Milestones & Passages

Everyone could use the power of prayer now and again. If you or anyone you know is in need of prayer, please let us know and we will be happy to include them within the "in our prayers" list. Please call Ann Horan (914-737-2026) when you know of a member who is ill, in the hospital, or has passed away. We want to be sure to remember them.

We have lost our oldest member Mae Purcell in October. Mae was 95 and really enjoyed coming down to take in the view of the Hudson River at KOH. Our prayers go out to Mae's niece, Donna Kress, and all her Breining relatives.

"Get Well Soon" to Maria Reuber and Karen Byrnes. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers. We also wish Christel Scheuermann a speedy recover, she is undergoing physical therapy and we hope that she is back to 100% soon.

NEWS FROM THE BRANCHES

Submitted by Jack McGee

DETROIT: Detroit Kolping opened the Fall Season with a Fashion Show which was a huge success. On September 22nd, the doors opened for an evening of "something different." In addition to the fashion show, the evening was complete with dinner and dessert. Table prizes and raffles made an evening's enjoyment for everyone.

CINCINNATI: We received the "Words of Wisdom" poem from our branch in Ohio, which will be sponsoring our Kolping Convention over the Labor Day weekend of September 2010:

He was just a little boy, on a week's first day,
Wandering home from Bible School,
And dawdling on the way.
He scuffed his shoes into the grass;
He even found a caterpillar.
He found a fluffy milkweed pod, and blew out all the 'filler,'
A bird's nest in a tree overhead,
So wisely placed up so high, was just another wonder, that caught his eager eye.
A neighbor watched his zig zag course,
And hailed him from the lawn;
Asked him where he'd been that day
And what was going on.
'I've been to Bible School,'
He said and turned a piece of sod.
He picked up a wiggly worm replying,
'I've learned a lot about God.'
'M'm very fine way,' the neighbor said,
'for a boy to spend his time,'
'If you'll tell me where God is,
I'll give you a brand new dime.'
Quick as a flash the answer came!
Nor were his accents faint.
'I'll give you a dollar, Mister,
If you can tell me where God ain't.'

HARVEST DINNER Submitted by Ann Horan

A delicious dinner was prepared by our members Cecilia and Edelbert Cohn, with dessert made by Manfred Gallwitz and Jennifer Scheuermann. We were in the unusual position of having only one sitting. Thanks to our members who attended despite the cold and rainy weather (what else is new about the weather this year?)

Father Bretone offered Mass in memory of Gerhard Resmaier. We were so happy his wife Kathy, and daughters Ingrid, Theresa, and Christine, and brother-in-law Valentine, were able to join us for the Mass (also pictured, nephew Gerhard Schmitt).

We then initiated new members Tom Brady, Mike and Nancy Byrne, Mike and Norma Macaluso, and Stephanie and Dan McGill.

Finally, we drew the names of the winners of our raffle for KOH. They are:

1st Prize — 2 NY Jets tickets	Pat Farkas
2nd Prize — $250 Gift Card to Best Buy	Ann Venditti
3rd Prize — Handmade Quilt	Paula Roberts
4th Prize — $100	Alexandra Cojocar

Manfred Gallwitz came on Friday to help make the apple strudel.

OUR HOLY FATHER'S NOVEMBER 2009 INTENTIONS

Each month, the Holy Father gives us one general intention and an intention for world missions.

Care of Creation. That all people of good will, especially those who make political and economic policies, may commit themselves to care for all creation.

Peace of God. That believers of every religion may witness through their lives and through dialogue that the Name of God brings peace.

FATHER EUSEBIO FRANCISCO KINO (1645–1711) submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Father Kino was born on August 10, 1645 in German-speaking canton of Segnol, in the Swiss Tyrol. There is some question as to his family name. Some biographers identify him as Kuhn.

At 19 years of age, he was stricken with a serious illness; and, he prayed that if he recovered, he would become a Jesuit missionary. True to his word, he became a novice and studied theology in Innsbruck and Ingolstadt. In addition, he became an expert in cartology and astrology which he would put to good use in exploring his area of assignment: the missions of New Spain.

The conquistadors had laid claim to much of the Western Hemisphere. New Spain included Mexico, lower California, and Arizona. He taught the Indians crop raising techniques, including irrigation, cattle and sheep herding. There arose 20 missions many of which became the site of modern cities. The finest example of a Spanish mission is called the "Dove of the Desert" twelve miles outside Tucson, Arizona.

