NEWS FROM BROOKLYN KOLPING [submitted by Jack McGee]:

Summer's over, we welcome fall!

Shorter days, longer nights and cooler temperatures on the way. Time to clear away the spent annuals from the garden and enjoy the harvest.

Two important days on our church calendar come in rapid succession in Autumn. In my youth I was taught by the teachers at St. Brigid School about the Feast Of All Saints, November 1st. We all have the potential to become saints we were told. That was an exciting prospect AND we also had the day off from school. All kids love that!

The following day is The Feast of All Souls. This holy day was not nearly as interesting to a child who had never lost a close relative or friend (thankfully). This is a day you come to better understand and appreciate as the years go by and you experience the loss of loved ones. How wonderful that our faith teaches us that though they may no longer be with us, that they are now with God.

All Soul's Day is now a special day on my calendar. I go through the stack of prayer cards collected over the years at wakes and funerals, and think of those who are gone. Relatives, friends, neighbors, Kolping members...we honor their memory on this quiet, dignified holy day.

Best wishes to all for a Happy Thanksgiving and for the Christmas season too!

—Bill Conte

Justice and Reconciliation in Africa: That the African continent may find strength in Christ to pursue justice and reconciliation as set forth by the Second Synod of African Bishops.

Thanks to all who were at KOH for Hurricane Irene clean-up. Your hard work was greatly appreciated!

K-O-H Closeout Party submitted by Linda Ahrens

Our summer season here at Kolping Hudson is over, but many wonderful memories remain. Our closeout party on October 8 had 65 people enjoying the company of good friends and family. The laughter and lively conversations that filled the dining room and bar area was testament to the good mood of the evening.

Dinner Choices were roast beef and fresh ham, along with several tasty side courses, which brought many attendees back for second helpings. Then came dessert, not one, but three gourmet treats that put the sweetest end to a delicious meal.

Our sincere appreciation to the people who worked many hours and gave of themselves, so the rest of us could enjoy this special evening.

A round of applause and many thanks to those as follows:
In the kitchen: Doris Petsche (her scrumptious deviled eggs), Helmi Pinner, Kathy Weinborg, Jennifer Scheuermann, Mike Scheuermann, Al Ahrens

Desserts: Extra special thanks to Manfred Galtwitz with assistance from Doris Petsche and Jennifer Scheuermann for baking over 100 Schillerlocken for our dessert. Kolping has not seen Schillerlocken for many years, this was truly an extra special treat. Thanks also to Elfie Orlowski and Lou Colletti for their dessert offerings, which rounded out the dessert table.

Also part of the working team: Tending bar, our favorite mixologist, Jerry Fullam, always ready with the best tasting drinks on the Hudson River.

Thanks to Heidi Umland for her delicious punch which added to the evening's enjoyment.

Spooning the tunes: from Bocelli to The Chicken Dance, our very own, Maria Stang.

Although the closeout party signifies the end of our 2011 season, we can think of it as an early prelude to our 2012 summer season and continued "Gemütlichkeit" here at Kolping Hudson.

K-O-H Oktoberfest submitted by Muriel Fullam and Jennifer Scheuermann

Our rescheduled Oktoberfest was held on Saturday, September 24th, 2011. It was a cloudy and damp day but we did manage to have fun. We thank all of those who helped make it a successful and fun event—firstly all the ladies who donated the baked goods that were enjoyed by all—Barbara Roche, Helmi Pinner, Elfie Orlowski, Marion Povolonis, Kathryn Weigand and Lou Colletti. And a special thank you to Manfred Gallwitz for coming and baking the delicious plum cake with Evelyn Ryzerski and Jennifer Scheuermann again this year. Thanks should also be given to all the ladies who cleaned and pitted the plums in record time!

Our BBQ's and our cooks in the kitchen also need to be mentioned and thanked, they are—Jennifer Scheuermann, Kathy Weinborg, Doris Petsche, Heidi Umland, Al Ahrens Erich & Wilfriede Roessler, Phyllis Coletti, and Lou & Nick Colletti.

