SERVICE PROJECTS 2024

FURRY FRIENDS can be made more comfortable with our clean, cast-off towels and bed linens. We'll be collecting these at KOH for the SPCA.

WINTER COATS are needed! As you switch your closet from Winter to Spring, think about passing on coats that you didn't use this year. Bring to KOH on the weekends. We'll deliver them to partners in Westchester who provide them to people in need when the weather turns.

FOOD DRIVE—Let's fill up the box for our Vets. All food collected will go to the VA Hospital Food Pantry here in Montrose. Please bring something to share with a veteran. Donations can be placed in the labeled crate in the main house.

Do you have an idea for a service project for our Society? Share your ideas and perhaps we can get a team engaged to work on it.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES EVENT

From Bill Conte, President of Kolping Brooklyn

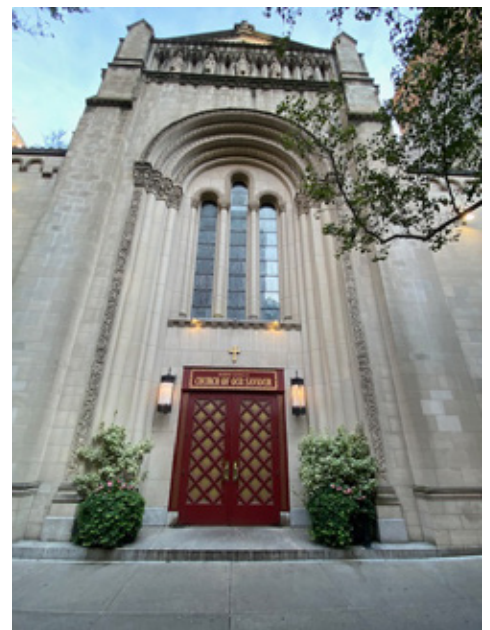

I represented our Kolping Family today at an event which reviewed the Work of Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese of New York and an opportunity to meet Kerry Robinson, Executive Director of Catholic Charities USA, who was visiting New York from Washington DC.

The event was held in the undercroft of the Church of Our Savior, Park Avenue and 38th Street in New York City, and concluded with a barbecue reception on the church's beautiful rooftop space. Our host was Monsignor Kevin Sullivan, who is the head of Catholic Charities for the Archdiocese and also the Pastor of the Church of our Savior.

We met folks at our table from the Xavier Society for the Blind and Astor Services in Westchester County, and as the presentation started we heard about many programs that exist throughout our region that Catholic Charities supports. Kerry Robinson is still in her first year in this position and is visiting the various agencies around the country. She told us there is a misconception that Catholic Charities only aids Catholics. This is totally not true - and she added "we give aid to ALL because we ARE Catholics".

We learned that the biggest need in the United States is hunger, followed by a lack of affordable housing. Supporting food pantries is the Brooklyn Kolping Family's primary outreach, and providing affordable housing at the NY Kolping House and Kolping on the Concourse is NY Kolping's...so I would say we are on target!

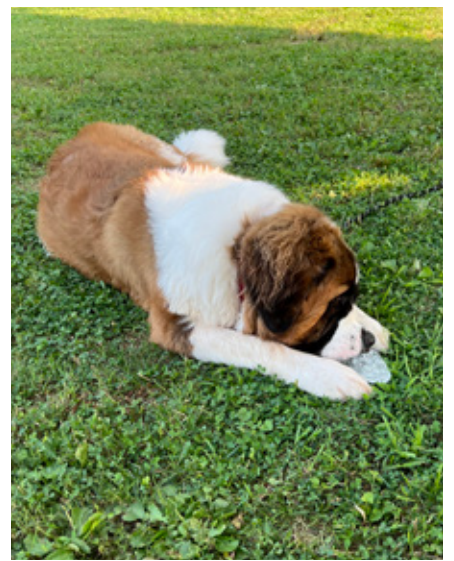

Thanks to Katrina Dengler, Vice President of New York Kolping, who let me know about the event and suggested we attend together.

CLAM BAKE AT KOLPING-ON-HUDSON

Kolping on Hudson's annual Clam Bake was held this past Saturday. It was one of the best days this Summer on the Hudson River. With a cool breeze keeping us comfortable in the shade, we enjoyed the gorgeous sunshine at our beautiful retreat. Thanks go out to the big team that makes this possible. Kolping member Dan McGill brings his band Father Jones to perform live on the great lawn. Jen Scheuermann and Kathy Weinborg lead a team preparing delicious food for all the guests. Member Sixto Portilla donated several hundred oysters from his farm on the Great South Bay of Long Island. Mike Scheuermann, Brett LaRocque, Jim Desharnais, John Barbelet, Kevin Bruegger, Steve Lovasz, Dennis Noll, Natasha Borodin, Gerhard Schmitt and Ted Dengler kept things moving in the food tent. Alfred Vogl ensured that there was plenty of beer and drinks to accompany the seafood. Kat Burke pitched in with ticket sales, rounding up stray volunteers and generally doing whatever was needed, all with a warm smile on her face. Alex Schmitt sold 50/50 tickets and recruited Meghan and Katherine DeMarmels to pull the winning ticket. John Weigand and Frank Weigand worked with the team setting up the tents and tables. Congratulations go out to lucky winners James and Karen Falk. Tracie Truncellito and Christine McGrath organized the ticketing, secured life guards and fielded and all those last minute surprises that always crop up. Joan Dengler checked in the members and guests as they arrived. Members Sharon and Dave Gallo are to be recognized for their great patronage of the event—having nearly twenty people (or more?) in their party. All the guests enjoyed a fabulous day. We'll be reconvening in this spot in a couple of weeks—mark your calendar for the Oktoberfest picnic on the Sunday of Labor Day weekend.