Kino was also a noted cartographer drawing maps of the areas he traveled. He was the first to prove that Southern California was not an island: but, a peninsula.

He labored among the Indians and provided for their welfare: particularly, impressment as workers in silver mines. Later, around 1670's, the Papago Indians served as U.S. Army scouts in coping with the hostile Apache marauders.

Father died on March 15, 1711. A statue of Father Kino now stands in our nation's Capitol Rotunda.

There is a Medical Distinction

Submitted by Ernst Endrich

We've all heard about people having guts or balls, but do you really know the difference between them? In an effort to keep you informed, the definitions are listed below:

GUTS—Is arriving home late after a night out with the guys, being met by your wife with a broom, and having the guts to ask: "Are you still cleaning, or are you flying somewhere?"

BALLS—Is coming home late after a night out with the guys, smelling of perfume and beer, lipstick on your collar, slapping your wife on the butt and saying: "You've next, Chubby."

Medically speaking, there is no difference in the outcome, since both ultimately result in death.

NEW School Prayer Submitted by Lulu Nieshalla

Now I sit me down in school where praying is against the rule.
For this great nation under God finds mention of Him very odd.

If Scripture now the class recites, it violates the Bill of Rights.
And anytime my head I bow becomes a Federal matter now.

For praying in a public hall might offend someone with no faith at all.
In silence alone we must meditate, God's name is prohibited by the state.

We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks, pierce our noses, tongues and cheeks.
They've outlawed guns, but first the Bible. To quote the Good Book makes me liable.

We can elect a pregnant Senior Queen, and the 'unwed daddy,' our Senior King.
It's 'inappropriate' to teach right from wrong,
We're taught that such 'judgments' do not belong.

It's scary here I must confess, when chaos reigns the school's a mess.
So, Lord, this silent plea I make: should I be shot; My soul please take! Amen.

Over 5,000 join online fight against new New York license plates

Submitted by Ted Dengler, Sr. (Copyright 2009 by The Associated Press. All Rights Reserved.)

A northern New York county clerk is carrying out an online petition drive to thwart Gov. David Paterson's plan to require all New Yorkers to purchase new license plates next April. St. Lawrence County Clerk Patricia Ritchie said it's an outrage to ask families and businesses to pay more for new license plates they don't need or want when they are being battered by the ongoing recession. Beginning April 1, the state will begin requiring new license plates for every one of the estimated 10 million cars, trucks, trailers and ATVs registered in the state at a cost of $25—a $10 increase over the current cost. Ritchie said more than 5,000 people have signed the petition in the first week to protest the new license plan. Sign the petition at <http://www.nonewplates.com>

HELEN VETTER submitted by Ted Dengler (Sr.)

Helen Vetter took up swimming in 2000. Vetter swims 120 laps a day, six days a week at the Arlington Park Pool and will be having her fourth hip replacement in October.

Helen's father was very active with 88th Street Kolping. This story dated August 20, 2009 came from the Samsota Observer, written by Maggie Pahos.

It's just after 8:30 a.m. and the 7 a.m. Masters Program session at the Arlington Park Pool is winding down.

On the far side of the pool, swimmers from Booker High School are warming up for the simulated meet that they are about to complete. And on the other side of the pool, one Masters Program swimmer keeps pushing through her training schedule, methodically going back and forth across the width of the pool. As she finishes another lap, she stops for a breath, smiles and says that she would love to talk.

Her name is Helen Vetter, and she says she has been working hard on her butterfly stroke this morning — a stroke that many swimmers of all ages avoid because of its difficulty. In October, Vetter, 69, will be having her fourth hip replacement in the past 15 years, but that's not stopping her from swimming 120 laps each day, six days a week. She has also placed nationally for her age group in All-American relays and has remained enthusiastic and positive about what she loves to do.

"My famous hips," Vetter jokes about her continuing surgeries. "The swimming is easier for me than walking. And it makes me feel good — it's a goal for me. I love the camaraderie between all of the people here."

The routine swimming keeps Vetter resilient, as well as feeling, looking and acting young, which landed her the nickname "Mademoiselle Duracell," given to her by her doctor.

Vetter, who spent 30 years as a teacher in Europe, began swimming in 2000 and now swims in the Masters Program at the Arlington Park Pool. Members of this program range in age anywhere from 13 to 69 years and have joined for a variety of reasons; some want to stay fit and in shape, some compete at local, state and national meets and some want to avoid getting rusty in-between swimming seasons on school teams.