Really there are so many volunteers to thank—Helmi Pinner, Johanna McGreevy, Gerda Steinke are just a few of the people who helped man the wine booth and the raffle booth. Rich Povolonis, Gerhard Schmitt, James Rohrbacher, Albert Buchholz, John McGreevy, Ernst Endrich, Bobby Jaki, Jerry Fullam, Linda Ahrens, Mike Weinborg all pitched in and helped wherever and whenever needed. I am sure I am forgetting some of our wonderful volunteers and for that I am sorry.

Harvest Craft Fair & Flea Market submitted by Muriel Fullam

It was a busy weekend for all. Sunday, Sept 25th was our first ever Harvest Craft Fair and Flea Market. We had over 50 vendors from far and near, displaying their handiwork and wares. They sold everything from Clothing, handbags, brand name flip flops, books, dishes, knit goods, ceramics, homemade cupcakes, jewelry, perfume, dolls, religious items, notecards, trains sets to beautiful sunflower arrangements. The sun was out and we had a good turnout.

Thanks to Jennifer Scheuermann and Kathy Weinborg along with Doris Petsche and Heidi Umland for organizing and setting up all the food needed for the day. Thanks also to Mike Scheuermann & Nick Colletti for spending their day off from work at the BBQ pit along with Erich & Wilfriede Roessler, Phyllis Coletti and Al Ahrens. Special thanks to our cash register girls, also known as the Ahrens grandchildren, Anneli and Camile Cantu. They did a great job greeting the customers, collecting the money and giving change. Also a big thank you to Matt Kern, Danielle Kern, Samantha Boben (all Fullam grandkids) for keeping the little ones busy in the Children's Craft Tent. Danielle did an awesome job with the face painting. They were helped by their friends Jason and Robert. Linda Ahrens and her daughter Beverly Cantu did a great job with the 50/50. They collected $442! The winner of the 50/50 was lucky little Emily Weinborg—$221!

Richie Povolonis, Jerry Fullam, Bobby Jaki, Johan Jung, Jeff Bernert, James Rohrbacher were also there to help us with parking, cleanup, moving vendor tables etc. You name it, they did it.

The winners of the Silent Auction were:

Web's Fire Protection 5-pound Fire Extinguisher was won by Frank Wiegand.

Coles Market $50 gift Certificate was won Christine Lovacz.

Stories of Interest

BRONX TRAIN TRAGEDY submitted by Martin A. Kelly

Father Kolping must have looked down and smiled, approvingly, on a Bronx attorney's charity to dignify an impoverished widow.

Eleanora Gsell, a German-American, had fallen on bad times; to supplement her Social Security and pension stipend, she resorted to the casinos where she hoped "Luck would be a lady tonight"—she was not!

The blistering heat of July and the fact that her electricity had been turned off, must have driven Eleanora over the brink. She was last seen, alive, on the platform of the elevated 231st Street and Broadway MTA Station in the Bronx. The rest is too gruesome.

An acquaintance, Miss Carinct, a lawyer was shocked by the tragic news and responded by marshalling the local resources. With the generosity of the Riverdale neighborhood, she saw that the deceased was given a dignified funeral mass at St. John's R. C. Church and an appropriate burial with her husband.

DORIS DAY—GERMAN AMERICAN TREASURE submitted by Martin A. Kelly

She has been described in superlative terms; faithful, all-American virgin, many-splendored; but, the virtue that might most closely characterize her would be: smooth resilience.

Doris was born in 1924, in Ohio, but, by the time she was 5, her parents separated. She was brought up by her mother, who, having been an aspiring actress, enrolled Doris in dance classes.

A motor vehicle accident involving Doris left her with an unnatural gait; but the ending of one career helped launch another. While hospitalized, she cultivated her singing voice, so that when she was discharged, local swing band leaders eagerly sought her as a vocalist.

Ominously, the rumble of drums and the clicking of jack boots across the Atlantic aroused the suspicions of Americans about people with German-American last names: and how could they miss with someone like Doris Von Kappelhof.

So with a visit to the court and a flick of the pen, she became "Doris Day", and her popularity soared. She made hundreds of records; the most popular probably, was "Sentimental Journey". It was cut in 1945, and its endearing lyrics rhapsodized the feelings of millions of our returning service men being discharged from the Armed Forces.

Miss Day married three times, the third one (to her manager-agent) turned sour when she inspected the "Kiste" (piggy bank) and found she had been defrauded of 20 million dollars. After a prolonged court trial she was awarded her losses.

