investigative agencies could not establish the nature of the fire. The Ministry of Propaganda, in Berlin, forbade the surviving crew members or anyone else from mentioning "Sabotage." It might have affected the tourist trade. On the other hand, the German scientific community maintained that it could not be their fault.

Or the first possibility, Germany, at that time was involved in a "cold war" in Spain. Russia wanted to extend her sphere of influence there. Germany, however, saw herself being boxed in with: Red Russia in the east, socialist France in the west, and then a pro-Russian Spain in the south. Land warfare spread to the high seas. A transport carrying "volunteers" from Eastern Europe was torpedoed by a submarine of undetermined nationality. Was the fire a pay-back? The Hindenberg brazenly displayed on her tail a huge swastika, the symbol of hatred to many.

Or, maybe, a spitzbube with a 22 caliber rifle took some pot shots.

HOW TO SURVIVE A BEAR ATTACK

Submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Two woodsmen decide to camp out in the forest. In the middle of the night, they hear a bear roaring outside their tent. They are startled. One hastily starts to put on his shoes. The other asks "You can't outrun a bear, why are you doing that." The first guy replies "I want to make sure I outrun you."

MORE HUMOR...COURTESY OF DETROIT KOLPING

Submitted by Jack McGee

Six-year old Angie and her 4-year old brother, Joel, were sitting together in church. Joel giggled, sang and talked out loud. Finally, his big sister had enough. "You're not supposed to talk out loud in church."

"Who's going to stop me?" Joel asked. Angie pointed to the back of the church and said, "See those two men standing by the door? They're hushers."

A lady was picking through frozen turkeys at the grocery store but couldn't find one big enough for her family. So, she asked a stock boy, "Do those turkeys get any bigger?" The stock boy replied, "No ma'am, they're dead."

A cop pulls an elderly lady over for going 22 miles per hour on the freeway. The lady says to the cop, "But the speed limit said 22." The cop explains to her, "That is the highway number." He then looks to the back seat to see two shaken elderly ladies and asks, "What is the matter with them?" The lady tells him they just got off Highway 101.

The Good Shepherd

THOUGHTS FROM THE BIBLE FOR ALL SOUL'S DAY

Submitted by Jack McGee

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
He leads me beside quiet waters,
He restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil,
for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and love
will follow me all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Santa's on his Way!

Kolping Christmas/St. Nikolaus Day Party SUNDAY, DECEMBER 6, 2009

We cordially invite all of you to our final event for 2009. Our annual family Christmas/St. Nikolaus Day party will be held on Sunday, December 6th at the Kolping House on 88th. Street.

We will start the day with a 10:30 am Memorial Mass, celebrated by our Praeses, Father Richard Bretone at the Kolping House. A delicious dinner will follow. More details to come in the November Bulletin, but you can get a head-start by mailing Ann Horan the coupon below.

After dinner, the agenda will include honoring our 50 year member—William Kiec and our 25 year members—Kathleen Fuchek and Heidi Umland—for their loyal service to Kolping. Last, but not least, Santa will make his annual visit. The approximate time schedule is: 10:30 am Mass; 12:00 noon Dinner; 1:00 pm celebration of 25-year and 50-year members; 1:30 pm Santa's visit.

We look forward to seeing you at our family Christmas/St. Nikolaus Day party. It's such a happy experience to see our party grow each year with the arrival of new children and grandchildren. It is a sure sign that we will preserve New York Kolping for many years to come.

All Kolping children and grandchildren 10 years of age and under will receive a gift from Santa, but only if you fill out the coupon below and return it to Santa's helper (Ann Horan) by November 21st—then your child will be sure to be on Santa's list.

Mail to: Ann Horan, 100 Montrose Point Rd, Montrose, NY 10548

The season's last big event - the annual Closeout Party - is scheduled for Saturday, October 17, 2009. If you have not had a chance to enjoy a meal at Kolping-on-Hudson now is your chance! The evening features open bar with dinner served at 7:00 PM featuring shrimp cocktail, filet mignon, twice baked potatoes and green beans. After dinner, guests will head up to Asmuth Hall to enjoy dessert and coffee in addition to assorted snacks. Please call Heidi for reservations 914-736-0117.

We extend our gratitude...

September 27: Thank you to Cecilia & Ed Cohn and Doris Petsche for the mouth-wateringly delicious Sauerbraten & Dumpling feast they prepared for the Harvest Dinner. Am still dreaming of the gravy... yum! And a personal thanks to Cecilia and Ed for sharing their cooking tips and methods with us!

Thank you very much to Manfred Gallwitz for making the apple strudel we enjoyed for dessert at the Harvest Dinner. Evelyn and Jennifer also want to personally thank Manfred for showing us the art of apple strudel making and sharing his knowledge with us. Thanks to Heidi, Doris, Annemarie and Ann for peeling, coring and cutting up the 40 pounds of apples it took to make the strudel!