Whatever the reason and whatever the skill level, all are invited to join the program, coached by Peter Hegwein, which meets five days a week and operates on an interval-training schedule that changes daily. For more information, contact Hegwein at 924-6908 or the Arlington Park Pool at 861-5000.

BY THE NUMBERS

9 — number of years that Vetter has been swimming

4 — number of hip replacements that Vetter will have had after October

90 — average number of minutes Vetter works out daily

What's Happening in New York This Month

By Jack McGee (718-478-0573)

MUSEUM NEWS

The Metropolitan Museum of Art—82 Street and Fifth Avenue—will hold a special exhibit until the 29th of this month (November).

Art lovers are slowly discovering that Holland had a second art genius during the 1600's, the undiscovered Johannes Vermeer. He did not receive the publicity due him at the time. Rembrandt belonged to the "Favorite circle."

A series of Vermeer masterpieces from the museum's personal collection will be added to "The Vermeer Exhibit" plus masterpieces newly arrived from Holland for this exhibit.

A large attendance is expected. People in the field have suddenly become interested in this "unknown" after nearly 400 years since he died. "Who was he?" Why did it take some 400 years to discover he might have been a better master in the world of art than Rembrandt?"

OPERA THRU FILM

Another great "invention" has recently been introduced to the world public. We can now see the world's operas thru film rather than the opera house, and at far reduced prices. The following film programs will be shown at Symphony Space, 95th Street and Broadway on the dates indicated for about an admission price in the $20's for a front row seat.

Mozart's "Così fan Tutte" Sunday, November 1st at 7:00pm and Sunday, November 15th at 7:00pm

Verdi's "Rigoletto" will be screened on Sunday, November 15th at 3:00pm.

Opera thru Film, an experience where you'll be on the stage with the singers themselves.

What's Cooking?

IN THE KOH KITCHEN

Welcome to the final edition of "What's Cooking in the KOH Kitchen" for the 2009 Season. We hope that you all enjoyed the variety of meals that were prepared and also some of the events (old and new) that were held. The newest edition, the Sunday Brunch was extremely well received and we are working on some dates for this event next season. We also received a lot of positive feedback about the What's Cooking page to the bulletin and are glad to hear that so many of you found it useful. The "What's Cooking" page will be taking a hiatus now for the winter but you can look forward to its return in the April 2010 edition of the Kolping Bulletin.

We want to take this opportunity to extend a huge thank you to all of the members that helped throughout the year both in the kitchen and at the various events held this season either running food, working the booths, parking attendants, running the cash register, grilling, serving, cleaning, etc. The list of things that people helped with is just as exhaustive as the list of people's names that helped. These events would not be successful without the help of you, our club members, and we thank you for answering the call for help.

We extend our gratitude:

KOH Closeout Dinner & Dance: The season's last big event featured a delicious meal featuring shrimp cocktail and filet mignon and scrumptious sides prepared by Kathy Weinborg, Doris Petsche and Helmi Pinner with additional support from Mike Weinborg and Donna Richardson. After dinner, guests enjoyed a dessert and coffee buffet in Asmuth Hall. Thanks to Lucille Colletti for donating delicious cookies and Jennifer Scheuermann for donating Bienenstich. Later in the evening, guests enjoyed hot appetizers and quiche made by Kathy Weinborg.

Servers & Dishwashers: We had a great group of servers that worked this season at KOH and we want to take this opportunity to thank them all for the excellent work: Kim Lynch, Keri Lynch, Heidi Weinborg, Kristen Marques, Alexa Richardson, Stephen Richardson, Brianna Tuma, Emma Cronin, Jesse Heyd, Christina Kraker, Stefanie Kraker, Andrea Janny and Amanda Mersits.

We will be looking for servers & dishwashers for next season. You do not need to commit for the whole season. You pick the day – Saturday or Sunday! This is a paid position open to members, friends and kids over 15 years of age. Dinners will be served every Saturday and Sunday from May 9, 2010 to October 16, 2010; unless otherwise noted. Please call Jen at 845-628-1483 or email at kitchen@kolpingny.org for details or to sign up.

We look forward to seeing you at our family Christmas/St. Nikolaus Day party. It's such a happy experience to see our party grow each year with the arrival of new children and grandchildren. It is a sure sign that we will preserve New York Kolping for many years to come.

All Kolping children and grandchildren 10 years of age and under will receive a gift from Santa, but only if you fill out the coupon below and return it to Santa's helper (Ann Horan) by November 21st—then your child will be sure to be on Santa's list.

Mail to: Ann Horan, 100 Montrose Point Rd, Montrose, NY 10548