In what would be her declining years, Doris is outgoing and keeps up lively contacts with her friends and fans. One of her main benevolent causes is animal rights. Considering her contributions to the entertainment world in records, films and personal appearances—not to mention her charitable acts—Doris Day is, indeed, a German-American treasure. At 87 years, we rise to toast her "Lang Soll Sie Leben, Lang Soll Sie Leben, Dreimal Soll".

"THE WAY" A NEW FILM IN TOWN submitted by Jack McGee

Last month the above film opened here in New York with a limited showing in only two movie theaters. It is a sentimental story about a father, Martin Sheen, who makes a pilgrimage from France to Spain to the Spanish Shrine of Santiago de Compostela.

Mr. Sheen and his son, Emilio Estevez wrote and directed the film about a father who makes this pilgrimage to honor the memory of his son, who started the journey himself, but was killed in a freak storm before he could finish his way to the shrine.

They have been touring the U.S. promoting the film, as it opened in various cities but they were only able to get limited booking in two cinemas here in New York, "The AMC Empire 25 on 42nd Street and the Loew's Kips Bay on 2nd Avenue and 32nd Street. "Where" and "if" it may be showing, when you receive this November "Bulletin," I would not care to guess. My only suggestion would be to check this Friday's Times, Post or Daily News if you are interested or curious. It got a big splash on Time Warner Channel 146 and in the local Catholic press.

THE PLOT:

Tom (Martin Sheen) meets several pilgrims as he treks "The Way" who were more of a sleazy type pilgrim rather than the deeply spiritual that we expect to meet. And, with this in view, the Catholic News service has classified the film as A- III - Adults. The Motion Picture Association of America rating is PG 13 - parents strongly cautioned. Some material may be inappropriate for children under 13.

While the film has a Catholic theme, one Catholic critic commented that "pilgrims it portray, in its focus, is more broadly spiritual than specifically religious. Thus, Catholicism is treated as something the "on screen travelers encounter," rather than fully embrace, "Yet, is one that audiences of faith will find congenial." And yet, when one considers what is playing all around town, with the themes, the language, the plots, etc. a film of this type should be supported and might be searched out, if it's still around.

OPERA FROM THE MET AT YOUR LOCAL MOVIE THEATER

The opera season from the Met has started with new technology called Trans Mission by High Definition (HD). Each month for this 2011-2012 Season, one or two operas will be transmitted from the stage of the opera house on Saturday afternoons which usually has been known as Saturday Afternoon, at the Met.

Throughout Manhattan, Queens and Westchester arrangements have been contracted with select movie houses where the production on Met stage, will be broadcast on the screen of your local theater.

Front seats at the Met sell for $400 and you "have to travel." Now opera comes to your neighborhood for a fraction of the cost. This month's Saturday Afternoon Matinees will be on November 5th at 12pm with Wagner's lengthy "Siegfried" and on Nov. 19th with Philip Glass's "Satyagraha." at 12:55.

The running for "Siegfried" is timed for 6 hours and for "Satyagraha" at 4 hours and 10 minutes. The select theaters chosen will be posted on the movie theater page of the N.Y. Times, Post and Daily News on the Friday before presentation, November 4th for "Siegfried" and November 18th for "Satyagraha." Note the early 12 noon starting time for "Siegfried."

Checking the Friday newspaper may allow for purchasing tickets in advance and avoiding Saturday box office frustration at being told "Sorry, Sold Out." The "radio" Saturday Afternoon presentations will not start until Dec. 3rd.

We look forward to seeing you at our family Christmas/St. Nikolaus Day party. Each year our party grows with the arrival of new children and grandchildren. This event is sure to put a smile on your face and lift your spirits! It is a sure sign that we will preserve New York Kolping for many years to come.

All Kolping children and grandchildren 10 years of age and under will receive a gift from Santa, but only if you fill out the coupon below and return it to Santa's helper (Muriel Fullam) by November 20th (the earlier the better, so the shopping can begin!)—then your child will be sure to be on Santa's list.

Please RSVP to Muriel Fullam at 914-582-8379 or MurielFullam@msn.com

Mail to: Muriel Fullam, 95 Montrose Point Rd., Montrose, NY 10548
